LOCAL HAPPENINGS HERE AND THERE

One of the best yields of wheat in lower Kent is the crop harvested by T. Ringgold Jones. He threshed 27½ bushels per acre off 50 acres. He had bearded wheat.

Fire, said to have originated in a defective flue, burned the two-story frame dwelling of Charles Scott, colored, in Sharptown, near Rock Hall, on Monday night about 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank B. Evans has sold her fine farm of 123 acres, partly within the town limits of Elkton and improved by a handsome modern mansion house, to J. Ben Decker, on private terms.

Harry C. Butler, of Queenstown, Monday was appointed captain of the State police, to succeed Charles E. Myers, resigned. A veteran of two wars, the new chief holds the rank of major in the Maryland National Guard. He won the Distinguished Service Cross in the World War. Mr. Butler will assume command of the State Police on his return from Camp Ritchie, where his regiment is encamped.

A large freight engine sent to Chestertown as a special to haul out wheat cars was too long to make the curve that enters the yard of C. W. Kibler and Sons and jumped the track. The wrecking crew sent here restored the engine to its place on the rails after a few hours.

"Ed" Duffey, former Washington College star tackle, who uses his vacation from school teaching, firing on the Pennsylvania lines, was fireman on the wrecked engine.

In looking over some old papers that had been in the possession of his family for years, Wilbur W. Hubbard, of Chestertown, came across two lottery tickets dated 1784. The lottery for which the tickets were issued was known as the Washington College Lottery, State of Maryland. The ticket calls for the holder to receive the amount drawn for that number less a discount of 15 per cent. The two tickets are on a single sheet of paper. A deed dated 1772, concerning a transfer of property within the Hubbard family was also found.

Plans are being made for the erection of a portico to the front of the Third National Bank.

Howell Crew, son of the late Chas. H. Crew, has rented Harry Willis fine farm near Fairlee. Mr. Willis has not decided where he will move.

While at the Chestertown P. E. picnic at Newnam's Wharf on Thursday last, Mrs. Sidney Manning accidentally slipped and broke her ankle. Dr. H. G. Simpers rendered medical aid and on his advice she went to a Baltimore hospital accompanied by her husband.

The carnival at Millington netted the Community Fire Company $1,700 instead of $900 as reported last week.

A broken bridle caused a horse to run away at Betterton Sunday afternoon and injure two colored men who were in the team. The horse was owned by Harry D. Hendrickson. As the team neared Emerson's Filling Station, on the main road into Betterton one of the men, Jim Peaker, jumped from the team and caught his foot in the wheel. He was severely cut about the head and face and knocked unconscious by the fall. The other man, Walter Walley, escaped with a badly injured finger.

The executive board of the Chestertown Public Library are re-cataloguing the books of the Library. In this undertaking they have been ably assisted by Miss Wedekind, librarian of Washington College, who says that she has been so helped by her library training that she feels she owes a debt to all libraries. She is now taking a course at the University of California and the Board in appreciation sent her a box of candy. She wrote in response a letter in a very unique form. While it was addressed to the chairman of the board, yet there was enclosed a note addressed to each member with different parts of the note on it. It meant that all the members must meet and put the various notes together. It was quite like a Chinese puzzle and they had good deal of fun making out the meaning. It proved to be a very sweet note of appreciation, and words of help and encouragement.

Mrs. Leonard L. Howeth entertained as her house guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Allen, Miss Leona Tammany, of Wilmington, Del., and Wm. J. Hoover, of Lancaster, Pa., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Bryan, near town.
