LOCAL HAPPENINGS HERE AND THERE

Wheat threshing in Kent is about finished.

Washington College is booking students rapidly. The limit is 250.

Chester river these days is a thing of beauty.

Chestertown gardens with their gladiolas are hard to excel.

The Tolchester Company's boat leaving Tolchester at 8 a. m. is quite well patronized by Kent countians.

The ladies of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church held a successful chicken and waffle supper on Thursday evening at Worton Manor, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan D. Maxwell, the net proceeds from which were about $75.

Odd Fellows and the Order of Rebekah of Cecil and Kent counties held a joint rally at Betterton Monday. In the afternoon the feature event was an entertainment given on Turner's Pier by the children of the I. O. O. F. Home. At night Odd Fellows' degrees were conferred upon candidates in the Betterton High School auditorium, while the order of Rebekah staged an entertainment in the Still Pond Lodge room.

Frank L. Elliott, a merchant of Fairlee, has been awarded the contract for transporting the school children of that town to the Chestertown schools, by the County Board of Education on a bid of $1,200.

The Chester River Yacht Club has accepted the invitation of the Miles River Yacht Club to attend the regatta at St. Michaels, Friday and Saturday. The local fleet departed on Thursady afternoon and made its way down the Chester River and the Chesapeake Bay arriving at St. Michaels in ample time to greet the Tri-State Yacht Club of Essington, Pa., which staged a race from the Pennsylvania town.

Lewis E. Lawes, warden of Sing Sing prison, will be the speaker at Chestertown Chautauqua on the evening of the third day. He will bring an interesting story from the New York prison.

Junior Chautauqua, as usual, will be attractive to the children and more than pay for the price of the ticket.

For the second time in two months thieves raided the hen roost of Mrs. Julian Jones, two miles from town, getting away with 18 of her best chickens. The first raid netted the thieves 100 broilers which had been sold at $1 apiece for the 4th of July delivery.

This has been a week of Sunday school picnics given by churches throughout the county, as many as three churches having selectedThursday for holding their annual picnic. Salem M. E. Church and Wesley M. P. Sunday schools enjoyed the day at Tolchester, a large crowd from St. James Sunday school spent the day at Bramble's Shore on Fairlee creek.

The Seney-Hurlock farm in Queen Anne's, near Chester river bridge, has been sold at private sale to Foster Smith who will remove thereon. This farm contains 130 acres and sold for $16,500. Mr. Dewberry, the present tenant, will remove to the Carter-Parks farm.

A Vacation Bible School which had been successfully conducted by Sunday school and church workers of Still Pond M. E. Church closed on Sunday morning with a demonstration of the work of the more than 50 children who took the various courses.

Harry C. Stanley, prominent business man and churchman of Kennedyville, will leave with his family for Blue Ridge Summitt, Pa., where they will make their future home. Mr. Stanley and his family will be missed.

The work on the dirt road leading from the State road to Old St. Paul's has been started. The parishoners are cooperating with the county and are hauling slag from Ship Yard as their part of the labor.

A bumble bee caused the partial wreck of an automobile driven by Miss Marian Collins, of this town on Wednesday afternoon. While en route to Church Hill with her mother and another occupant, the bee flew into the car and in her efforts to prevent being stung, Miss Collins lost control of the car, which crashed into a telephone pole along the roadside. No one was injured seriously, but the car was damaged.

The Chestertown Electric Light and Power Company have an important notice in another column to citizens of Rock Hall, Fairlee, Kennedyville and other parts of Kent.

Attorney W. F. Russell, Jr., held up the Armstrong property on Cannon street at $1200, Tuesday for the approval of the heirs of the sale.

The appointment of Wilbur Jackson Stenger to be assistant to Prof. Creasy in the Chestertown High School, has been confirmed by Prof. Robinson. He will have charge of the athletics in addition to other duties as teacher. Prof. Stenger married Miss Helen Connelly and is a graduate of Washington College.

A delightful surprise was given Mrs. Virginia Toulson last Thursday evening, the occasion being her 79th birthday. Friends gathered to express their best wishes, bestow gifts and after refreshments were served left for their homes wishing her many more birthdays. A large birthday cake with 79 candles was presented by her grandchildren. Mrs. Toulson is well-known in Kent county, being the widow of the late Thos. W. Toulson, of Quaker Neck, but has made her home in Centreville the past three years with her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Pinder and has won many friends by her sunny disposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Wilson, of Lewes, Del., will tenant the McClary house on Kent Circle on or about September 1st. Mr. Wilson has accepted a position as book-keeper in the office of Massey & Wilmer. Mrs. McClary will remove to Kennedyville where she will reside with her sister, Mrs. Melvin.

County Agent Horace B. Derrick and family have gone to Tall Cedars on the Potomac river where they will spent a ten days' camping vacation with relatives and friends.

Two Chestertown gunners, J. B. Metcalfe and C. A. Bacon, entered the Yorklyn, Del., shoot last week and though not winning turned in good cards. Out of 150 possible targents, Metcalfe broke 138 and Bacon 118. Morris Crothers, Philadelphia amateur, was the winner of the shoot when he broke 149 targets out of the 150.

contests Kennedyville topped Providence last Saturday 9 to 0. The game was played at Providence. "Tough" Groff was the winning twirler and turned in his best game since becoming a member of the Kennedyville nine. Striking out 14 men and allowing but a single hit.

Thirteen marrige licenses have been issued in Kent the past week, only one being from Maryland.

For the fourth time in as many

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

Wm. S. Gardner, son Dr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Gardner, of Baltimore, has become associated with the investment department of the firm of Alex. Brown & Sons, Baltimore, Md. Mr. Gardner has spent several years with a big trust company of Baltimore and has many friends in the banking business who wish him success with the old firm of Alex. Brown & Sons.

Major Robert E. Jones, of the U. S. Army, now stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, is on a month's leave and is spending it in Mexico City taking in the sights. Major Jones is a brother of Mrs. Clara Williams, of Worton.

Allan B. Harris, of Chicago, Ill., was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris, in Chestertown, this week.

George Brice and wife, of Far Hills New Jersey, have been guests this week of relatives and friends in Kent.

Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman and son, Wm. Walter, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Frank V. Simpers and Miss Louise Simpers, left Thursday for Camp Red Cloud, where they will visit the former's son and daughter, James W. Chapman, 3rd, and Miss Theodeca Chapman.

State Treasurer and Mrs. Howard M. Ward, of Wilmington, were guests on Sunday of W. B. Copper and Miss Palmer Carroll.

Geo. A. Bunting, a prominent druggist from Baltimore, was a visitor to Chestertown Wednsday. He is one of Washington College's graduates in class of 1891.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Craner and son, Clifton, and Miss May Floyd were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rodney, near Worton Sunday.

Fred. A. Burt, of Mannington, W. Va., with his wife and children have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, Quaker Neck.

Henry Kratzer and wife and Miss Elsie and Philip Kratzer, of Chestertown, have on an auto trip this week to northern points of interest.

Miss Marian Rinehart, of near Fairlee, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers on the Avenue.

Master Alday Clements has been spending the week at Dover and Rehoboth.

Little Selma Brown, of Chestertown, spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Dickerson, of Quaker Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. White, of Philadelphia, have taken a lease on the "Green Point" farm of Mrs. Lillie Dixon, for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. Jennie Gorsuch, of Baltimore, is spending some time with her nephew and niece, Charles M. Lloyd, Jr., and Miss Lillian Allen. Her son, Oscar E. Gorsuch and family will spend the week-end with them. After touring through Canada they will return home Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Richardson has returned to her home in Baltimore after spending the past ten days the guest of Miss Margaret Cooper. She was accompanied home by Miss Cooper, who will be her guest for a week.

Everett Sheats, of Baltimore, has been visiting relatives here for several days.

Mrs. Louise White, of Berkshire, N. Y., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hendershott.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allcutt, Sr., their son, Walter, Mrs. Minnie Newcomb and Mrs. Natalie Kennard spent Sunday the guests of the former's brother at Rehoboth, Del.

Miss Sarah Brown, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Newsome. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Brown, their daughter, Miss Mary Brown and Clyde Shelton, of Baltimore, were their guests on Sunday.

Lieut. Harry Derringer, of Washington, D. C., is spending some time with his mother, Mrs. Alice Derringer here.

Miss Edith Strong, of Denton, has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Dukes for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Eliason, Jr., and family have returned to their home after a week's trip in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl N. Bordley and children, and Mrs. Thomas S. Bordley are visiting in New Jersey this week.

Percy Jewell is quite sick at his home on High street.

Mrs. J. B. McIntire has been quite sick at her home the past week.

Misses Margaret Wilkinson and Dora Patterson, of Philadelphia, and Miss Dora McIntire, of East Orange, N. J., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Webster McIntire.

Pryor Armstrong, of Newark, N. J., is the guest of Edward Robinson here.

Mrs. Harry Rouse, of Havre de Grace, is visiting friends in the county.

Mrs. Walter T. Bennett spent last week the guest of friends at Charlestown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Lambert entertained over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ashman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Willis, of Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walls, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lambert, of Wilmington.

Mrs. J. H. Bowers and two sons of Pittsburg, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Connelly and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Connelly, of Chautauqua, N. Y., are guests of Dr. H. P. Copeland and wife on Kent Square.

Mrs. S. Scott Beck, J. Thos. Kibler and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Usilton motored to Camp Red Cloud this week for the water sports. S. Scott Beck, Jr., and W. B. Usilton, 3rd are members of this big camp.

Rev. Robert Comly and family, of Lancaster, Pa., visited his brother, Samuel J. Comly, near Locust Grove, this week. He is a well-known minister of the North. He is also a former member of the Chestertown Lodge of Masons having received his degree here 20 years ago.

Mrs. Harold Curry and daughter, of New York, were guests this week of her brother and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, in Chestertown. Mrs. Curry and family has just returned from a trip to Europe.

Mrs. Lillie Elliott of Philadelphia, has been the guests this week of Mrs. S. Scott Beck in Chestertown.

Mrs. Isaac Dixon who has returned from a western tour reports that her membership card of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce added to her enjoyment of the trip thru the cordial reception received at the various Chambers of Commerce with which she came in contact. In helping to solve the farmer's problem, the Colorado Springs Chamber buys seed for tenant farmers who are without credit. $60,000 was appropriated by this body last year for that purpose.

A. Parks Rasin, deputy collector internal revenue, was in town this week on business connected with his office.

The Misses Grace and Barbara Upjohn, of New York City, are visiting their uncle, Fred B. Westcott for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Bamberg, of Baltimore, have been guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Baxter on the Avenue.

Perry W. Ruth was the recipient of numerous congratulations on his eightieth birthday, which he recently celebrated at his home in Crumpton, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pinder celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary last Sunday by entertaining a number of guests at their home in Centreville. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pinder, of New Castle; Mrs. Bertha Pinder, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Pinder and daughter, of Worton; Mrs. Sarah Merchant, of Chestertown; Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis, and Mr. Morgan, of Pheonixville, Pa.

The eighth annual reunion of the Wheatley family will be held at Wheatley's M. P. Church, nine miles west of Seaford, in Upper Dorchester county, Md., one and one-quarter mile from Galestown, Md., Thursday August 18. This is one of the largest family gatherings on the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula, from 500 to 1,000 descendants of the late Charles Wheatley, coming from practically every State in the union, attending As high as 1,000 people have attended these reunions on clear days.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Seney, of Price, Md., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Robinson, to Ray J. Schmidt, of Sudlersville, Md., Monday, August 1st, 1927, at Galena, Md. Prof. Roy Schmidt is well-known in Kent.

Postmaster and Mrs. John N. Bennett, accompanied by Miss Mahoney, secretary to Dean J. S. Wm. Jones, of the Washington College faculty, are enjoying a three weeks' motor trip to Chicago and parts of the West.

On Saturday, August 6, the members of the Brice family met together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brice at Dinner. Those present of the immediate family were W. Tylden Brice, Mrs. James L. Beck, Mrs. M. E. Fountain, Mrs. C. W. Whaland, John Brice, Mrs. Thomas Skipper, all of Kent County; George Brice, of Far Hills, N. J.; Mrs. John Welch and Joseph Brice, of Kent and Mrs. J. E. Kelked, of Fort Worth, Texas, who has been spending several weeks in the county. With the oldest member of the large family beyond the three score years and ten mark, the Brice family has been remarkably fortunate that their large circle has been unbroken and the opportunity of a reunion was made the most of with the coming to the county of the youngest member, Mrs. Welker. A few very close friends were also present at the dinner. Pictures were taken of the interesting family group by Miss Alverta Brice, who was home from Baltimore for the occasion.

Miss Alverta Brice who left Kent County last March to take up work at Owings Mills at the estate of Mrs. Randolph Nichols has had a most successful time in establishing a riding school. Miss Brice who has been called the most skilled horsewoman on the Eastern Shore by Lt. Hanby who assisted in the work of organizing and training the Polo Team, is not only teaching riding but is also training horses. Miss Brice is in demand on the western shore as a polo player and has proved herself a valuable asset to various teams with which she worked after the Kent team was disbanded. Miss Brice spent the week-end at the home of her father, Mr. John Brice and attended the reunion dinner of Mr. Brice's sisters and brothers.

Mrs. A. C. Bacon and Miss Maud Duyer are the guests of friends in Salisbury.

Miss Emily Lusby had her adnoids removed at Easton Hospital this week.

Henry Nehus, of lower Kent, whose wife has been in public print for some months was in town Saturday, conferring with his attorney, Wm. F. Russell, Jr., regarding an offer which he received the past week of $20,000 for his Eastern Neck Island farm and home which is in the very heart of the most valuable ducking grounds on the Chesapeake bay. His attorney advised him to sell the property and it is likely that he will accept the advice. While in Chestertown Nehus stated that he will institute divorce proceedings against his wife, Mrs. Marie Nehus, who caused his arrest and conviction on the charge of wife beating, and who is at present confined in the State Sanatorium at Catonsville for observation to determine her sanity following her arrest on the charge of starting the recent big fire in Church Hill which destroyed $75,000 worth of property.

One of the best sales of the week was that of R. Gerald Myers near Black's Station. Untested cattle sold from $70 to $105. Two pair Percheron horses brought $700 and a mare $101. The implements also sold well.

Betterton Casino Dances

Every Morning Every Evening
Music by Farson's Orchestra
Every Night a Good Night
Lucky Number Dance Every Monday Night. Also Excursion from Havre de Grace. Meet your friends from across the Bay.
German and Confetti Carnival
Wednesday, August 17
Novelties and Favors Admission 50c
Free Concert on Pier on Sunday evening
MOVING PICTURES
Monday, Aug. 15, The Lady in Ermine
Tuesday, Aug. 16, Arizona Bound
Wednesday, Aug. 17, The World at Her Feet
Thursday, Aug. 18, Strong Man
Friday, Aug. 19, Special Delivery
Saturday, Aug. 20, Broadway Night
A box of candy given to the holder of lucky number each night.
EXCELLENT BATHING
Bath Houses Bath Suits Canoes
Prizes given for High Weekly Scores in Duck Pins.
Betterton Casino
Howard Turner, Prop.

Lyceum Theatre
CHESTERTOWN, MD.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
AUGUST 12 and 13
A Paramount Picture
Jack Holt
—in—
"The Mysterious Rider"
A born leader of men is forced to become a masked rider.
Also Pathe News, Fables.
MONDAY AND TUESDAY
AUGUST 15 and 16
Shirley Mason
and Cullen Landis
—in—
"Sweet Rosie O'Grady"
A fascinating romance of a cinderella of the sidewalks of New York with thrills and frills.
Also Comedy.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
AUGUST 19 and 20
Bert Lytell
and Billie Dove
—in—
'The Lone Wolf Returns'
Mystery melodrama at it's best,
Also Pathe New and Fables.

As cool as it looks---a soft collar-to-match shirt

$1.50 to $3.50

He's wearing the newest shirt, the "Whip," with three-inch collar point.

We're showing them in the finest summer weight white shirtings; colors, too, in close set pin stripings, checks and plaids.

Ties, belts, sport shoes--- every smart accessory is here with sensible prices

BORDLEY & SON
Chestertown, Maryland

"DUCO"

Dries fast and lasts. For furniture, woodwork, floors etc. Duco your slippers to match your gown, and in one hour's time they are ready to wear. We will be pleased to have you call and get color card.

We carry complete line of Paints, Varnishes, etc.

Jones & Satterfield
Chestertown, Maryland.

X-RAY EXAMINATION
$1.00
FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY

Do you have stomach trouble in any of its forms? Do you belch gas, have a distress feeling before or after eating, have indigestion or acid stomach?

If other methods failed to help you, you should try my drugless treatments and get well.

Remember I locate the cause of your ailments with the X-Ray, and treat you with my new Chiropractic methods.

My X-Ray examination for $1.00 is for a limited time only, take advantage of it now.

Bring your health troubles to

DOCTOR CARTER
CHIROPRACTOR
Palmer School Graduate
Queen Street and Maple Ave. Chestertown, Md.
Office Hours—Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday 12 noon to 6 p.m.
Open Saturday until 9 p. m. Other days by appointment.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_23_1-0333