DOWNIE BRO. WILD ANIMAL CIRCUS

Visitors to the great Downie Bros. Circus will exhibit here on Tuesday September 6th, on Bell's lot, are always delighted with the courtesy shown them by all the employees of the show. Visitors are made to feel welcome. They are regarded as patrons who are conferring a favor by their presence. In striking contrast to the treatment of the public by the ordinary show, which seems to regard their patrons as interlopers, this unfailing courtesy adds greatly to the pleasure of a visit to these vast exhibitions. Careful attention to the comfort and welfare of ladies and children is made obligatory upon everyone connected with the shows by the management, and so it is that ladies and children may attend these exhibitions without the slightest discomfort or danger if they have no male escort.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear father, Robert Holdson, who departed this life one year ago Aug. 21st. 1927.

The hands that did so much for us,
How helplessly they lay,
God knows they worked continuously,
But they are gone today.
Upright and faithful in all his ways,
A wonderful character to the end of his days,
A loving father true and kind,
What a beautiful memory he left behind.
None knows of the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that's borne in silence
For the one we loved so well.

Daughter Susie, son Frank and Wife and grandson Robert.

In sad and loving remembrance of my dear husband, Robert, who died one year ago August 21, 1926.

It was on a Saturday morning,
I shall not forget the day,
When the silent reaper came,
And took my dear husband away.
Upright and faithful in all his ways,
Wonderful character to the end of his days.
Loving husband true and kind,
What a beautiful memory he left behind.

By his wife, Frances.

Before our eyes he faded,
Growing weaker every day,
Doing all we could to save him
Until God took him away.

By his son, Walter Holdson and wife Edith.

In loving memory of our dear son and brother who departed this life two years ago August 17, 1925.

His willing hands are folded,
His toil on earth is done,
His troubles are all ended,
His heavenly crown is won.
Some may think we have forgotten you,
Though on earth you are no more,
But in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.

By his devoted parents.

Sleep on dear brother, and take your rest,
God called you home; he thought it best,
In silence you suffered, in patience you bore
Until God called you home to suffer no more.

Loving Sister.

NEW TAGS BEING MADE

Maryland automobile license tags for 1928 will be easy on the eyes as far as their color scheme is concerned. They will have a light blue background with white lettering and numerals.

The contract for the new tags was awarded to the Maryland Penitentiary and they are being manufactured by convict labor.

In accordandce with an act of the last Legislature, motorists may put on their 1928 license tags on December 15th. Such an arrangement, Commissioner Baughman thinks, will tend to eliminate the rush for tags which usually begins after Christmas Day of each year. Prior to 1927, automobile owners were not permitted to operate their cars until the first day of the year for which they were issued.

YOUNG WOMEN MAY KEEP WELL

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Here is Proof

St. Paul, Minn.—"Here is a little advice I would like to have you put in the papers," Mrs. Jack Lorberter of 704 Dellwood Place wrote to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company. "If young women want to keep their health and strength for the next thirty years of their lives, it is best to start in right now and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have tried the Compound myself and received fine results from its use." In describing her condition before taking the Compound, she writes, "I was afraid in my own house in broad daylight, I used to lock the doors and pull down the shades so that nobody could see me." One day a booklet advertising the Vegetable Compound was left on her porch and she read it through. In so doing, she found a letter from a woman whose condition was similar to her own. "I bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound," Mrs. Lorberter continued, "and have had fine results. My condition made me a burden to my husband. Now I ask him, "How is housekeeping?" and he says, "It is just like being in Heaven!" Are you on the Sunlit Road to Better Health?
