WALTER L. MAIN CIRCUS HAS TWO GREAT HERDS OF FINELY TRAINED ELEPHANTS

When the Walter L. Main Circus comes to Chestertown on September 19th there will be seen one of the greatest collections of elephants ever brought here with a circus. Two great herds are carried with this mammoth circus organization and these include many of the most splendidly trained elephants in the world.

Besides doing the ordinary circus routine work generally alloted to the elephants the Walter L. Main elephants have been trained to perform many distinctly novel and spectacular stunts. The two herds of elephants are managed by both men and women trainers of renown and those who can appreciate the antics of the huge and clumsy pachyderms have many highly entertaining treats in store for them when they visit the Walter L. Main circus.

The Walter L. Main circus this year far excels any previous year and among the various featured aggregators are the forty funny and famous clowns, headed by Harry La Pearl, Fred Leslie, Chick Reed, Billy Sells, Lou Hershey, Harry Loy, George Wayman, and Rube Dyer; the 30 aerialists, headed by Sylvester Brothers, champions of the antipodes; Maxwell Trio, sensational triple bar gymnasts; Madam Juila Rebras, intrepid French aerialist who faces death twice daily in her loop the loop on a bicycle; the 40 equestrians, headed by the noted Hollis family, and the 50 acrobats, headed by Koban and Sakata, Japanese acrobats who walk up a flight of steps on their head; De Long Sisters, noted Belgian acrobatic team, the Maxwell trio, the Yokio trio, and others.

More than 600 people travel with the circus this year and 400 animals are carried. It is necessary to have five bands to provide the music for the performances in the tented city, which cover an area of not less than five acres. The "big top" has been enlarged materially this year, also, and it now has a seating capacity for 5,000 circus-goers.

Prof. John Griffin and his Military Band of 21 solosists will be presented in free concerts twice daily. The concerts will be given at 1 and 7 p. m. at the opening of the doors to the menagerie. The performances will start promptly at 2 and 8 p. m. The street parade will be held at 11 a. m.

Tickets on sale circus day at Stam's Drug Store.

Camel

The cigarette you can smoke with real enjoyment

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.
