Walter L. Main Circus Day with Red Wagons and Elephants, Almost Due

CIRCUS DAY SCENES

The steam calliope will sound in Chestertown on September 19, and every old man who hears it will thrill with the remembrance of how one time he carried water for the elephant, or envied the boy who did, and the little fellow who hears the musical toots and sees the man sitting on the big contraption making the whistle blow every time he fingers the keyboard, will chase along to the show grounds where the Walter L. Main Circus will hold forth.

There will be elephants lumbering along, curling their trunks and flopping their long ears; camels humping behind, gilt cages with growling tigers, lazy striped zebras, long-necked giraffes, husky-haired wild men—everything to make the children stare in wonder and wish to crawl under the tent to see the big show, as their fathers did, if they do not possess the wherewithal to enter the main gate.

Among the many big novelties and spectacular offerings to be found with the Walter L. Main Circus this year will be Madam Julia Rebras, sensation of continental Europe, intrepid French artist who loops the loop in a bicycle at every performance. This marks the first appearance in America of Madam Rebras and everywhere her daring act has been shown has been accorded an ovation. The Hill-billy Riding Troupe, England's champion bare-back equestrians, with Pinkie Hollis, world's greatest somersault rider, also provides one of high spots to the big program.

Among the most daring aerialists ever known in the circus world are the three members of the Brock family who execute singie, double and triple revolutions in perilous mid-air feats—somersaulting from the flying trapeze to the bar. This trio performs each afternoon and evening with the Main circus.

Other featured acts are as follows: DeLong sisters, Belgium's sensational equilibrists; Koban and Sakata, noted Japanese equilibrists who walk up a flight of stairs on their heads; Sylvester Brothers, sensational acrobats, champions of the antipodes; Lyle and Irma Conner, brother and sister and sister dancing on a lofty tight wire; Yokoi Trio, intrepid bicycle riders from the Far East; and the Maxwell Trio, sensational triple bar gymnasts.

Added to this are the forty famous clowns, headed by Harry LaPearl, Fred Leslie, Chick Reed, Billy Sells, Lou Hershey, Harry Loy, Geo. Wayman, Rube Dyer, Prof. John Griffin and his military band of 25 soloists present a musical concert at 1 and 7 p. m. The big show starts at 2 and 8 p. m. The picturesque Parade will be seen at 11 a. m.

Bring On Your Victims

"Well," said the bearded physician, "I find that you are suffering from an assorted crop of suppressed desires. You are also the fortunate possessor of three types of complexes: superior, inferior and ulterior. Your thyroid gland is slightly out of focus, while neurotically your reactions are very poor. I find definite traces of dual personality and chronic melancholia. You live in a dream world and are mixed up in five or six interlocking personalities. I think you are perfectly safe. Go ahead. No jury will convict you."

"Thanks, Doc," gratefully answered Hamlet. "Do you know where I can have a dagger sharpened?"

Coffined in Coconut

In Honolulu may be seen two coconut fire caskets, woven to represent in effigy King Liloa, who reigned over Hawaii in 1500 A. D., and his great-grandson, Lenoi-kama kohiki. Inside the caskets are the bones of the kings. Such coconut fiber caskets, shaped somewhat like an Egyptian mummy case, are extremely rare. These were found in one of the ancient burial caves of Hawaii. The Hawaiians often secreted the bones of dead kings in inaccessible caves to prevent defilement by an enemy.

Herculean Viewpoint

A colored man who owned a large wagon and a small horse was hired to haul away some trash from a home. The trash contained many brickbats and made an awkward load. As he was ready to drive away, the owner of the house said to him: "If you intend to haul such large loads you need a larger horse." The colored man replied: "If you had to lift him up every morning like I do you would think he is heavy enough."

"Jingoism"

Jingo is supposed to be derived from the mountain soldiers of Basque, who were employed by Edward I in Wales. The common oath of these Basque soldiers was "by Jainko." The modern use of Jingo really dates from McDermott's music hall song of 1878, when war with Russia was threatening Great Britain. The first line of the song ran: "We don't want to fight, but by jingo, if we do."

Friends Hard to Find

Jud Tunkins says a friend in need is usually a friend who is willing to take a chance on indorsing a note.

—And His Wife, Mollie Cule

"It's surprising that there are any tall men today," says the Newark Star-Eagle, "for we now learn that Adam was a small man." It's a wonder, then, he wasn't named Atom.—Farm and Fireside.
