HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES.

On Wednesday of this week an Achievement Day for the Home Demonstration Clubs of Kent County was held at Rock Hall.

The morning was given to Miss Turner of the Clothing Information Bureau of Hutzler Brothers, Baltimore. A large trunk full of clothes had been sent ahead to the meeting. Miss Ella Wirtz wore the clothes for the 16 year old and Mrs. Wm. T. Brown, the matron's clothes. Several practical and pretty dresses and coats were shown with suitable hats, shoes, hose and accessories to match.

It was a great treat for the women and much interest shown. Surely the costumes of every lady present will harmonize from now on.

In the afternoon a short program was given. Miss Venia M. Keller, State Home Demonstration Agent. Miss Helen Shelby, State Clothing Specialist, and Miss Precilla B. Pancoast, Home Demonstration Agent, of Cecil County, were present. Many thanks to all who made this meeting a success.

FALL NECKWEAR

has more color than Joseph's Coat

In bible times Joseph's brilliant coat created a stir---and now it's these new ties. All the warm, bright leaf colors, all the pastel tints combined with deeper oriental touches, all the glow of the harvest season are smartly patterned into them.

Indian motifs, sheppard checks, very small all-over geometrical patterns---hundreds of striking ideas are worked into the most luxurious and long wearing silks.

The best of them are

$1.50

Fine ones for $1.00
