St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches

Sabbath school activities at St. James will be given over to the making of an effort to win the members of the school to a decision for Christ, in the observance of Decision Day. This same matter of decision for Christ will be the order for the entire day. At the morning service there will be a number of folks to join the church, including ten young men and boys who last Sunday evening made their decision to do this known, in a special pre-Christian Endeavor service conducted by H. S. Startt. The hours of service for Sunday at St. James follow:

Sabbath School at 10 a. m., G. A. Carroll, superintendent, Stanley B. Sutton, assistant.

Hour of worship at 11 a. m., sermon by the pastor.

Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m.

Mid-week prayer service on Wednesday evening at 7.30 p. m.

Services for Lynch will follow the usual schedule as follows:

Successful and interesting revival services are being held in Starr M. E. Church, Queen Anne's county. The meetings are led by Evangelist Robt. Gibby, of Cazenoma, N. Y., who is assisting the pastor, Rev. W. L. McClintock. The inspiring Gospel messages, the vocal selections and selections on invisible trombone and guitar, have won the admiration of all. Souls are being born into the kingdom nightly. Sunday services at 2.30, Young People's Rally at 7.30, when Dr. Bibby will give his closing message. Kenneth Faulkner, concert organist, of Dover, Del., and orchestra from Smyrna, Del., will help at both services.

EVERYBODY-GO-TO-CHURCH ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20

A country-wide movement to get everybody to attend services on Sunday, November 20, has been launched and in some churches it is known as "Family Day." On the above date every churchgoer will be urged to attend services, when special features will be offered in the way of strong sermons, attractive music, etc. Each denomination will make a special effort to get their members out on the above date, and a general appeal is made to those who do not attend regularly or who do not belong to any church. For one Sunday, at least, it is hoped every church in the county will be well attended.
