Kent News

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1927

Thirteen deaths from whiskey has been the toll in Baltimore during the past two weeks.

James M. Hepbron, criminologist and managing director of the Baltimore Criminal Justice Commission, discussed the crime problem of England before the faculty, students and guests of Washington College here Thursday morning.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day. No people in all the world have greater reason to be thankful to God than those of Kent county. Truly, the Lord is good. His mercy and loving kindness endureth forever. Let all the people praise the Lord for his wonderful works to the children of men. How shall we return unto Him our thanks. By living uprightly, walking humbly and doing justly toward all men.

AUTOMOBILE TAXES ARE NOW READY

The last legislature passed a law requiring the Tax to be Paid on every automobile or motor vehicle, before it can get "License Tags" permitting it to be used for the coming year.

There are between two and three thousand motor vehicles in this county, according to general estimates. If the owner of these, or any great proportion of the owners, wait until the last few weeks or days, as so many now do, to comply with the provisions of this law, it will be easily seen what a mess and turmoil will ensue.

The last fervid days of Christmas shopping will not be in it, in comparison to the situation which would exist if owners of cars should wait the last minute to pay their tax on their car or vehicle, get their receipts and have same filed with the Motor Vehicle Commissioner in time for him to issue the license tags.

All the automobiles and motor vehicles coming under this law have been listed by the county treasurer in a separate assessment book, and to have the application blanks ready filled out so that they may be stamped and handed to the owners as fast as taxes are paid and thus ready to be forwarded to the Motor Vehicles Commissioner who then can issue the license tags.

To save our readers trouble, annoyance and inconvenience we want to emphasize the following facts.

First: No car or motor vehicle can be driven in Maryland without being licensed, and no automobile or vehicles can be licensed without the taxes on said automobile or vehicle is paid.

Second: The Taxes have to be Paid through the office of the County Treasurer and he must certify to their having been paid.

Third: The method or process of this tax has been thoroughly working out in a way that it is believed will cause the least inconvenience to the tax-payers.

You are to come in and bring such as you have regarding your car—the data is supposed to be in the hands of the County Commissioners, sent there by the Automobile Commissioner but even at that it may save you trouble and delay by bringing with you last year's car license. Your car license. Your car will be listed on a book opened and kept for this purpose and separate and distinct from other property assessments. The amount of your tax will be given you and your application blank stamped "paid" ready to be sent in. Remember long not to put off your visit to the last few days or weeks—if you do you will find yourself waiting before you can be reached. This tax has got to be paid and the sooner you do it, the more trouble you are going to save yourself.

Remember that this does not apply to any other tax but the personal property tax on your car or vehicle other taxes have nothing at all to do with this automobile tax. We want to save the officials of this county trouble and we want to be of real service to our readers and therefore we are emphasizing this matter.

Come in during November—don't delay until the middle or last of December.

The November meeting of the Old Kent Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held on Saturday, Nov. 12th, at the home of Dr. Dole on North Queen street. The Regent, Miss Fannie Stuart, presided. The devotional services were conducted by E. K. Mohr after which several business matters were discussed. The guest of honor was Miss Harriett P. Marine, Historian of the Maryland State Society of the D. A. R. Miss Marine presented in a most charming way the subjects of the Preservation of Historical Research. Mrs. Cobb, of the Quaker City Chapter of Philadelphia was also a guest and favored the Chapter with several interesting readings. Light refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed by the members.

TRESPASSING

With the gunning season the nuisance of trespassing confronts land owners. Generally speaking trespassers are divided into two classes —thoughtless hunters who violate property owners rights innocently, quietly moving off when warned, and another class who will not only knowingly encroach where printed notices forbid their activities but who will willfully tear down such signs, disregard civil requests to leave and provoke property owners to a state of just indignation.

There is no law or semblance of law by which a man is clothed with authority to wander where he wishes and shoot as he pleases simply because he has purchased a gunning license, a box of shells and shouldered his gun. In this county there is no "free range" on which to do as one pleases. All property is vested in private ownership and he who guns on land other than his own is enjoying a privilege at the hands of the owner and not by any means exercising his "rights." Many sportsmen are careful and considerate, recognizing when off their own premises that they owe a debt of gratitude to the land owner whose tolerance allows them to enjoy their favorite pasttime. Such men are usually law-abiding citizens in all ways, sponsor and observe the game laws and are pleasant guests.

The do-as-I-please type are a nuisance, a menace to property and deserve no consideration; not infrequently they own nothing themselves hence cannot or will not rightfully respect the ownership of others. Their regard for game laws is often as light as their respect for trespass notices and they hinder rather than foster adequate game protection. Other sportsmen should frown on their depredations and the landowner who prosecute them deserves no censure.
