CAR PLUNGES IN RIVER, COUPLE GO ON TO DANCE

While en route to Chestertown Friday night from their home in Cambridge to attend a dance at Washington College, A. Crawford Moore, a student at the college and son of Postmaster Moore, and Miss Cornelia Christopher, narrowly escaped drowning, when, as they approached the Queen Anne's entrance to Chester river bridge. a car in front stopped suddenly, causing Moore to apply the emergency brakes of his auto, which caused it to skid into the bridge rail caused it to skid into the bridge railing.

Seventy-five feet of the railing was torn away, but heavy telephone cables which are attached to the side of the bridge held the car fast while the two occupants made their escape without injury.

Linemen were compelled to push the car into the river to extricate it from the cables and it was brought to a garage here Saturday morning for repairs.

The young couple showed that they were good sports, and wouldn't let a mere tumble of their automobile into the river, spoil their pleasure. They continued on to Chestertown, only a short distance away, by foot.

That "first dance" to the young collegian and his Cambridge girl was an important event. Moore and his girl wanted to get to the hall for it, too.

An automobile drive from Cambridge to Chestertown, for dancing at 9, particularly after the young girl in question, has to spend time powdering her nose, and being "hooked up" in back, requires speed. Therefore, Moore and his companion were not losing any time as they went over the bridge which spans the river between Queen Anne's and Kent County.

They missed the first dance, but they were on hand for the last waltz.

Capital's Police Women Stand High in First Aid

Members of the Women's Bureau of the District of Columbia police department recently completed the Red Cross first aid course. This is perhaps the first women's group of the kind to be awarded the special first aid arm insignia by the American Red Cross in token of completion of the training.

The Red Cross in the past year qualified 24,812 persons in first aid and awarded certificates to members of police and fire departments, industrial groups and utilities employes all over the United States.

The Eleventh Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross, during which new membership is invited, will be held this year from November 11 to 24.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear baby who departed this life 4 years ago today, December 8, 1923. Helen Marie, daughter of John V. and Grace Mench.

A bud the gardner gave us,
A pure and lovely child;
He gave it to our keeping,
To cherish undefiled
And just as it was opening,
To the glory of the day,
Down came the Heavenly Father
And took our bud away.
A little lamb too sweet and pure
Upon this earth to roam;
An angel came and whispered
Dear little lamb come home.
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died,
To think you couldn't say good-by
Before you closed your eyes.
We do not forget we love her too dearly,
For her memory to fade from our lives like dreams,
Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.

Loving Parents, Sister, Brother.

Old Kris will arrive in Chestertown Thursday, December 15. Bring the children.

Herbert E. Perkins, Attorney.
