COLORED BARBER ROBS HOME

Alleged to have stolen $135 from Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Winzel at their home at Kibler's Corner, near Chester bridge, Tuesday night, Vincent Solod, a colored barber, of this town, was taken into custody by Sheriff J. Thomas Hadaway.
Solod, it is said, drove from his home here to Kibler's Corner and gained entrance to the Winzel house by climbing the porch to the roof and entering the bedroom of the couple. There was a light burning in the room at the time.
Discovering Mr. and Mrs. Winzel in bed, Solod is alleged to have drawn a pistol and demanded money. They gave him $135, proceeds of poultry sales the same afternoon. Due to the light in the room Mr. and Mrs. Winzel were able to identify the robber.
Sheriff Hadaway was immediately notified and Wednesday morning on College street of Chestertown he arrested Solod. He was able to recover $107 of the supposed stolen money. The Winzels are said to have identified Solod as the man who entered their home.
Solod was taken to the Chestertown jail where he was held until the arrival of Sheriff Whiteley, of Queen Anne's county, who took him to the Centreville jail, where he is being detained for the action of the grand jury.
This barber is also charged with another burglary which occurred in a Chestertown store Sunday night. When the man was identified by Mr. Winzel, Solod reminded his accuser that he had bought liquor from him! There may be other cases to develop.

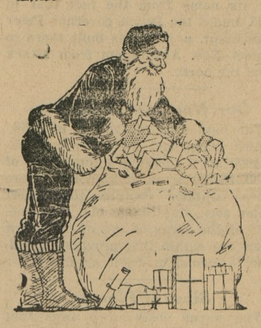

CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE

Since the opening of the drive on Thanksgiving Day for funds through the sale of Christmas Seals—with which to fight tuberculosis, the local papers have been giving the cause much publicity. Many interesting facts regarding the origin of the Christmas Seal and the use of the proceeds from the sale of the seals each year have been given. Kent is $400 short of its apportionment.
Seals will be placed on sale during the current week among the schools of the county and beginning next Monday, December 19th they will be on sale at the following places:
Leonard Wilson's Store, Millington.
Massey Bank, Massey.
Davis Brothers' Store, Galena.
D. C. Kelley's Store, Kennedyville.
Wm. Medders & Co.'s Store, Still Pond.
Owen's & Co.'s Store, Betterton.
Stam's Drug Store, Chestertown.
T. H. M. Bramble's Store, Fairlee.
T. B. Durding's Drug Store, Rock Hall.
The people of Kent county can go "over the top" in this drive if they will to do it. Louis C. Robinson, Chairman, Christmas Seal Sale.

Chester Lodge No. 115 A. F. & A. M., held its annual election of officers Thursday evening in Chestertown resulting as follows: Master, Herbert A. Urie; Senior Warden, Paul N. Adams; Junior Warden, Rolph Townshend; secretary, Wm. A. Wheatley; treasurer, James H. Sides.

CHRISTMAS FETE TO BE STAGED BY MILLINGTON FOLK

Elaborate preparations for a Community Christmas Tree Celebration Wednesday, December 21, with Old Kris Kringle, himself, as the central figure, is being planned by merchants and other business men of Millington.
Santa Claus will arrive on the 5.30 southbound train and he will be welcomed by hundreds of kiddies who are expected to come flocking into Millington for the fete. Bags of gifts will be distributed by the Monarch of the North Pole Country.
One of the features of the celebration will be singing by the pupils of Millington schools and appropriate Yuletide addresses will be delivered by Rev. F. A. Baker and James H. Garner.

MERCHANTS PLAN COMMUNITY SING

The members of the Merchant's Section of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce feel that with the approach of the joyous Christmas Season, it is fitting that the people of Chestertown and the county should give expression to the gladness in their hearts and raise their voices in praise to the giver of all good and perfect gifts for the opportunities afforded for making it possible to spread Christmas cheer and joy everywhere and that the entire community should join in the singing of Christmas Carols in the Public Square of the town on Saturday evening, December 24. All churches, civic bodies, school children and other organizations in the town are asked to assemble on the Square, promptly at 6.45 o'clock on Christmas Eve and lift their voices in praise of Him who makes it possible to enjoy the blessing of the Yuletide. Announcements are to be given out from all the pulpits in Chestertown Sunday and will be in the hands of all the pastors of the county this week. Thomas D. Bowers is chairman of the committee in charge and plans to have instrumental music to assist the voices.

The Captain Jeremiah Baker Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution held its regular monthly meeting on Saturday afternoon December 10, at the home of Mrs. Albert DeWitt Mackey. Owing to the illness of the regent, Mrs. H. Benge Simmons, of Chestertown, Mrs. Eva Gilpin Denny, vice-regent presided. Reports of officers and committees were read. Mrs. Irvine T. Kelper, registrar of the chapter, also chairman of the conservation and thrift committee, read to the chapter the offer of the State chairman on conservation, to supply living Christmas trees to chapters that desired them. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Arthur H. Owens, of Perryville, in January.

A colered man, Leon Brown, living on S. Elwood Burgess' farm at Edesville, had a horse that got a leg broken last Saturday and had to be shot.

A WONDERFUL PARADE IN CHESTERTOWN

The mercantile section of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce put through a splendid program in Chestertown Thursday as a Christmas celebration. The committee included M. E. Newsome, Carle N. Bordley, Olin Stafford, Charles Kibler, and Conlyn N. Noland.
Several Thousand people lined the streets and viewed with pleasure the elaborate pageant composed of automobile floats depicting designs of the yuletide season. It was the most ornate celebration ever held here prior to Christmas.
The 44-piece firemen's band furnished the music. Heading the parade was a large float arranged and decorated by the commerce body itself, and which was not entered in the prize competition. Santa Claus, Mrs. Claus and the Claus children followed on floats entered by the American Legion, Camp Fire Girls, Betterton Boy Scouts, Public Health Association, Rotary Club, Hearn Oil Co., Gulf Oil Co., Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company, Washington College, and auto dealers.
The judges were: William F. Russell, Sr., Allan A. Harris, W. Robert Huey, Charles F. Wheatley and Frank Connelly, all cashiers of local banks. They were instructed to award prizes for the best decorated floats and those most appropriately arranged in keeping with the Chrismas season. The winners were announced as follows:
First, "The Night Before Christmas," entered by The Chestertown Fire Co., and decorated by Mrs. Don Falls, Mrs. Barber Bartley, Miss Dorothy Woodall and Miss Cornelia Davis, of the Ladies' Auxiliary, $50.
Second, The 4-H Boys Calf Club, depicting a sleigh with old Kris driving a mule or calf, arranged by Sutton Bros. Prize $25.
Third, "Christmas Morning," A. S. Turner and Sons. Prize $15.
Fourth, "Christmas of Ye Olden Days." with Philip Sewell principal actor, Eliason Motor Co. Prize $10.
The local State Roads Commission employes had a most artistic and wonderful float but failed to depict Christmas and thus lost first prize. Others did not know of this rule.
Following the parade "Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus," impersonated by Clarence Newcomb and Harry S. Russell, distributed gifts to more than 1,500 children who thronged the streets to greet the party. At night here was an elaborate display of fireworks. Under the direction of W. P. Newnam and Randolph Waddell. G. W. French was chairman of the committee in charge of the distribution of presents, which were wrapped by the ladies' auxiliary of the fire company.

CHESTERTOWN TO JOIN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

At a meeting of the directors of the Chestertown Business Men's Association Thursday they decided to disband the organization and merge its membership in the newly-created mercantile section of the Kent county Chamber of Commerce.
J. Samuel Kreeger, treasurer of the old group, reported $240 in the treasury. By a unanimous vote it has been decided to divide the proceeds, after all bills are paid, between the fund for the proposed Kent county ambulance and the mercantile section of the Chamber of Commerce.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE WINS

Washington College basket ball team defeated Arnold College Thursday night on the local floor by score of 59 to 20. Tom Kibler's boys were too fast for the northern team. Every man on the Washington squad got in the game.
Washington College closed for the annual Christmas vacation on Friday and will reopen on Monday, January 2. The County Board of Education has ordered the public schools of the county closed from Wednesday, Dec. 21, to January 2.

Rock Hall's fire engine arrived on Tuesday and the public manifested deep interest in it. Thos. Tucker had the pleasure of driving it down. The engine was taken to the ferry wharf to do some pumping. It is believed the engine will be satisfactory. It was finally housed with its 500 feet of hose in Wm. C. Francis' garage.
The new Ford has arrived at the Eliason Motor Co.'s garage on Cross street and scores have visited the show room to get a view. The public are pleased with it.
Henry Mercer, of Piney Neck, has been arrested on a charge of violating the local option law and is held for action of Federal authorities.
