Peter the Great a Giant

H. R. H. Prince Nicholas of Greece, in his new book, "My Fifty Years," says that in the cathedral at Roskilde, on one of the central pillars, called "the king's column," are marked the heights of several Danish kings and some of their guests. Emperor Alexander III, who was over six feet in height, found the mark indicating the height of Peter the Great. It was "a good twelve inches above the emperor's head."

Street of Money Kings

The center of the money power of the United States got the name Wall Street because so many of the large financial establishments are situated on Wall street, New York. This street got its name from the fact that in 1635, under the Dutch governor Peter Stuyvesant, a wall was built there to protect New Amsterdam from attack from the north.

Our Northern Neighbor

The land area of Canada is 2,338,688,640 acres, and the water area 91,470,000 acres, making a total area of 2,430,158,720 acres, or 3,797,123 square miles. Ontario contains the largest water area, due to the fact that one-half of the areas of five of the Great lakes are within that province. Manitoba is second in water area.

Sizes of Planets

The naval observatory says that the smallest of the major planets is Mercury; diameter about 3,000 miles. Of the minor planets or asteroids, some are so small that it is impossible to measure their diameters. It is estimated that the smallest are less than 10 miles in diameter.

Wise Old Birds

"Let us respect our ancestors," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "and rejoice that they were content to fly kites instead of becoming 'stunt aviators,' thereby risking an early limit to their bestowal of wisdom on the world."—Washington Star.

Not Worth the Exertion

Winning horse in a Russian race took a purse of 90,000,000,000 rubles. Just what that means in real money not even an Einstein can figure, but at any rate it's a shame to make a horse run for such a bagatelle.—Exchange.

In the Window

Jo Ann had recently learned the meaning of plus and minus at school. While taking a walk with her mother, she saw a red cross in a neighbor's window and said: "Mother, why does Mrs. Jones have that plus in the window?"

Riches in Small Space

Manhattan island, which contains the chief offices of New York city, its greatest banks, business houses, museums, tenements and palaces, is 13½ miles long with a greatest width of 2¼ miles at Fourteenth street.

Dangerous When Aroused

The hippopotamus is naturally timid, though subject to fits of panic or rage. When wounded or enraged this animal is regarded by sportsmen as perhaps the most dangerous beast to be encountered.

No Happiness in Idleness

An idle spirit can scarcely be a happy spirit. If the mind does not fill itself with something worth thinking about, it is sure to be filled with that which presently is worse than useless. —Exchange.

Benefits of Saving

The money which is actually saved is not nearly so valuable as the psychological effort which it produces. Saving, like mercy, is twice blessed.—Sir Ernest Benn.

Overture's Position

Overtures have been written as dependent orchestral compositio but the overture has usually b composed as a prelude or introduct to an oratorio or opera.

5c LETS YOU IN

Puts You in on the Ground Floor of a Real Smoke Treat

Buffaloes are bringing joy nowadays. Real smoke enjoyment! For all you need is a nickel to get more downright smoking pleasure than was ever bought before at anywhere near the price. All you need to get a real Havana Ribbon cigar—fresh and mellow from the box—is five cents!

You've heard a lot about 5c cigars that are "really worth more." But here's one that actually sold at more—and sold big—for years. Sheer popularity and volume sales, alone, have made possible this new low price of a nickel. Havana Ribbon is a real smoke. The kind you'd pick regardless of price! Just packed with mellow fragrance and satisfaction—made of ripe tobacco. Now—5c!

But, after all, a smoke's the thing that counts. Try Havana Ribbon. Drop in at a nearby cigar store and invest a lucky nickel. You won't be disappointed.
