DR. WROTH, KENT NATIVE, DEAD

The Rev. Dr. Peregrine Wroth, 79 years old, rector emeritus of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Messiah and also a native of Kent county, Md., whose life has been closely interwoven with the Baltimore business section since he first came to Baltimore in 1876 as assistant minister of the Church of the Messiah, died at 2.30 p. m. Friday at his home, 215 East Preston street, Baltimore.

Death was due to pneumonia, with which he was stricken more than a week ago.

Until this illness Dr. Writh took an active part in the services of the church. Although recently retired, he preached on the first Sunday of each month.

Dr. Wroth was born in Kent county, August 19, 1848, and throughout the years he maintained a strong attachment to the Eastern Shore, going whenever it was possible to the anniversary services in St. Paul's Church there. His parents were Thomas G. and Mary E. Wroth.

He was educated at the Virginia Theological Seminary, from which he was graduated in 1872. He was made deacon the same year and ordained priest in 1873. His first rectorate was at Kingston parish, Matthews county, Virginia, which he served until 1876, when he came to the Messiah as assistant minister. The Rev. Dr. C. C. Penick, who afterward became a bishop, was the rector at that time. A year later the rector Wroth succeeded Dr. Penick as rector.

He spent his entire ministerial life in one parish, with the exception of four years immediately after his ordination to the priesthood. He also occupied many official positions in the Diocese of Maryland. He was dean of the convocation of Baltimore and executive officer of the Corporation for the Relief of Widows and Children of the Clergy of Maryland. He also was secretary of the diocese for about twenty years.

On June 5, 1927, he retired as rector of the church and was made rector emeritis, the Rev. Mr. Mitchell automatically succeeding him as rector.

In addition to his widow, Mrs. Mary A. Counselman Wroth, he is survived by two sons, Lawrence Wroth, of Providence, R. I., and Dr. Peregrine Wroth, Jr., of Hagerstown.

At 3 p. m. the funeral services was held on Monday.

Bishop John Gardner Murray, primate of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, conducted the services, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Edward T. Helfenstein, Coadjutor Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland, the Rev. Dr. Sewell S. Hepburn and the Rev. Mr. Mitchell.

Eighty per cent of the women in the United States make a large portion of their clothing, according to the Home Economics Bureau of the Agriculture Department. A survey made in 32 states by Miss Maude Campbell, of the Bureau, on how much of the family clothing is made at home, showed that women make clothing for themselves, their daughters and children under 15 years.

Grinders- Shellers -Enginas

WHOLE GRAIN is bulky and it fills the animal's stomach, but it cheats you by satisfying the hunger through this bulk rather than through complete nourishment.

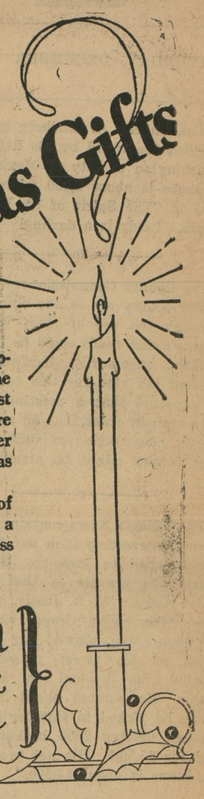

Tests have been conducted by Government stations in past years, with healthy animals, to determine the seriousness of these feeding losses.

The tests show an average loss of from 12 to 25 per cent. In other words, out of every 100 bushels of whole corn fed, 26 bushels yield practically no nourishment while passing through the digestive tract. The unground oat diet showed a similar of 12 bushels out of every 100.

Such feeding losses can easily spell the difference between loss and a handsome profit. Many farmers are putting various combinations of grains through a Feed Grinder, assuring their animal a nourishing ration that is quickly and completely assimilated.
