Kent News

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1927

Col. Charles A. Lindberg has again thrilled the world by his flight from Washington to City of Mexico. The distance is about 2,000 miles and he was in "The Spirit of St. Louis" 27 hours. Lindy is a darling.

The County Commissioners of Worcester county are of the opinion that through the use of slag, Worcester county's dirt roads could be improved without necessarily increasing the present tax rate for this county. It is expected that a meeting will be held soon in order that an agreement on the construction of such roads in that county might be arranged.

The Delmar News contains the following interesting item our attention being called to same by G. Frank Clark who travels in that section: "Last August W. R. Justis, of Onancock, who rents Cropperville near Accomac, Va., plowed up a large patch of his sweet potatoes and planted the ground in Fordhook beans. He planted about 25 acres, which he picked in October and November, getting 2500 baskets which sold for $5,500. His net profit from the beans is about $3,500."

A bill providing for the extension of the time for commencing and completing construction of the proposed Chesapeake Bay bridge near Baltimore, one and three years, respectively, was presented Monday by Senator Millard E. Tydings. Senator Tydings said that the object of his bill was to take care of the time consumed in selecting the exact site, approval of the plans and other details. When the approval of Maj.-Gen. Edgar Jadwin, chief of army engineers, is given practically all obstacles to the beginning of construction will have been eliminated.

The Board of Control and Review have finished the first and fifth districts and are at work on the 6th. There have been but few complaints.

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Carolene Bryan, who died 9 months ago December 20, 1927.

Nine months has passed dear mother;
Since you were called away,
How well we do remember
That sad and lonely day.
You suffered much, you murmured not;
We watched and did for you night and day,
We cried and prayed that your dear life,
Would not be taken away.
Christmas is nearly here dear mother
And what a sad Christmas it will be;
To know that you are gone dear mother,
But gone to a better place than we.

Your Loving Daughters,
Carrie D. and Rachel L.

WARNING CARDS are for sale at the KENT NEWS OFFICE for Five Cents each.

KENT NEWS $1.50 PER YEAR.

The Peoples Bank of Chestertown, Md., realizing the heavy reduction of monthly income, and the substantial capital loss accruing to the farmers of Kent County, by reason of the tuberculin test now being made in the County, is financing the shipment of a carload of direct from Waukesha County, Wisconsin, which will be offered, to those farmers whose herds have been depleted, at cost plus an amount necessary to pay freight and other charges. No cow will be sold for less than cost.

These cattle were selected for the Bank by the President and the Secretary of the Kent County Farm Bureau.

The Peoples Bank has formulated a plan whereby these cattle may be bought on easy monthly installments. Any farmer interested may apply at the bank for full information.

Cattle may now be seen at Massey, Md., where Public Sale will be held on Monday, December 19th, 1927
