ONE SHOT FOR DUCKS BRINGS DOWN 2 GUNNERS

There have been a lot of stories written about gunners bringing down two ducks with one shot, but here is a story about one load of duck shot bringing down, so to speak, two gunners.

The reverse of the usual order occurred the other day when Louis Crouch and Winfield Pinder, young men living in Kent, selected the small confines of a duck blind to stage a playful wrestling match. Evidently ducks were not flying any too well, and the young men, becoming restless thought a little horse play would kill time if not ducks. During the tussel, one of the guns was knocked over, causing it to discharge a load which passed through Crouch's hand and struck Pinder in the side.

Both gunners were taken to Emergency Hospital at Easton and their Wounds treated.

MADDEN SPONSORS FARMERS MUSCLE SHOALS PLAN

Final Action Can No Longer Be Dodged

Farmers pin their faith to Congressman Martin B. Madden, of Illinois, as the man to carry their fight for cheap fertilizers at Muscle Shoals safely through the lower house of Congress.

With 22 years of continuous service behind him, the past six years serving as chairman of the powerful appropriations committee, the white-haired, vigorous and outspoken congressman from Chicago usually carries to successful completion whatever he decides to undertake. After long and careful study of the many phases of the Muscle Shoals question, he introduced last January the Madden Bill which would accept the operating

LUCKY NICKEL!

A Good Cigar Need Cost No More. Here's How and Why

You've heard about five-centers that "should cost more." You can't be blamed for wondering if there is such a thing. You won't wonder any more if you will shoot one lucky nickel. You'll know and you'll tell the world.

The nickel you put down for a Havana Ribbon means smoke luck from the first puff. It means mildness and mellowness and all-day satisfaction. It means you can keep right on smoking Havana Ribbon cigars and like them better all the time. You'll say, "How can they make it so good?"

Here's how. Havana Ribbon sold at more than a nickel for years. Men liked them. They sold like hot cakes by the million. Volume production brought the price down. That's the whole story. So drop in at the nearest cigar store armed with one nickel only. And get set for a real surprise.

It's The Resutsl That Count

KIBLER'S COAL is the result of careful selection. The resulting comfort and satisfaction are yours for the asking.

GOV. SMITH'S FINE MESSAGE

Governor Smith of New York fools the wiseacres who predicted that his message to the legislature would deal at length with national subjects and thereby constitute his platform as a candidate for the Presidency. His message, on the contrary, is confined to State subjects, and is such as a governor would write if he had no thought of the Presidency.

Notwithstanding this fact, a message by Governor Smith at this particular time is a message to the people of the United States, whether he directs it to them or not. Republicans and Democrats from Maine to California are scrutinizing the document, trying to probe the workings of the writer's mind and endeavoring to read between the lines something that will throw light upon the great drama that is unfolding this year.

In his references to the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead law Governor Smith is on national ground, even if he confines his opinion to the situation in New York State. He recommends that hereafter all proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States be referred to the voters before they are acted upon by the legislature. His reason for this is based upon the fact that while the legislature "rushed the ratification of the eighteenth amendment" in 1918, the proposal to modify the Volstead act, submitted to the voters in 1926, was carried by a majority of 1,164,586, or about 3 to 1. Thus the legislature committed the State to a proposition that esems to be opposed by the majority of the people.

"In the meantime," says Governor Smith, "there develops upon the State the sacred duty of sustaining the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act. They are as much a part of the laws of this State as our own statutes and our own constitution.

Governor Smith reinforces this declaration by stating that he will remove from office, upon proper proof being presented, any public official charged with laxity in enforcement of the law. He finds, however, that "the State police power is delegated," evidently meaning that so far as the Volstead act is concerned the power of enforcement has been transferred to the Federal Government by the act of the legislature in ratifying the eighteenth amendment, followed by the act of people in voting for modification of law.

The incursion by the Federal Government into the field of State police power, as provided by the eighteenth amendment, has created an anomalous and dangerous situation, in which law officers are confronted with such widespread popular obstruction that the law is a dead letter. "I speak only the truth," says Governor Smith, "when I say that the people of any locality get the degree of law enforcement upon which they insist and for which they are willing to pay."

At some time in the future the people of the United States will restore to the States their full police powers if it is intended that the States shall survive. Inasmuch as the nation can not survive unless the States survive also, it is fair to assume that the people will retrace the step they took when they adopted the eighteenth amendment. In the meantime earnest and faithful executives will do as Governor Smith does—enforce the law to the best of their ability, and courageously point the way out of the dilemma.

New York's Governor has demonstrated in his message that he posseses the qualities requisite to the efficient administration of the Presidency.—Washington Post.

WATCHMEN HELD ON ARSON CHARGE

John Hutchins, 28 years old, 600 block South Sixteenth street, Baltimore, was arrested Monday at his home by Lieut. William B. Dorsey, of the Baltimore county police, and Joseph Dougherty, special detective as the man responsible for the burning last Wednesday of the steamer Eastern Shore as it lay at its pier, near Bay Shore Park.

the police that he had been the last person aboard the steamer; that he had been on board about noon of that day and that everything was all right at that time. He said he was unable to explain what might have caused the fire.

A subsequent investigation led to the warrant for his arrest.

The steamer was owned by the Baltimore-Eastern Shore Ferry Line, Inc., which went into receivership some time ago.

Hutchins, a watchman employed at the pier, refused to make a statement to the police at the Essex Police Station. Magistrate Henry G. Miller committed him for the action of the Baltimore county grand jury in default of $5,000 bail on a charge of arson. He was taken to the jail at Towson.

The Easton Shore was a steam-paddle double-end ferry 171 feet long of 831.97 tons. The steamer cost $200,000 to build and was covered by $100,000 insurance. It was to have been sold at public auction at a receiver's sale last Thursday.
