BRILLIANTLY Different

Dodge Brothers Victory Six is not only a new car but an entirely new and better kind of a car.

For the first time in history, body and chassis are a single, integral unit.

The wide, deep Victory chassis frame, flush with the body lines, eliminates the body sill and the customary body OVERHANG.

Major body parts are reduced from 367 to 8!

175 pounds of useless weight are cast off!

The gravity center is radically lowered—with head-room and road clearance unaffected.

The results can not be expressed—they must be experienced.

No unpleasant skidding or sidesway at the corners. No back-wheel "chatter" when the Lockheed Hydraulic brakes are quickly applied.

A smoothness over cobble roads that you have never imagined possible.

A swift car that is safe—a moderate-priced car unsurpassed in smartness and individuality.

MAN 71, BRIDE 52, ELOPE TO CHESTERTOWN

If there are persons here who are deploring the conversion of this quiet little town into a Gretna Green, to succeed Elkton and other popular rendezvous, because of the influx of young elopers, some of them under age, they certainly would have been satisfied with one of the latest "elopments," in which a 71-year-old bridegroom and a 52-year-old bride, both from Bridgeton, N. J., figured.

Apparently, it wasn't a real elopment. Maybe the shy lovers simply wanted to get away from the curiosity of their own town, and hit upon this place as ideal for it. Anyhow, they brought with them a merry party of young friends, who enjoyed a fine wedding dinner at the local hotel after the knot was tied.

The couple that took a license and were married here were Daniel Birch, 71-year-old business man of Bridgeton, and Miss Lura Wiley, 52, of the same town. They were married by a local clergyman at his parsonage.

Following their honeymoon at Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Birch will reside in Bridgeton. They departed this town, accompanied by a string of automobiles, gaily decorated and containing friends and relatives of the couple.

REV. L. B. SHEEN HIT IN EYE.

Berlin officials are much puzzled over the attack upon the Rev. Lewis B. Sheen, rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, who reports that an unidentified assailant ambushed him and struck him in the eye.

According to accounts of the attack, the local minister was en route from his church on Church street to his home on South Main street last Friday night when the attack occurred. The assailant struck the clergyman about the face, bruising his eye and inflicting other minor injuries before the minister could retire from the scene.

The motive for the attack is unknown to the rector. The Rev. Mr. Sheen is an ex-service man, having served in the United States Calvary for several years. During his enlistment in the army, the local minister was considered a champion in his class as a boxer. He was at one time rector at St. Paul's, this county.

From all reports, the minister has no enemies in that section and the attack upon him presents a mysterious case in the minds of local officials.

"I've just accepted Mr. Offleigh, mother."

"Good gracious, child- I refused him myself 26 years ago."

"I know; we just had a good laugh over it.—The Pathfinder.

SALISBURY TEACHER LARRUPS 25 HAZERS

When Clarence H. Cordrey, Salisbury high school principal, issued an anti-hazing ultimatum recently, the students snickered.

Friday a group decided to make the freshmen "run the gauntlet."

It was an enjoyable pastime until Principal Cordrey halted the proceedings, called twenty-five of the offenders to his office and, without assistance, used up a bundle of paddles on each of the upperclassmen.
