"Garden of Allah" A Great Romance

Never has the city of Chestertown viewed a motion picture as enthralling and as beautiful as "The Garden of Allah," which shows on Thursday and Friday, March 15th and 16th at the Lyceum Theatre.

A pre-view supports the glowing praises of leading critics elsewhere that the picture is one of the most tense and gripping ever filemd. It seems certain to top the first ten pictures of the year.

It is not surprising therefore to find it credited to Rex Ingram, the great director who produced "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "Scaramouche," "Mare Nostrum" and other thundering dramas. He filmed it abroad for Metro-Goldwyn.

Enacting the principal roles in this new Ingram masterpiece at the Lyceum are names, with few exceptions, wholly new to America.

Alice Terry plays the leading feminine role and she is more beautiful, expuisite and divine than she has ever been before. A new side of her is shown in this picture—a melting humanity that will wind picturegoers around her aristocratic fingers.

Ivan Petrovich, Miss Terry's new leading man, is an astonishingly handsome, athletic actor. He has the dark complexion of Miss Terry's former leading men—Valentino, Novarro and Moreno—but a stronger face than any of these. He is beyond question Rex Ingram's greatest discovery since Valentino.

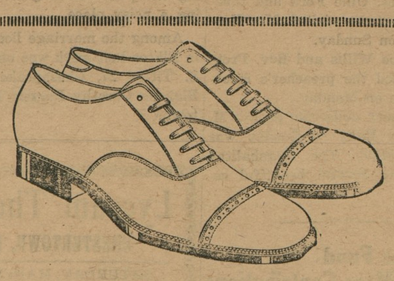

This pictures central idea is the struggle of conscience against passion. It is the story of a Trappist monk who vowed never to marry. He runs away from an Algerian monastery and despite his vows, marries an English girl unacquainted with his past.

Three months of honeymooning on the Sahara desert are spoiled by pangs of conscience. A sandstorm nearly kills him and his bride and he promises God if she is spared he will repent and confess his past life. He does and she forgives him.

The picture was filmed on the precise locations in Africa which have been immortalized in Robert Hichen's famous desert romance from which Willis Goldbeck adapted this latest Rex Ingram production for Metro-Goldwyn.

5 Per Cent. Interest on Farm Loans

Since the 5 Per Cent interest rate for farm loans became effective, the Kent and Queen Anne National Farm Loan Association has received applications for loans totaling $73,000, showing the increasing popularity of this cooperative means of securing money.

If you are carrying a 6 per cent mortgage on your farm, which never grows less, why not transfer it to the Federal Land Bank and get the benefit of the 5 per cent interest rate, which reduces your mortgage principal every year.

If you desire to purchase a farm, the Federal Land Bank will finance the loan to the extent of 50 per cent of the purchase price at 5 per cent interest.

No better means of financing farm loans has ever been offered than that afforded by the Federal Land Bank.

Come in and let me talk the matter over with you.

BIBLE STUDY

All with a desire for a better knowledge of the greatest book in the world are invited to spend a delightful hour at the M. P. Church every Friday evening 7.30 to 8.30.

As customary, at the beginning of the second term, both of the Literary Societies on the Hill, meet for the purpose of electing new officers. This term due to exams and various schedules, the elections were delayed until last week. Miss Diantha Roe was elected president of the Mt. Vernon and Mr. Robert Cavanaugh, president of the Adelphia. The remaining officers are as follows:

MT. VERNON
Vice-President: Pat Schnauffer.
Secretary: Arthur Korfgin.
Treasurer: Miss Ann Bonwill.
Serg't-at-arms: Freeny.

ADELPHIA
Vice-President: Miss Addie Nuttle.
Secretary: George Carrington.
Treasurer: Harry Poole.
Chaplin: Miss Clara Magill.
Serg't-at-arms: Louis Jacobs.

St. James and Lynch
L. C. Randall, Pastor.

Your attention is called to the fact that the St. James congregation renewed the order of services last Sabbath with about 35 in attendance. This is evidence that the work of the church at St. James will go on and we invite you to be one that will augment that number this Sunday. Perhaps it will be well to remind you that starting hours are Sabbath school at 10 a. m., and the hour of worship at 11 a. m. Please be prompt.

Lynch is doing nicely with increasing attendance in all services, and they want you to be with them. Last Sunday evening there came from the church of Worton about 15 folks who heartily accepted the invitation to participate. Sabbath school at Lynch meets at 2 p. m., and the hour of worship at 3 p. m. Meet us there.

The Ladies Aid of St. James will meet on Tuesday afternoon, but it is impossible just now to announce the place of meeting, but the president of the society, Miss Louisa Travers will advise those who call Chestertown 836F3.

Lynch Aid meets on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Kate Collins.

Just a foretaste of our Easter or Passion Week program. The following have accepted invitations to preach at St. James in services from Palm Sunday to Easter inclusive. Drs. T. O. Crouse, T. H. Lewis, J. M. Sheridan, and Rev. F. L. Gibbs, Associate Secretary of the Board of Young People's Work of the M. P. Church. The others need no introduction to the most of you. This program begins to look mighty good and we will tell you more as it grows.

Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, pastor of the M. E. Church, preached the sermon at the dedication of the new M. E. Church at Willard, Wicomico county on Sunday evening.

Bond M. E. Church

Sunday school 10 a. m., Alfred C Loud, superintendent. There will be special music by the orchestra in connection with the Sunday school lesson. The young Men's Bible Class was well attended last Sunday. We desire to make this Sunday in the school Banner Day. Make every effort possible to be present. May we count on your co-operation? Preaching 11 a. m. by the pastor, Mr. Green. The choir will sing a special number during the service. If you are a parent why not place before your boy or girl the right example of not sending them alone to church, but attending the services with them. They will appreciate your presence. Epworth League 7.30 p. m. The Washington College Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the service. A very delightful program is being planned by the boys. Plan to be present. An inspiring and helpful service was held by the League last Sunday night. Those who were unable to attend missed a wonderful meeting. The Church Aid meeting was held at the home of Mrs. T. R. Starr. It was the largest Aid meeting that we have had for some time. After the business was transacted the evening was spent in a social way, refreshments being served.

Mowbray Chapel

Sunday school 2 p. m., Mrs. Kirby, superintendent. Preaching 3 p. m., by the pastor, Mr. Green. A chorus of young men will sing several favorite hymns at this service. Epworth League 7.30 p. m., Ruth Legg, leader. Junior League Thursday afternoon Mrs. Hadaway, superintendent.

Wesley Chapel of Kent.
