TELEPHONE IMPROVEMENTS

Constructing additional telephone toll lines in Maryland which will involve expenditures of $74,240 has just been approved by the board of directors of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City, according to an announcement made by W. A. Condit, vice-president.

The placing of these trunks is included in an appropriation of $118,110 made for similar work in Maryland which brings the total amount authorized for additions and improvements in the State so far this year to $254,450.

The trunks to be placed are between Baltimore and Salisbury, Salisbury and Washington, Baltimore and Onancock, Cecilton and Elkton, Centreville and Chestertown, Easton and Federalsburg, Ocean City and Salisbury nad Snow Hill, Annapolis and Washington and Centreville and Easton.

In constructing this net work of telephone toll lines it is necessary to place 196 poles, 6800 crossarms, and 1600 miles of wire.

The personal of the board of directors of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City is: Charles H. Carter, Phillips L. Goldsborough, Henry M. Warfield, Baltimore; Albert E. Berry, president, Montgomery county, Md.; D. S. Porter, secretary, and Charles J Bell, and W. S. Gifford, president, and E. S. Wilson, vice-president, the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, New York.

COLLEGE PAGEANT

The Pageant of Carroll County will be staged June second and fourth as the major event in the commencement of Western Maryland College. A cast of 2,000 persons will present the history of the county from the days of the Susquehannock Indians to the present. Churches, clubs, schools, business firms, and civic organizations will participate.

The students of Western Maryland College will play a prominent part in the spectacle. The men of the college will depict an imprortant battle of the Revolutionary War fought by The Famous Maryland Line. The girls of the college will stage the colorful party at which Betsy Patterson met Jerome Bonaparte.

The following students from Kent county will participate in The Pageant of Carroll: Charles Willis Betterton, Md.; Julia Williams, Worton, Md.

The farmers of Kent are becoming convinced that the use of good fertilizer is necessary to grow a crop of corn. Figures are obtainable to show the difference between the use of fertilizer and otherwise. In this issue The Peerless Fertilizer Company is giving valuable advice. Read it in another column.

Ancient Egyptian Road

According to Herodotus, the Greek writer known as the father of history, the road in Egypt over which the stones used in the pyramids were hauled reached halfway across the African continent. It was built 4000 B. C. The importance of this road can be gathered from the fact that it required 10,000 men working for ten years to construct a single mile of it

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Sarah A. Anderson, who departed this life four years ago March 20th, 1924.

It was early one Thursday morning.
I shall never forget that day,
When an angel came and whispered;
"I must take your mother away."
In our home she is fondly remembered,
Sweet memories cling to her name;
Those who loved her in life sincerely
Still love her in death just the same.
God knows how much we miss her,
Never shall her memory fade;
Loving thoughts shall ever wander
To the spot where she is laid.

1t* By Her Devoted Children.

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Caroline Bryan, who departed this life one year ago Mar. 20, 1927.

Death has robbed us of our mother,
Whom we loved and cherished dear;
She was a mother, yes, a dear mother.
Can we help but shed a tear?
We do not know the pain she bore,
As we sat and watched her die;
But we only know she went away,
Without bidding us good-bye.
Oh, dearest, sweetest mother,
Since you have passed away,
It seems not it was twelve months ,ago,
But only yesterday.
But in our saddest moments,
One happy thought holds sway,
We will meet again dear mother,
And be happy some sweet day.

Loving Daughters, Carrie D. and 1t* Rachel T.

P. A. and a pipe - that's all I ask

I DON'T mean that I am easily satisfied. As a matter of fact, I'm as critical as they come about smoking-tobacco. There are certain things I demand in a smoke, and I declare here and now that P. A. has 'em. Has 'em and to spare, if you ask me.

Fragrant as spring blossoms. Cool as "The boss wants to see you." Sweet as "I'm going to raise your pay." Mild and mellow and long-burning, with full satisfaction in every wonderful puff. It seems that there are not enough hours in a day to suit your Prince Albert program. You'll start in early and stay with it far into the night.

But all this conversation won't do you any good, unless you try out the tobacco itself. When it comes to speaking for itself, P. A. is the best little talker you ever listened to. Go get yourself a tidy red tin and get some of this pipe-joy I've been picturing.
