St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches
L. Colvin Randall, Pastor

Some-how there seems a difficulty in getting things started in the line of services at St. James, but if we are in earnest, hope, pray, and try a little, a real start is in store for us in the near future. Wouldn't it be just a happy thing to get the spirit of devotion that is our opportunity out of this Easter season that fast approaches. Inspirational services have been arranged for each night through the week prior to Easter Sunday, except Saturday, at 7.30 p. m., with exceptionally good speakers and music. If you need a closer walk with God, and we all do, you can't afford to miss these services. The Sunday schedule this week, at St. James, includes the Sabbath school at 10 a. m., and the hour of worship at 11 a. m.; and at Lynch, Sabbath school at 2.00 p. m., hour of worship at 3 p. m., and Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m. Mr. E. K. Mohr delighted those attending the Christian Endeavor at Lynch last Sunday with his address on the subject "The Value of Church Membership."

Wesley Chapel of Kent
