Dean J. S. William Jones, secretary of Washington College Alumni Association, is sending out notices to the 800 or more members of the Alumni Association notifying them of the election to be held in May of four members of the board of visitors, and governor of the college, whose terms expire in June.

CANDIDATES FILE IN DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

But one group of candidates for delegates to the Democratic State Convention has been filed before the Election Supervisors of Kent County. This list included Charles L Dodd, of Chestertown, Theodore J. Thompson, of Rock Hall, and Clarence M. Melvin, of Millington.

The time for filing closed at midnight on Monday of this week.

REPUBLICANS STIRRED UP!

The Jackson-Weller contest has stirred up the Republicans to a high pitch and the battle is on. The contest is for control of the Kent county delegation to the State Convention A. Parks Rasin, recognized Republican leader in the county, selected the following delegates: himself, Lewis S. Price, and Richard Strong, the latter-a prominent colored leader in the Seventh district, as the ticket which will wage battle against the ticket announced several weeks ago by Postmaster John N. Bennett, who is seeking reappointment, composed of former Senator Henry Brown, Olin S Davis, member of the Republican State Central Committee from Galena, and John Strickland, a leading colored worker in the Second district. Mr. Davis has withdrawn his name and Jos. Boyd substituted. Mr.Rasin announced himself an applicant for postmaster several weeks ago, and his announcement of the selection of a full delegate ticket is taken as an indication that he will espouse the cause of Senator Weller for National Committeeman against Senator Wm P. Jackson, of Salisbury, who is being backed by the Bennett forces Wm. G. Smyth and Charles N. Satterfield, the two other candidates for the postmastership are taking no active part in the delegate scramble though both are reported to be favorable to the candidacy of Senator Jackson. It is believed here, however, that the next postmaster in Chestertown, and also probably in Rock Hall and Millington, when vacancies exist, will be very largely determined by the result of the coming primary election of May 7, which will be the first setto the Republicans have had since 1901.

SENATOR LEGG ABANDONS FIGHT

Voicing his appreciation to the many friends who have stood loyally by him, but convinced that under existing circumstances it would be unwise for Queen Anne's County to present a candidate at this time State Senator J. H. C. Legg, of Centreville, announced his withdrawal from the Eastern Shore race for the Democratic Congressional nomination.

While Mr. Legg did not express any preference between Senator S. Scott Beck and Congressman Goldsborough the friends of Senator Beck feels very much encouraged and believe Mr. Legg's withdrawal will help Senator Beck's candidacy especially among the watermen.

CAROLINE JURY'S REPORT

The Grand Jury of Caroline county in its report to the Court says, "Our investigations have also led us afield in the realm of distillers and bootleggers; reports indicate that they are operating in every community center—freely, openly and without molestation. When questioned, our constables admitted the reports are true, smiled, and said "worthwhile evidence is not obtainable." Reports also indicate that the distiller and bootlegger as a rule carries a gun not for self-defense but to defend his illicit wares; thus has been created a new class of crimmals and murderers at heart, in our midst. It is evident the Volstead Law is not being enforced, and is not likely to be so long as authority rests with the Federal Government, and public sentiment divided as to its merits. But, your Honors, the Grand Inquest of Caroline County feel very strongly that the manufacturer and distribution of alcoholic liquors in our midst should be stopped, and the criminal operators driven from our borders.

We, therefore, call your attention to the numerous local statutes that fully cover every phase of this diabolical situation, laws that were effective before Volstead was known and laws that have public sentiment 100 per cent behind them. These statutes have not been repealed, and we believe after brought into action and effective operation would result in more satisfactory conditions."

A. W. Sisk foreman, Robert E Smith, secretary and W. W. Noble assistant secretary.

To The Republican Voters of Kent County, Maryland:

I am a candidate for delegate to the Republican State Convention on the Republican County Organization Ticket supporting the State Organization under the leadership of Senator O. E. Weller and Honorable Galen L. Tait, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee for the State of Maryland. The time has come when I mus tbe frank with the voters and let them know where I have stood and where I now stand with reference to the Chestertown Postoffice appointment, and the election of a National Committeeman.

I have always backed Mr. John N Bennett for the Postoffice. Four years ago I requested the State Central Committee to endorse him and he was appointed Postmaster. When his term expired in January 1928 I again requested the State Central Committee to endorse him for re-appointment and the full committee recommended him to Senator William P Jackson, National Committeeman Instead of Senator Jackson forwarding Mr. Bennett's name to the Postoffice Department for re-appointment he wrote a letter to both Mr. Robert R. Hill, Chairman of the State Central Committee, and John N. Bennett to visit him at Salisbury. Mr Hill visited Senator Jackson and withdrew his support of Mr. Bennett without any consultation with the other members of the committee or party leaders, and came out for Mr William G. Smyth for Pastmaster.

I again requested the remaining two members of the State Central Committee, Olin S. Davis and Charles H. Hutchins, to re-endorse Mr. Bennett and they again sent their endorsement to Senator Jackson. Instead of Senator Jackson making the appointment he called an examination for the office and has held up the appointment, playing with both Mr Hill and Mr. Bennett for support in Kent County for delegates to the State Convention. Senator Jackson has finally forced Mr. Bennett to run a set of delegates against the County Republican Organization, although this organization has given Mr. Bennett its loyal support for the past nine years. Senator Jackson is forcing Mr. Bennett to fight me, his best friend. I know that Mr. Bennett is unwillingly making this fight and I sympathize with him in his present position. However, I am still his friend and shall continue to support him for Postmaster, but I refuse to bow with bended knee before Senator William P. Jackson, who is now seeking re-election although he has been NationalCommitteeman for 20 years and deliver to him the Republican Organization in Kent.

Mr. Olin S. Davis, a member of the State Cetnral Committee, withdrew as a delegate for Mr. Bennett when he discovered what Senator Jackson was demanding of Mr. Bennett. Mr Davis will continue to support Mr Bennett for the Postoffice, but he will not be a party to delivering to Senator Jackson the delegates to the State Convention and the Party Organization.

Republican voters of Kent it is my wish that you come to the polls on Monday, May 7, 1928, and rebuke this attempt of Senator William P. Jackson to get three delegates from Kent by holding up the re-appointment of Mr. John N. Bennett as Postmaster Vote for the organization delegates to the State Convention who favor the election of Senator O. E. Weller for National Committeeman and Mr John N. Bennett for Postmaster.
