It is suggested that the broadcasting of news by radio be substituted for newspapers. That might do for the sporting events, but how would we tell the difference between the proceedings of Congress and static?

A pious reader condemns our references to betting, on the grounds that betting is an immoral process of obtaining something for nothing. Our experience has been rather to the contrary—that betting is giving for nothing.

To swap money for votes is illegal but to swap votes for votes is common practice in the United States Senate. There may be a difference in the legality, but none in morality.

J. I. CASE

The world's most accurate corn planter—backed by 80 years of successful manufacturing of Farm Power Machinery.

To prove that a corn planter is "The World's most accurate Corn Planter" is no small task, yet it has been done. This has been proved for the J. I. Case in innumerable public tests and the experience of thousands of farmers demonstrates the big crop increase that results from this accuracy.

There is no economy in using an inaccurate planter simply because you have one on hand, you can save many times the cost of a planter by throwing such a planter away and replacing it with a new accurate J. I. Case which in one season will pay for itself and a number of other machines too.

Come in and see the World's Most Accurate Corn Planter. Place your order and we will deliver later.
