Lots of personalty sales advertised in the Kent News this week. Those that have taken place thus far have done very well.

HOT AS BLAZES!

The mercury has tried itself in this section recently, going up as high as 96 degrees. Nevertheless, the nights have been pleasant enough for sleeping. It will not last long. Relief is in sight.

A PUBLIC ANSWER TO A PRIVATE QUESTION

The Editor of the News was asked a personal question recently, and we desire to make a public answer.

The question was: "How can you a dry Presbyterian support Al Smith, a wet Catholic?"

As to the first part of the proposition, we perhaps do not take our religion so seriously as our questioner. We do not believe that all Presbyterians are going to heaven, and that all other denominations are doomed to eternal perdition. We may be unorthodox, but we believe that our mansions in the skies are constructed while we are on earth, and that the hypocritical singers in the temple who break the commandments in their daily living are likely to find their mansions hovels in the suburbs, where cobble stones have succeeded the golden streets. And perhaps, in finding our places, we may trudge by the more beautiful homes of many clean-living Catholics.

As to the wet or dry issue, Governor Smith has promised, if elected, to support the Constitution of the United States and enforce all laws. That he is frank enough and manly enough to openly avow his position as opposed to the Volstead Act does not in any way prevent his enforcing it, and he has made a record for enforcing laws since he has been Governor of New York.

On all other counts Al Smith stands head and shoulders above his traducers. He knows the science of government from alpha to omega, and his instinct for scenting and preventing graft is remarkable. In handling the affairs of New York he has known no party and no creed when the good of the service to the people was involved. Add to that a personal honesty and honor that has never been impeached, and you have the picture of Al Smith. He was born to be President of the United States, and neither religious intolenance nor fanaticism can prevent it.—Cecil News.
