ISLAND BLOSSOM MAKES GOOD RECORD

The Island Blossom, entry of the Chester River Yacht and County Club, in the Chesapeake Bay Log Sailing Canoe Race for the Governor's Cup, demonstrated its sailing qualities on Friday, the first day of the Miles River Yacht Club regatta when it finished third in the free-for-all sailing event. The Blossom had the lead in the race until the last buoy was nearly reached. Here the State boat, Talbot, unwittingly bore down on the Chester River craft and threw it off its course. By the time it was righted several boats had slipped past. Passing them all but two on the final stretch the Blossom just failed taking second honors.

In the craft for this race were, Captain Hadaway, of Tilghman's Island, the skipper of the Blossom when she was cleaning up every thing on the Bay some years ago, Stanley Evans, who owns the boat, Thomas W. Perkins, Eben F. Perkins, Philip G. Wilmer, Harry Clay Brown and Neal Truslow.

John Harwood on Queen street is a Junior Tex Rickards. He has a prize ring with all equipments and charges 3 and 5 cents admission. Vannort Simpers and "Pickles" are matched for the star attraction.

HON. T. A. GOLDSBOROUGH IS SUED FOR DIVORCE

In a bill charging cruelty and vicious treatment, Mr. Laura Hall Goldsborough has filed suit at Denton, Md., for a partial divorce from Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough.

Mrs. Goldsborough's bill alleges that she was forced to flee the palatial Goldsborough home at Denton with her four children September 26, 1927, in fear of her life because of her husband's actions.

Since then, the bill says, he has "repeatedly and publicly made the vilest and most false charges against Mrs. Goldsborough."

Mrs. Goldsborough's bill states that when she left her husband's home she intended to return when it should become safe for her and the children to do so, but that Congressman Goldsborough left the same day and began living at a neighbor's home.

Apparently she returned to the home the same day that both left it.

Mrs. Goldsborough seeks custody of the four children, attorney's fees and alimony to be set by the Caroline County Circuit Court.

Judge Thomas J. Keating, of Centreville, Caroline county circuit judge, issued a show-cause order the day the suit was filed, August 2, returnable on or before August 17.

The order directs Congressman Goldsborough to show cause why he should not be ordered to pay Mrs. Goldsborough $500 monthly alimony pending settlement of the suit.

The four children are Martha Winder, eighteen; T. Alan, Jr., sixteen; Eliza, thirteen, and George, eleven.

Randolph Barton, Jr., and Joseph Addison, of Baltimore, are Mrs. Goldsborough's attorneys.

Mr. Goldsborough has made no answer to the suit, and both he and Mrs. Goldsborough refused to discuss it.

Mr. Golsborough is now a candidate for re-election to Congress on the Democratic ticket. Political writers concede his re-election.

Mr. Goldsborough is now serving his fourth term in Congress.

O. PLEASANTON HELD FOR COURT

Charged with having caused the death of Charles E. Wiggins, of Pondtown, Sunday afternoon, while operating an automobile under the influence of intoxicants, Oscar Pleasanton, of Crumpton, was arranged before Justice James W. Anderson of Church Hill, Thursday evening. He was fined $200 and costs under the State motor laws, and the accused waived a hearing on the manslaughter charge.

It is alleged that Pleasanton was operating his car while intoxicated and picked up Wiggings along the road between Crumpton and Dudely's Corner. In passing a large machine the Pleasanton car tilted, one of the doors flew open and Wiggins fell out. Wiggins also was said to have been drinking and at first it was thought that he had not been seriously hurt. Later that night, however, he died.

Coroner Anderson impaneled a jury with Marion Everett as foreman and the following jurymen: Spencer Wessell, Elmer Coleman, Edwin Walbert, Edward Merchant, LeRoy Cole Franklin Everett, Alan McFarland J. Edward Stevens, John W. Wessell Charles M. Taylor and Morris Walls.

The jury brought in a verdict that Wiggins came to his death as the result of an accident from Pleasant's operation of a car while intoxicated.

Attorney J. H. C. Legg, of the Centreville bar, appeared as counsel for Pleasanton at the hearing Thursday evening, and the State was represented by State's Attorney Wm. R. Horney. Evidence on the charge of driving while intoxicated was presented by Motorcyle Officers Jesse M. Bradley and Lenhart. Pleasanton appealed from the $200 fine and also waived a hearing on the manslaughter charge.

Both cases are, consequently, set for trial at the November term of court.

MISS BERNICE ASHLEY WEDS JOHN C. EDWARDS

The marriage of Miss Bernice Carolyn Ashley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ashley, whose home is near Rock Hall, and John C. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edwards, also of Rock Hall, took place last Saturday evening at 8 in the parsonage of Grace M. E. Church, with hte pastor, Rev. Thomas S. Barrett, officiating.

The couple were unattended, and the ceremony was witnessed by members of the families and a few friends only. The bride was dressed in a frock of old blue canton crepe with tan slippers and hose. She is a graduate of the Rock Hall High School and attended Strayer's Business College in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will near Rock Hall.

MRS. RASKOB BUYS TRACT

Mrs. Helena S. Raskob, owner of Pioneer Point Farms, near Centreville, added 520 acres more to her 1200-acre estate on Wednesday, when she purchased the Ruth Farm, adjoining, for $45,000. The property was owned by A. Sydney Gadd, Jr., John Denwood Gadd and Mrs. John Ashley.

With a shore line extending from Earle's Cove in Corsica River to the extreme heal of Grove's Creek,emptying into Chester river, the combined holdings of Mrs. Raskob now embrace the longest water-front probably owned by any one individual on the Eastern Shore. It is estimated that the shore line is between 9 and 10 miles in length.

Mrs. Raskob's newly created 1720-acre estate now embraces the entire point of land which lies locked between the picturesque courses of the Chester and Corsica rivers.

The combined woods on the Ruth and Pioneer Point Farms are regarded as the finest natural hunting country on the Shore. For many years Corsica Neck has been the centre of fox hunting activities and the woods on the Ruth Farm provides quarters for many descendents of foxes who were chased by bewigged gentlemen of colonial days.

Herbert E. Perkins, Attorney.
