Love-mad Youth—You still doubt me? Test my love. Bid me attack wild beasts, defy savages, bring back the north pole, descend into a volcano —anything, no matter what, I will do it.

His Sweetheart — Well, go ask father.

Bjones—My wife and I suffer from alternate insomnia.

Smiff—Alternate insomnia! What is that?

Bjones—Whichever gets to sleep first keeps the other awake all night.

Lawyer — All right, I'll take the case. I feel assured that I can get you justice.

Litigant—Well, if that's the best you can do I'd bette rget another lawyer.

Hubby—You have changed washerwomen, I see.

Wifey—Yes. How did you know?

Hubby — Instead of getting Aronoff's, Rakemann's and Mattcossian's shirts, I am getting some strange garments I never wore before.

Ephraim—How's your rheumatism this morning, Lucinda?

Lucinda—It doesn't bother me at all.

Ephraim—That's too bad! We need rain badly for the crops.
