Added Profit—$21.05

From Each Acre of Winter Wheat

HERE are facts—not claims. Facts you can check. Facts told by wheat growers right close by.

Maybe you know Mr. Howard H. Fitz, R. F. D. No. 6, York, York County, Pa. Here is what he says in a letter dated July 15, 1927:

"For 20 years I have used 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer. This year my wheat yield was 35 bushels to the acre—15 bushels more than some of the yields obtained in near-by sections—and the quality of the grain was exceptionally fine . . . the kind that is sold for seeding purposes."

Mr. Fitz sold his wheat at a premium of 10 cents because of extra quality, and this, together with the increased yield, gave him an added profit of $21.05 per acre. For his 18-acre crop this means a total extra profit of $378.90.

Farmers who want to make a real profit on wheat cannot afford to read statements like Mr. Fitz's, say "That sounds interesting," and let it go at that. Here is a real chance to increase your profits. Mr. Fitz's extra profit with "AA QUALITY" Fertilizer is not an exception. Read in the next column a few of hundreds of similar letters. Could anything be fairer? We do not send you claims about our goods—we give you facts, facts from farmers to whom you can talk, write, or telephone, and verify what they say.

These facts prove that there is a great difference in the crop-producing power of fertilizers of the same chemical analysis. They prove that "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers pay you a larger profit for every dollar you invest in plant food.

These goods are made with the utmost care from the choicest plant-food materials obtainable—materials selected for their crop-producing power, not just for chemical analysis. Nothing is left to chance—nothing is taken for granted. "Good enough" does not suffice in making "AA QUALITY" goods. Perfect mechanical condition, always. Every pound of this carefully made plant food is thoroughly remilled and screened before it is shipped to you.

That is why "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers produce bigger yields, better quality—and larger profits. That is why "AA QUALITY" goods are by all odds the cheapest fertilizer you can buy.

It will pay you to use "AA QUALITY" Fertilizer on your next wheat crop. See the nearest "AA QUALITY" Dealer today.

Facts for Wheat Growers

From* MR. GEORGE W. K. RIDGELY, *Marriottsville, Howard Co., Md.

"This year I had 72 acres in wheat and the average yield was 36 bushels and 1 peck to the acre. The yield on some acres was as high as 60 bushels. I have used 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizers for the past 7 years, and from results I am obtaining you can readily see I will continue with 'AA QUALITY' and experiment no further."

From* MR. WARREN E. CLAYCOMB, *Imler, Bedford Co., Pa.

"'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer is certainly everything you recommend it to be. Where I used your goods on my wheat crop I had 50% more yield, together with an excellent stand of clover. I never saw finer wheat. I have used different makes of fertilizer but none of them have come up to 'AA QUALITY' in producing good results."

MILD WINTER IN STORE FOR US

Goose-bone prophets to the contrary it is a four-to-one bet that the coming winter will be normal, according to a well known weather expert.

He has been noting the reports that have been coming in to the Shore papers as to large nut-crops, and squirrels making unusual hoardings. Once in a while he said, their long-range nature forecasts make good and that keeps them in high standing until the next lucky guess. He does not scoff altogether at signs. It would be better, he said, if people were more weatherwise. The ruralite and the sailor, he said, are better "weather sharps" than the city dweller, but there is no reason for it except that they live more in the open.

Favors "Short-Range Forecasts

As for predictions, however, he said, all signs fail except for short-range forecasts and he has little patience for the other kind.

"What" he asked, "is the measure of the unusual hoardings these wise-acres prate about? How do they know, except from memory, whether they are larger one year than another? How often does memory play tricks on the best of us, especially when it is exercised in a strictly seasonable manner?

"We have a number of squirrels in the woods back of our home and the little fellows are so tame they almost eat out of our hands. They are as fat, as butter-balls at this time of the year, fat from overindulgence in the bounties of nature and of neighborhood backyard liberality.

Forcaster Feeds Squirrels

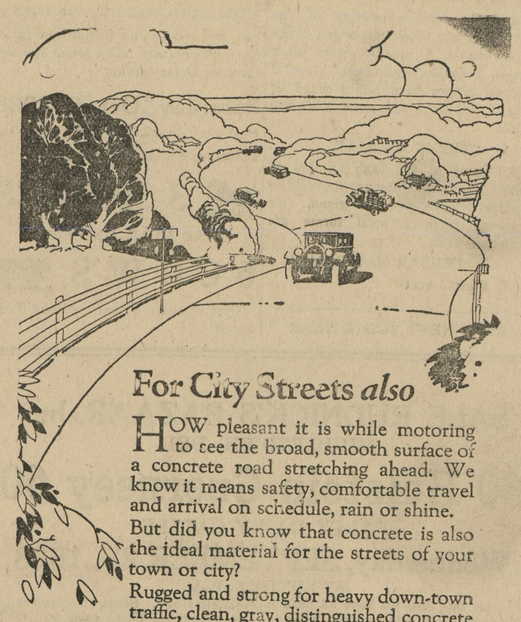

"I feed them peanuts and when they have surfeited they bury what they cannot eat, just as a fed-up dog buries a bone. The act has no special significance, to my mind, except that is in the nature of the animal to store up in days of plenty for the season of scarcity.

"Fruit trees, nut trees and most growing perennials, have their off years in bearing, largely the result of seasonable conditions, not of the future but of the past. I believe it is with nature as with man. The hindsight is much keener than the foresight."

A BRAVE ACT

I am a visitor in Betterton for a couple of weeks and want to call your attention to a very brave act done by a little girl of only ten years. A child of two years old was left playing on the beach the other day, while its mother went out in the water for a dip. The baby tiring of being alone proceeded to wade out after its mother. The child was soon over its head in water and the mother too far away to be of any assistance when she saw the baby go under screamed frantically for some one to save the baby. Now, Miss Maxine Owens, daughter of the Rev. H. Clifton Owens, of Baltimore, and graddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Owens of Owens' Cottage, seeing the disaster about to occur, rushed from the beach where she was drying and dragged the child out of the water after it had disappeared. A throng of people had by this time seen and heard what happened, all showered praise on this little girl for having the presence of mind to do at once what others were making up their minds to do. Miss Owens has shown to be quite a diver and swimmer.

Sincerely, Mrs. R. G. Kreis,

For City Streets also

HOW pleasant it is while motoring to see the broad, smooth surface of a concrete road stretching ahead. We know it means safety, comfortable travel and arrival on schedule, rain or shine.

But did you know that concrete is also the ideal material for the streets of your town or city?

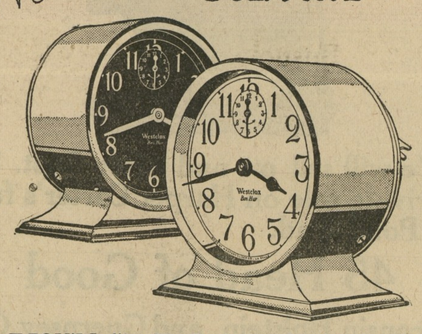

Rugged and strong for heavy down-town traffic, clean, gray, distinguished concrete has been found most appropriate also for exclusive residential districts, on boulevards and quiet parkways. And the concrete street is safest—wet or dry.
