SHOREMEN BOW BEFORE LOYOLA

Loyola's heavier and more experienced eleven sent Washington College's hopes for a low score crashing in the third quarter of the game Saturday at Homewood. Three times in that period an Evergreen back touched the ball down behind Washington's goal line. At the end of the uneven contest the score stood at 32 to 0 in favor of Loyola.

Washington was many pounds lighter than the outfit Tony Comerford, Loyola's new coach, sent out on the field. Yet the little fellows from across the Bay fought with great courage and not a little skill throout the first half. They held Loyola scoreless in the first quarter and they battled to the last yard while the Baltimoreans were getting their first touchdown in the second quarter.

Monahan Takes Pass

But, there was limit to what they could do in the face of odds. When the first disastrous "break" came early in the second half in the form of an intercepted pass and a resultaat 65-yard run to their goal line by Monahan, Loyola's left halfback, their resistence began to weaken.

The game began with Washington kicking off to Loyola. Connolly,Monahan and Cannon quickly reeled off two first downs for a total gain of about 25 yards. This put Loyola inside Washington's half of the field.

BOY MISTAKES GUN FOR CAP PISTOL

Finding a 32-calibre revolver on a shelf in the store of his grandparents, at the village of Roberts, which he thought was a cap pistol, Jack Smith, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Smith, of Church Hill, shot himself through the knee joint, when he attempted to place a paper cap in the pistol.

The bullet entered his leg just above the knee and passed through the knee joint. Dr. W. H. Fisher, of Centreville, had the child removed to Emergency Hospital, Easton, where the bullet was removed. The boy with his small sister, was spending the afternoon with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith, while the parents attended a funeral in Centreville.

Following the operation the child was reported resting comfortably.
