GEORGE S. BIDDLE, JR., ON BOAT IN STORM

Stories of the sea have been of a thrilling nature this week and, as usual Kent countians have been interested. George S. Biddle, Jr., who is practicing law in New York, started on a business trip to London and was caught in the heavy storm of this week, but survived. Mr. Biddle's father from Rock Hall says his son reports a most trying experience.

There will be several musical contests at the biennial meeting of the National Federation of Music Clubs in Boston in June. For full information write to Mrs. G. Ridgley Sappington, 606 W. 40th street, Baltimore, Md.

Geezer—You certainly started out with fine prospects. Your credit was good everywhere in town.

Wheezer—Yes; that's why I failed.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The annual Red Cross Roll Call begun in the town and county on Armistice Day, Sunday, and will continue until Thanksgiving Day. Mrs. Whitcomb, of the American Red Cross, has been in the county arranging the details for the drive which will be conducted under the direction of the county Red Cross Association of which Howard Turner, of Bettterton, is chairman. It goes without saying that this is a most worthy cause, and deserves the financial aid and cooperation of every one in Kent county interested in the preservation of the health of its citizens, young and old. It should be remembered that 50 cents of each dollar contributed for the support of the Red Cross is retained in Kent county for the development of the work of Nutrition recently inaugurated by Miss Hinckeloe, of the American Red Cross Nutrition Service, who is in the county for three months service, and who has already discovered among the school children of the county ample reason for this special health service. In her examination of school children Miss Kinchcloe has found an alarming number of cases of undernourished pupils, some of whom are as much as 35 pounds under weight, which is sufficient evidence of the need for nutrition service in the county. The remaining 50 cents is forwarded to the American Red Cross at Washington to be expended in relieving suffering among flood and hurricane sufferers and all other calamities to which the country is subject. Nothing could be more important than the work of the Red Cross and it is hoped that Kent county will go way over the top in its subscriptions this year.

"RIVER PIRATE" GREAT THRILLER AT NEW LYCEUM

Those who have read "The River Pirate," by Charles Francis Coe, which recently ran in the Saturday Evening Post and which comes to the New Lyceum on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 22nd and 23rd, will recall, most of all, that it was, primarily, the story of a boy who never had a chance until he met the girl who plucked him from a life of crime and brought him back to decency and to her.

The screen rights to this story were purchased by Fox Films and the directorial assignment went to William K. Howard, youthful director, who has surpassed his prior efforts, including "White Gold," "The Main Event" and other successes.

The central figures are a pair of boon companions, a hard boiled sailor and a mere youth, who team together and engage in river piracy working in the dark of the night and ever pursued by watchful harbor police.

This provides for just a few more thrills than come to the usual motion picture and stresses the old maxim that there is good in everyone if the right spot be touched. Incidentally, it goes far to prove that reform school do not always reform.

Victor McLaglen plays the stellar role of the river pirate with his companion enacted by Nick Stuart, and Lois Moran as the girl in the case, while Earle Foxe is in the part of the double crossing "shark."
