When Victories Perch On The Gridiron

Golden Rule Sunday To Be Observed Here

Gov. Ritchie has designated Sunday, December 2, for the observance of Golden Rule Sunday in conformity with the International observance, and he has appointed Thomas D. Bowers, of Chestertown, chairman of a committee for Kent county to arrange the details for the county-wide observance of the day. Mr. Bowers has appointed the following committee to serve with him in making the observance of the important occasion a success: Rev. Dr. E. A. Sexsmith, Chestertown; Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, Chestertown; Rev. Charles L. Atwater, Chestertown; Rev. James F. Earner, Chestertown; Rev. Robert E. Green, Pomona; Rev. J. Lee Marker, St. James; Rev. C. L. Dawson, Wesley Chapel; Rev. W. S. Grant, Rock Hall; Rev. T. S. Barrett, Piney Neck; Rev. H. G. Hager, Kennedyville; Rev. Dr. Stone, Betterton; Rev. John White, St. Paul's; Rev. S. L. Hanby, Fairlee; Rev. Dr. Sewell S. Hepburn, Still Pond; Rev. Claude W. Clark, Still Pond; Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, Galena; Rev. J. H. Garner, Massey; Rev. R. L. Tawes, Millington, and the pastor of the Southern M. E. Church, Millington.

These ministers are urged to accept appointment on this committee and assist in making the day a great success. Mr. Harold F. Pellegrin, Governor Ritchie's representative in Washington, has been apprised of the appointment of this committee and will send each member such literature as will assist in the work of organization, and they will be given instructions as to whom to forward all subscriptions received. The chairman suggests that a special offering be lifted in all the churches on Golden Rule Sunday.

TURKEY POOL IS FAVORABLY RECEIVED HERE

Bids Received Will Be Opened November 17th

Many Interested

The Turkey Pool which is being promoted by the Kent County Chamber of Commerce is attracting considerable attention both from growers and buyers. Returns from questionaire postals sent out by the committee in charge as to the turkey census of this vicinity, have come not only from Kent but from as far as New Castle, Del., and Oxford, Maryland. Cards were given to all who asked for them at the Field Meeting in connection with the annual Turkey Tour held on Thursday, November 8th. Every grower in Kent the committee has tried to reach. Numerous letters from New York and Philadelphia buyers have come in and a number of bids have been received. Others, whose policy does not permit buying in this method, have expressed their approval of the plan and are standing ready to absorb a possible surplus not taken up in bids. Growers will be notified as to the days appointed for delivery. Metcalfe Brothers of Chestertown have most generously offered their ware rooms for the assembling of the birds. At noon on Saturday, November 17, the bids will be opened in the office of the Chamber of Commerce on Court Street. All those who are interested are invited to attend. The successful bidder will be advised immediately by telephone so he will have ample time to complete his arrangements. A few growers have understood that turkeys were to be dressed for the 17th. The committee urges all growers not to get turkeys ready for delivery until notified. The 17th is only the reading of the bids, delivery will be the following week. New York markets want their birds between the 19th and 26th.

It cannot be too strongly stressed that this turkey pool is in its infancy. With proper handling it will undoubtedly grow into an enormous business with Kent as the center. Kent's turkeys have already gained much publicity through the movies and the Associated Press. This is an advertisement which has been unsought and is therefore all the more significant. Cooperation of the grower is, of course, a necessary factor. The return postals show that many of our farmers are anxious to cooperate and an increasing number is expected as the work continues. A very limited time was allowed for this first experiment but much has been accomplished through the Chamber getting in touch with the National Chamber, the Departments of Markets of Philadelphia and New York and the Merchant's Association of New York. All of these organizations responded promptly and fully and through them a good list of buyers was procured. This same plan of turkey selling pool was followed out in North Carolina with great success.

A Real Spirit of Service!

"Undoubtedly a very great factor in the continued progress and improvement of telephone service is the intangible but quite real spirit of service that has become a tradition in the telephone business * * * "

WALTER S. GIFFORD,
President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company
(Bell System)

¶ Every minute of the day or night 50,000 telephones are ringing somewhere in the United States! 3,000,000 every hour! 73,000,000 telephone conversations take place during the course of a day.

¶ Telephone service has become a vital service. Never for a moment must it falter. The message must get through; the service must be kept at the highest standard of efficiency. That is the creed of the army of telephone workers—374,000 of them—who operate the country's telephone system.

¶ Many and varied are the functions of these workers, for the business of furnishing telephone service is one of great complexity. It requires specialists in scores of diverse activities.

¶ But different as are the tasks of this army of telephone workers, thousands of whom are men and women of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City, they are moved by a common purpose—to get the message through in the most efficient way and the shortest possible time.

¶ Throughout the twenty-four hours of each day, three hundred and sixty-five days of each year, this is the purpose which continually actuates our people—a purpose that inspires in them a real spirit of service.
