The Kent banks have elected directors and officers for the ensuing year. These county banking institutions have selected men of splendid judgment.

YOU CAN'T BEAT IT

What will happen to the American people, if they continue to swarm into our greatest centers of population?

Visitors to those teeming hives of population remark on the lavishness and luxury there observed. They say these big cities get more than their share of the nation's wealth.

Said a young man who once departed to seek a visionary fortune in New York city, "I am going down to the big show."

In a friendly community like ours you have the chance to realize the best possibilities of which you are capable.

And the intimate relations of a good wholesome town give you friend ships that no dollars can buy, and which are better than the luxurious showers on a few of its more favored pets.

VANISHING LANDMARKS

Someone has said that the hustle and bustle of present-day life is taking away too many of the good old landmarks—family worship and saying grace.

It is my privilege to visit at times in the home of an elderly couple childless, and tenderly devoted to each other.

Then with a quiet dignity the chairs are pushed back and we each go about our affairs.

Mostly we find it impossible to get enough members of the family together at any one time to have anything of unity in such a proceeding.

Home is where the garage is.

The only real farm problem is to win the farm vote.

HAVE ENOUGH LAW NOW

Rock Hall, Md., January 21, 1929.

Mr. Editor, Sir: The Kent County Waterman's Protective Association of Rock Hall, Md., wishes to put before the people of Kent County the facts pertaining to the fish and oyster industry as far as the people of Kent County are concerned.

We believe that if left strictly alone and if we do not have abnormal rates to cause freshets in June and July we will have a large supply of legal size oysters next September.
