CLASSES IN MIDWIFERY IN KENT

Under the supervision of the State Department of Health, Dr. Goodson, a woman physician, will hold classes in Midwifery in Kent County for eight weeks, beginning March 6.

For a number of years classes have been an annual feature of the Health service in this county but 1929 is the first year such classes have been conducted by a physician.

Five years ago Kent County had the highest death rate among infants in the State of Maryland.
