

KENT COUNTY LOCAL NOTES

ROCK HALL

The high winds of Monday night and Tuesday have destroyed many dollars worth of nets. Some writer in the Baltimore Sun gave Rock Hall a boost that we wish were true. It pictured prosperity of our watermen and would be fine if the statements were justifiable. The M. E. Church, too, was declared out of debt when not a cent has been paid on the purchase of the church house and there are minor sums besides. Nor has there been another raise in the pastor's salary this year. Desirable as such a condition might be, the people cannot see their way clear at the present time.

The Rock Hall Volley Ball team opened the season last Friday with a victory over the team representing the Chestertown High School. The score was 12 to 3. The Rock Hall team is composed of the following players: Elizabeth Francis, Clara Joiner, Ella Wirts, Mary Hatcher, Hallie Ashley, Beatrice Donnelly, Gladys Edwards and Eva Jacob. The local team is coached by Mrs. W. A. P. Strang, vice-principal of the school, with assistants Yarnall Wheat.

A large audience crowded into the Junior Hall last Thursday night. The occasion was the first P. T. A. minstrel of the Rock Hall High School. The circle with one exception, was composed entirely of women. The exception was the middle man, Reuben Rodney. The ends were Mrs. T. B. Willson, Mrs. Millard Rodney, Mrs. Orin Downey and Mrs. Hynson Carter. The entertainment was under the supervision of Walter Briers. The performance was repeated at Fairlee Friday night. The net sum of $140 will be applied to the sidewalk paving fund.

The Rock Hall Band has united with the Rock Hall Volunteer Fire Company and Fire Chief Trew Durning is business manager for the band. Mr. Strang, a teacher at Peabody

Academy of Music with a home here, will instruct the band.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ayres have returned from Camden, N. J., where they spent the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willson, who motored down with them for a short time and visited also Mr. Willson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Willson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Downey entertained for the past two weeks their daughter, Mrs. Bessie Davis, of Bustleton, Pa. Sunday, 14, was the 55th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Downey's marriage.

On Tuesday evening, April 9th, at 7:30 o'clock a party of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards in Piney Neck and gave a surprise party in honor of their son, Ellsworth's 19th birthday. The entertainment consisted of vocal and instrumental music, games and dancing. At 10 o'clock an invitation was given for a visit to the dining room where refreshments were served.

Edward Y. O'Meara died Monday afternoon of pneumonia. He is survived by his widow and two sons.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon conducted by Rev. Robert Green. The bearers for each were Clements Hadaway, Mowbray Hadaway, Frank Hadaway, Robert Goodman, William Goodman and Harry Goodman.

Interment was made in Chester Cemetery, W. T. Hicks, undertaker.

Samuel Colgain died at Eastern Hospital last Friday of liver trouble, aged 54 years. The deceased formerly lived in Chestertown and was salesman for W. P. Newman for a number of years. He had moved from Chestertown to a farm near Denton, on New Year's.

Funeral services were held from his late home on Monday at 2 p. m., with interment in Denton Cemetery. He is survived by a widow, two children, also a sister and brother.

Mary Bertha Hanna died April 7, 1929, at her home 302 East 24th street, Wilmington, Del. She leaves her husband D. Sherman Hanna, and one son, Charles C. Dawson, and three sisters, Miss Ida Biggers, of Lynch; Mrs. Fred Kinsey, of Chestertown, and Mrs. James Ross, of Wilmington, Del.; also three brothers, Harry, John and Walter Biggers. Interment at Silver Brook Cemetery.

Rev. Leonard Smith, of Peninsula M. P. Church, conducted the funeral services.—Mr. Chandler, undertaker.

FARM RELIEF.

Congress met in special session Monday. Its object is to bring relief to the farmer. The News is not sanguine that the farmer will get what he is hoping for, but we will watch with pleasure the effort.

The House farm relief bill, assumed to represent the President's views, gives scant promise, even if promptly enacted, of benefiting agriculture in the coming season. Too much is to be done in setting up machinery. What it will do in the long run is beyond prophecy. But it may be noted that the warnings now and again given to the proposed Federal Farm Board do not leave one with the impression that a bold attempt is to be made to close the gap between the level of industrial prices as the farmers have desired. Rather, the measure suggests that its farmers had in mind the prevention, if possible, of fluctuations in the prices of a given crop in a given season.

What use will be made of the open door will depend largely upon the character and attainments of the members of the Federal Farm Board. Its potential powers are very large, and it may, under its grant of authority, do much or do nothing, be reckless or be stationary.

The heart of the project is the revolving fund of half a billion dollars, to be supplied by the Treasury and to be used in financing farmers' cooperatives and the so-called stabilization corporations in regulating the flow of farm products upon the market, and thus regulating price. This great fund is to be used as, if and when the Farm Board is satisfied that an association applying for aid has "an organization, management and business policies of such character as to insure the reasonable safety of the loan" and the furtherance of the objectives of the bill. There you are, say the farmers of the bill. In sum, they express the pious wish that agriculture shall be made profitable, they entrust the task of doing so to five men, into whose hands is placed a half-billion dollars, and then they anxiously say, "Be careful!"

Loafers Are an Expense

The world has a right to object to idle, shiftless people. Soon such people will be on the county, or in jail charged with crime, to be supported or hanged by money collected in the form of burdensome taxes. If the shiftless and idle can be saved early in their careers, it means a saving in public expenses.—E. H. Howe's Monthly.

Must Go on Record

By the copyright act of 1942, a copy of every volume, pamphlet, sheet of letterpress, sheet of music, map, chart or plan separately published in the United Kingdom must be deposited with the British Museum and, if demand is made, copies must also be presented to the Bodleian library and the libraries of Cambridge, Edinburgh and Dublin.

CASE POWER DRIVE Corn Planters

Now Manufactured by Massey Harris Co.

The planter with almost 100% dropping accuracy. The value of a corn planter depends upon the accuracy of the drop, that is, the ability to plant uniformly under varying conditions. The type of drop supplied on this corn planter is as near perfect as it is possible to obtain.

The operator can change the drop on this planter to 2, 3 or 4 kernels in a hill by merely shifting a lever to any of the 3 positions or can alternate the drop 1 and 2, 2 and 3 or 3 and 4 kernels to the hill.

This planter can be equipped with plain, automatic spring lift or Barry automatic markers.

Some Useful Planter Attachments

FERTILIZER ATTACHMENTS which are increasing in popularity and will bring about larger yields. Fertilizer can be checked with the corn or drilled as you wish.

COW PEA ATTACHMENTS allow planting cow peas or soy beans and corn at the same time in check rowing or drilling.

Increase your profits in corn by owning a corn planter that is known and can be depended on for its accuracy and uniformity.
