BIG RUM
STILLS FOUND

In a series of spectacular raids conducted by Sheriff Frank Y. Whiteley, Constable Louis B. Perkins and federal officers operating under the direction of Deputy Administrator George A. Hill, of Dover, seven men and one woman were arrested in Queen Anne's county during last week, for alleged infractions of either the Federal Prohibition Laws or the Queen Anne's County Local Option Law.

Just 111 gallons of contraband booze were confiscated, over one hundred gallons of mash were rendered unfit for further use, and two stills—one of 15 gallons capacity and another of 50-gallon were demolished. Those apprehended in the raids were:

Joseph Pinder, white, released on $1500 bail, charged with operating a 15-gallon still near Crumpton.

Zed Goodyear, white, held in Denton jail on the charge of having 85 gallons of whiskey at his place between Millington and Crumpton.

James Chase, white, held in Denton jail, on the charge of operating a 50-gallon still at his farm between Crumpton and Chetsertown.

William Warfield, colored, Centreville, held in Denton jail under the Jones Act, for the transportation of 5 gallons of whiskey.

McKinley Bailey, colored, Centreville, released on bail, on the charge of transporting liquor.

Leonard Pinder, white, Queenstown, held on the charge of transporting 11 gallons of liquor, 2 gross of pint bottles and quantity of corks.

Oliver James, colored, Centreville, arrested and sentenced to 30 days in Centreville jail and to a fine of $50, for violating the county Local Option Laws.

Joseph Pinder was arrested by Federal officers in the McGinnes Section of Queen Anne's county, about 3 miles from Crumpton. A 15-gallon still was destroyed and a quantity of mash was emptied. No whiskey was found on the premises. He was released on $1050 bail.

Zed Goodyear, whose farm is between Millington and Crumpton, was held by Commissioner J. Dewees Carter, of Denton, on information of Federal Officers showing they had found 85 gallons of whiskey in 9 ten gallon kegs.

James Chase, whose farm is between Crumpton and Chestertown, was held after officers destroyed a 50-gallon still, 100 gallons of mash and confiscated 10 and 12 gallons of whiskey.

Bailey and Warfield were arrested by Federal Officers on the state highway between Sudlersville and Millington. Bailey was released on bail on testimony to the effect that he was driving his car and had carried Warfield to a moonshine rendezvous to obtain a cargo of liquor. The Ford coupe, owned by Bailey, was seized and a charge of violating the Jones act was placed against Warfield. This new law may impose a fine of $10,000 and a sentence of five years.

Leonard Price, of Queenstown, was also captured in the vicinity of Sudlersville. His car is alleged to have contained 11 gallons of liquor, 2 gross of pint bottles and a quantity of corks.

Oliver James and Louise Kilson, of Centreville, were arrested by Sheriff Whiteley and Constable Perkins for violating the Local Option Laws. They were sentenced to jail.

It is reported that while making the raids in Queen Anne's this week Federal Agents uncovered considerable additional evidence which will enable them to make further inroads in the near future.—Observer.

TELEPHONE COMPANIES HEALTH
COURSE INCREASES EFFICIENCY

Classes Learn Simple Rules of Hygiene Including Diet, Dress, Rest, Recreation, First Aid and Nursing

These telephone farmerettes know that outdoor exercise is helpful, and they practice what they preach. Those in the picture left to right are: Evelyn O. Disney, Alice J. Winchester, Irene Johnson, Mary A. Bible, Theresa M. Dorsey and Gladys M. Cass, recent graduates of the health course.

The general health course for women employees of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia has benefited 2,600 employees who have received certificates of graduation. As a result these young women get added comfort and joy out of the more fact of living; the telephone company gets increased efficiency through a better, healthier and happier personnel; and the public gets better telephone service.

"This is merely one of the opportunities for benefit offered the employees of the telephone companies," says Dr. William Cabell Moore, Medical Director of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone System. "There is no other commercial company that I know of employing such a large number of people which looks out so well for its employees, not only in matters pertaining to health but also in many other important details of life. The health course gives the employees an opportunity to learn the simple rules of hygiene and health pertaining to diet, dress, rest, recreation, personal hygiene, first aid and home nursing."

Health course classes which have been in progress since the early part of 1926 are taught by qualified instructors, selected and given special training in this work. The telephone companies provide without cost to those taking the course the necessary facilities, rooms, study books and other accessories, the only requirement for the young women being that they take the course of instruction on their own time. The class meets one hour each week for fifteen weeks, which allows sufficient hours for study, instruction and recreation.

In planning the health course it was the companies' idea to present the young women with an opportunity to improve their health. This objective has been reached to a much greater extent than was at first expected.

Scenting Teas
Tea is scented artificially by exposing the dried leaves to the blossoms of such flowers as the sweet-scented olive, the gardenia, rose and yasmine.

Escape Punishment
Since the methadone was out of vogue a lot of villains escape punishment.—Tele. Blade

Taking Things Calmly
Remember, it is not he who reviles you or strikes you who insults you, but it is your opinion about these things as being insulting. When, then, a man irritates you, you must know that it is your own opinion which has irritated you. Therefore especially try not to be carried away by the provocation. For, if you once gain time and delay, you will more easily master yourself.—Epictetus.

Patriotic Shrine
Rome's Sacred Mount, famous in history for the conflict between the plebeians and the patricians, has now become the mecca of resident and visiting South Americans.

Around 1800 Simon Bolivar, "El Libertador," came to visit the ruins of ancient Rome and while atop Mount Sacred he took a solemn oath to free his country from Spanish domination.

A South American will to this day show you a small broken column on the Sacred Mount and claim that Simon Bolivar sat on it while lost in profound meditation.

Today, in pilgrimage, South Americans retrace their liberator's footsteps.

Famous Song Not Burns
Although the words of the song "Auld Lang Syne" appear in Burns' works, he himself, admits that he wrote only the second and third stanzas. A song of the same title can be traced to the latter part of 1600. In a letter to George Thomson, September, 1793, Burns says "One song more I have done, 'Auld Lang Syne'. The air is but mediocre but the following song, the old song of the olden times, and which has never been in print nor even in manuscript until I took it down from an old man's singing, is enough to recommend any air."

Hard to Catch Up
"Why, Ethel, why are you crying like this at your nice birthday party with all your little friends here?"
"Oh, mother, I've been trying so hard to catch up with Jean, and now that I am six she says she will be seven, and I will have to wait another whole year to be as old as she is again."
