

A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT

Chestertown residents do not appreciate the advantages of having at their very doors the beautiful Chestertown regatta held Monday, an account of which appears in another column, proves that there is no place with more advantages than right here.

Hundreds of visitors and residents of Kent county assembled for the regatta conducted by the Chestertown Yacht Club. The social activities of the affair began Saturday night with an informal dance at the clubhouse for yachtmen and their families who had arrived on the scene early and in advance of the main body of guests.

The reception committee comprised Mrs. Allan A. Harris, Miss Minnie Massey, Commodore Edw. W. Emery, Mrs. Henry Kratzer, Mrs. E. B. Clark, Mrs. Frank B. Hines, Mrs. Austin F. Shure and Mrs. Thomas Massey.
