TWO FINE OAK TREES

The argument between friends and parishioners of Old Saint Paul's of Kent, near here, and Wye Church near Easton, two prominent Protestant Episcopal parishes, as to the relative size of two famous oaks standing in the churchyards has been finally and definitely settled by Karl E. Pfeiffer, assistant State forester, who has had accurate measurements taken of both trees recently in order to ascertain whether the claim of vestryman of Saint Paul's that their oak is the larger are sound. The Baltimore forestry expert said today that e Wye oak is the larger of the two as. The circumference of the Paul's oak, five-and-a-half feet d, is 20 feet, two ead is 124 feet and feet. The circumfer- Wye oak is 20 feet, 11 ame height; the spread nd the height, 95 feet. s are well known to tree foresters throughout the ates, the Wye oak having officials of the Arnold am to be the finest example e oak east of the Mississippi Both are hundreds of years and are believed to have been standing when Columbus sailed across the Atlantic. Both are show places for sightseers on the Eastern Shore. The controversy arose recently when a committee of vestrymen of Old Saint Paul's measured their oak anew and believed they had found it to be larger than the Wye oak.

INCREASED ENROLLMENT

Professor E. Clarke Fontaine, State supervisor of high schools for the Eastern Shore disclosed the fact that notwithstanding a decrease in the population of the nine Eastern Shore counties from 194,568 in 1920 to 193,623 in 1930, the total enrollment in the Shore high schools shows an increase of 164 per cent during the ten-year period.

According to figures submitted by Professor Fontaine the total enrollment in the high schools on the Shore in 1920 was 2750. In 1930 the total has reached 7000. A comparison made by the supervisor of these figures with the entire State school population shows that the nine Shore counties lead the State in the percentage which its total high school enrollment bears to the State total enrollment in both elementary and high schools.

Asked for his opinion as to the reason for the increase in the high school enrollment on the Shore during the past ten years, Professor Fontaine said that two causes have operated to bring about the increase, one of which is an increased interest and desire on the part of parents to give their children a high school education, and the other is that because of the general despression in business which has affected both industry and agriculture, many boys and girls of high school age have been deprived of employment and they have entered the high schools to seek the higher education which present day courses afford.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear baby who departed this life 7 years ago December 8th.

Nothing can take away
The love a heart holds dear
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps her near,
Time speeds on seven years have passed
Since death its gloom its shadows cast,
Within our home where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light.
We miss that light and ever will,
Her vacant place none can fill.
Down here we mourn but not in vain
For up in Heaven we hope to meet again.
Loving Mother, Father, Sisters and Brothers. 1t

PRAISES SHORE HIGHWAY WORK

Maryland counties are urged to profit by the road building example of Kent county, in a letter written by Howard Bruce, of the Maryland State Roads Commission, to Eastern Shore county officials. The State official asserts that his commission strongly endorses the program recently adopted in this county, where citizens issued their own bonds for approximately one million dollars and built in one year lateral roads that, under normal conditions, would require from 8 to 10 years to construct, the principal of these bonds to be retired from year to year by the gasoline tax and other State funds that normally are available to Maryland counties for such purposes. The sum of $900,000 has been spent on nine-foot concrete country roads and $100,000 on slag roads. The program has recently been completed.

The most important major undertaking of the State commission, it is stated, will be the construction of a 40-foot highway from Baltimore to Philadelphia either to the Pennsylvania or the Delaware line, and the current economic depression will have no effect on the program for new highways on the Eastern Shore where the density of motor traffic has passed the capacity of highways, thus increasing the need of widening these roads. In Queen Anne's county, he said, work will be started next spring on the projected Sudlersville-Kenton road into Delaware, the Starr-Wye Mills road and the Price-Bridgetown highway.

Though the million dollar program has been completed Gilbert B. Taylor, county roads engineer, is proceeding to improve existing slag roads throughout the county, which were built prior to the larger construction program, and remaining dirt roads are also coming in for attention during the winter months.

Some one has remarked that raising bees will help the farmer. He might try. He is accustomed to being stung by most everything he raises.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

S. Scott Beck, Assignee
vs.
Herman B. Massey, et al

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2582.

The object of the Petition filed in the above entitled case is for a construction of Item 5 of the Will of C. H. B. Massey, deceased.

The Petition states:

1. That an examination of the title to the property conveyed by the said mortgages and attempted to be sold by the said S. Scott Beck, Assignee, disclosed the fact that said property was devised to the said Herman B. Massey by the last Will and Testament of his late father, C. H. B. Massey, said Will being dated December 15, 1889, duly admitted to probate by the Orphan's' Court for Kent County and recorded in the Office of the Register of Wills for said County in Wills Liber T. R. S. No. 1, folio 109 etc., a certified copy of which Will is filed herewith and prayed to be taken as a part hereof and marked 'Petitioner's Exhibit No. 1," and the devise of said farm being in the following language:

"Item 5. I give and devise to my son Herman B. Massey and his heirs, not to be sold or mortgaged, the Gondomah farm, and the woods to the left of the woods road, leading from the said farm to the public road that runs from Massey to Galena, and to the right of the last mentioned road going in the direction of Galena."

2. Your Petition shows that exceptions were heretofore filed by the said Herman B. Massey and Maria F. Massey his wife, to the said sale, made as aforesaid, but which exceptions have been practically abandoned by Counsel for the Exceptions although no Order of Court has actually been passed thereon.

3. That in the consideration of the exceptions filed by the said Herman B Massey and Maria F. Massey, his wife the real question raised by the provisions of the said last Will and Testament of the said C. H. B. Massey, namely: whether the devise thereunder was an absolute, unconditional one or whether said devise was in reality one for life only, could not, in that particular proceeding, be properly passed upon by the Court for the reason that the said Exceptants were estopped from denying the title to the property by the mortgages conveyed.

4. Your Petitioner avers that the said Herman B. Massey and Maria F Massey, his wife, have one child, namely: A. Herman Massey, who is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and who now resides in the State of California, and in order to properly determine in this proceeding the nature of the devise under the said last Will and Testament of the said C. H. B. Massey, it will be necessary to make the said A. Herman Massey a party to this proceeding and notify him of the nature of the same by Order of Publication.

5. Your Petitioner alleges that he is perfectly willing to comply with the terms of sale for said property and pay the purchase money therfor provided he is assured that he will receive a fee simple title to the property, otherwise, he objects to the ratification of the sale.

It is thereupon, this 21st day of November 1930, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Petitioner, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 24th day of December next, give notice to said A. Herman Massey, non-resident warning him
