CHARTER COMMITTEE IS MAKING PROGRESS

The charter commission, appointed at a public meeting to suggest changes in the charter of Chestertown, have held several meetings.

The commission organized by electing Charles N. Satterfield, former Mayor, as chairman, and Wilbur R. Hubbard, secretary. Other members of the commission are: R. Hynson Rogers, Marion deK. Smith and A. Sydney Turner, Jr. Mr. Satterfield had agreed tentatively to recommend the adoption of a municipal form of government, which will provide for a Mayor and City Council of four members. There also will be submitted a provision defining the qualifications of voters in city elections, and the division of the town into four wards, each having a representative in the City Council.

There were 21 birth in Kent county in October, and not a single still berth occurred, Carroll, with 24 births, was the only other county to have a similar record.

Six infants under one year of age died in Kent during October. Three were white and three were colored. Not a single case of maternal mortality was reported in Kent and only five occurred in the State.

Kent was the fourth lowest county in the State in reported cases of notifiable diseases with a total of fourteen. Howard with 9, Garrett, with 10, and Calvert with 12 were the only counties to report fewer cases than Kent.

A WORTHY HOME

The Eastern Shore is fortunate enough to be able to boast of a Children's Home, located in Easton, started some years back by Bishop Lay and Miss Earle. In those days 'twas easy to care for the few children, now forty children are being fed clothed and educated, which is quite a problem. Bishop Davenport says to hold the $3,500 State appropriation, the consciences of the people must be aroused. This Home when vacancies occur is open to other denominations.

Kent county has for five years supplied wheat and meal, but is now lagging behind in its contributions. To show the needs of forty children, you will only read the following table: Milk, 3,700 gallons; flour, 20 barrels; corn meal, 500 pounds; cereals, 28 cases; rice and beans, 200 pounds; raisins, 150 pounds; cocoa, 60 pounds; sugar, 900 pounds; butter, 500 pounds; lard, 200 pounds; eggs, 200 dozen; hominy, 100 pounds; fruit and vegetables, 4,500 quarts; bacon, ham, chickens, meats; potatoes, 120 bushels; money donations acceptable.

Mrs. S. E. Brooks, chairman of wheat committee.

The Queen Anne's Board of County Commissioners met and organized for the next four years by electing James T. Knotts, president of the board. Former State Senator J. H. C. Legg, of Centreville, was renamed counsel to the board, and Thomas E. Walls, of Church Hill, was renamed clerk to the board.
