FIRES BREAK OUT DURING THE WEEK

The Volunteer Fire Company of Chestertown, has been kept on the jump recently, but the boys have been equal to every call and keep up their fine record.

Sunday evening about 7 o'clock the tenant house next to the Chestertown ice plant took fire and made considerable headway, but the fire boys soon had it under control. The house is occupied by two families. Frank Kennard and family is in one side and the railroad watchman has the south side. The fire started under the stairway occupied by the watchman. He had not been in the house for several days so that the origin is a mystery. The loss, about $500, is covered by insurance. The property is owned by Robt. G. Nicholson.

The second fire occurred at 10 A. M. Monday in a seven-room house and occupied by Milton Crew and family, about a mile from McGinniss' Corner in Queen Anne's. No one was home. There was $500 insurance only. The owners lost all the furniture and clothing. The house was too far gone to enable the company to render help.

At noon Monday the company were called upon to extinguish a blaze that was destroying the high board fence about the college athletic field.

Woods fires are burning near Ewingtown in Queen Anne's and in the Lusby woods near Chestertown.

MASS MEETING OCTOBER 21

Kent county Democrats will formally open the campaign in Chestertown Tuesday evening, October 21st. when Governor Albert C. Ritchie, and his running mates on the State ticket besides several other well known orators will be here to discuss the issues.

Announcement has been made of the governor's itinerary on the Eastern Shore. He will come to Chestertown directly from the Western Shore and after the meeting in Centreville Tuesday afternoon, will come to Chestertown for an evening meeting. Reports from various sections of Kent county indicate that the outlook for Democratic success is particularly bright, with all signs pointing ta a normal Democratic majority.

Any dissatisfaction which might have seemed possible during the primary campaign has completely disappeared and all factions of the party are manifesting enthusiastic interest in the outcome of the November election.

Kent countians who have moved from one precinct to another or one district to another, or who have just arrived at the age of 21, had their first opportunity to register or enroll on the registration books last week. The second opportunity will be on Tuesday(October 14. This will be the last opportunity before the general election in November.

The Rock Hall Cannery is still canning tomatoes. It is one of the few canneries on the Shore that are buying tomatoes. It is a great help to the tomato growers of lower Kent as all tomatoes sold now are just that much profit.

KENT COUNTIANS IN SPORTING RING

Before a large crowd of Delmarva Peninsula fans, the Wilmington Chicks, title-holders of the Susquehanna League, came through on the long end of a 2 to 0 score in the tightest baseball game played in the 14 county area this season against an aggregation of all stars from the Chesapeake Bay League and the Eastern Shore League. The game was played Saturday at Cecilton.

Though Manlove pitched superb ball, superior infield work saved the day for Wilmington in the first and ninth when the All-Stars staged a batting rally and Krastle and Rawley were thrown out at home in a series of fast plays.

In the third inning Smith walked and Shelladay sacrificed as Smith advanced to second on the play while Litchenstein singled through Carey and Messiner walked. Slaughter lifted a high fly which was taken by Hurlock, who threw Litchenstein out at second after Smith had scored.

In the eighth Burke was safe on Loller's error on a grounder to short. Reitz walked and Burke scored on Manlove's single to left field. Messiner, Litchenstein and Slaughter staged four thrilling double plays during the setto.

All-Stars line up—Krastle, lf. Oliffe, lf., Loller, ss., Johnsson, 3b. Willis, 2b., Fitzgerald, 1b., Hurlock, cf., Brostow, rf., Peacock, rf., Grant. c., Carey, p., Archibald, p., Brower,cf.

ALL-MARINES DEFEAT
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The All-Marine gridders swamped Washington College, of Chestertown Md., in the Municipal Stadium, Philadelphia, Saturday night before a fair-sized crowd, 28 to 0.

McCaffrey, O'Neill, Poppleman and O'Donnell tallied scores, while Bauer added two points on placement boots. The Marines picked up two points on a safety when Reinhold, Washington halfback, was thrown behind his goal line. It was Washington's first experience in playing at night and they report satisfaction. This was a hard game for Washington and they showed up well.

CHESTERTOWN BOOTERS
DEFEATS CENTREVILLE

Chestertown High School won its second soccer tilt of the season Friday when Centreville High was blanked by a 8 to 0 score as the visiting forwards ran roughshod over the local defense, scoring three field goals in the first half against the Centreville second-string players.

The first team went in as the second period opened and held Chestertown to a lone tally.

Chestertown's team was as follows: Brice, c; Nicholson, ch; Wallace, rh; Johns, lh; Williams, rf; Hopkins, lf; Harris, rw; Reinhart, lw; Chaires, rf; Briscoe, lf; Brooks, g.

CHESTERTOWN GIRLS WINS

The Chestertown High School field-ball girls made good their claims to Eastern Shore championship asspirations when they defeated Centreville in the first game of the season, 8 to 4, holding the home team in check throughout the second half and throwing two field goals after a series of fine offensive plays as the game neared its close.

Chestertown lineup:—Dwyer, c.; B. Anthony, rl; Harris, rw; D. Brown, li; Ford, lw; Grainger, rh; Leaverton, lh; Malin, ch; Jewell, rf; M.E.Brown, lf; Gordon, g.

The field ball team of the Chestertown High School was defeated Tuesday by the Cecilton girls, at Cecilton.

In a benefit game for the Galena High School the peninsula baseball champions, Kennedyville, will oppose Galena on Saturday. Kennedyville won the championship of the Chesapeake Bay League by taking the second half pennant and beating Galena, winners of the first half, in the play-off.

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS

At the monthly meeting of the directors of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce plans for forming a Christmas chest for the benefit of needy families in the county whose financial condition, due to the drought may prevent them from having a Christmas celebration this year were discussed. This suggestion was favorably acted upon and a committee will arrange the full details of the plan which will be announced later. It is believed that there may be early need in sections of the county for such aid as this among unfortunate tenant farmers. Efforts will be made to secure the names of needy families in every section of the county.

PIG CLUB ENTRY WINS

Jesse Hurd wears a smile. His entry in the 150 day — 1500 Pound Litter Contest, sponsored by the Maryland Stockmen's Association, is the only Kent County entry to meet the requirements. Several other entrants, when drought reduced forage and feed crops, ceased their efforts to make a litter of pigs weigh 1500 pounds at an age of 150 days.

Mr. Schludersburg, of the "S-K" Company, Baltimore Packers, offers generous prizes to winners in this contest. There is a $100 State prize, a $75 second State prize and a $25 prize for the winning litter in each county.

Young Hurd wins the $25 as well the the satisfaction of achieving a goal. 4-H Club Boys and Girls thruout the United States are setting a fast pace in livestock production. Undoubtedly the leading stockmen of tomorrow are in club ranks today. Over three-fourths of a million 4-H members form a real rural army making real advances in agricultural achievement as well as along the social side represented by the Four H's of their emblem, indicating training of head, heart, health and hand.

The litter of ten pigs, Poland Chinas, when weighed by the County Agent on the 150 day after their birth weighed 1535 pounds, a margin of 35 pounds. The boy did well but of course stands no chance of winning the State prize. The records of feed consumption reveal that Jesse made a nice profit on his effort. The $25 is clear "gravy" also.

BUILDING OPERATIONS ARE GOOD

Chestertown's mechanics are delighted with the continued demand for help while laborers are finiding plenty of work. The building of Chester River Bridge has been a big help to Chestertown in that scores of men are employed there many of whom reside here. The contractors have lost but one whole day and two half days since work began because of bad weather.

—o—o—

Ralph Barnett has contracted with Albert Rawleigh for a bungalow to be erected on his Mt. Vernon Avenue lot between W. R. Huey's and H. W. Fallowfield's. Work has already been commenced.

—o—o—

A. M. Culp is also building a residence on Mt. Vernon Avenue near Philip Sewell's home.

—o—o—

Work on Barber Bartley's elegant home is progressing on Campus Avenue extended.

—o—o—

Robert Moffett, Jr., is enlarging the store-room on High street occupied by Crooks' Stores, the builder beng L. A. Pennington & Co.

—o—o—

L. A. Pennington & Co. say they are in the market for thirty good carpenters having a house to build on Dr. Haines' farm near Fairlee, besides other work.

—o—o—

Col. H. Staunton Brown, Duke Brown with architect and others visited their property on Chester river Saturday. They mapped out extensive building operations and engaged George G. Pennington to supervise work. Col. Brown also engaged Raymond Jones, of Fairlee, to manage the cultivation of crops. A C. Loud and sister will continue to occupy the farm but their work will be less onerous.

—o—o—

Dr. G. H. Dana, a dentist, has purchased the Curtis Goodwin lot on Washington Boulevard adjoining the home of Edward Furbush, upon which he will shortly begin the erection of a modern home, to cost $10,000.

The Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown is showing fine talking movies now.

ROBBERS IN KENT FAIL TO OPEN SAFE

Sheriff J. Thomas Hadaway and several deputies are looking for a thief or a gang of thieves who early Sunday morning broke into Crooks' chain store in Rock Hall and Crooks' store here. Though no attempt was made to enter the safe at the Rock Hall store, containing a small amount of money, an attempt was made to open the safe here, containing sevearl hundred dollars in cash.

According to Manager Robert Moffett, of the local store, who discovered the robbery Sunday morning, the combination of the safe had been broken and one hole drilled into the safe. Two chisels, a large and a small one, were found by Manager Moffett one sticking in the hole though the attempt to gain entrance was unsuccessful while the larger one was in a tomato basket near the safe. It is believed the thieves were frightened while at work and left the store hurriedly without taking time to take all their tools.

Entrance to the local store had been gained by breaking a rear window. Though the manager and his wife live in apartments over the store they said they heard nothing. The robbery was discovered when Mr. Moffett went into the store Sunday morning to take a look around. He closed the store after midnight Saturday night when the day's business was over and the money was placed in the safe. A window had also been broken at the Rock Hall store, though it is not known which robbery occurred first.

Fingerprint experts from the Baltimore Detective Bureau were brought here in an effort to identify the thieves from markings on the safe at the local store and on the handles of the chisels.

The detectives think the party who broke in Crooks' stores in Baltimore and Aberdeen is the one who visited Kent. A good clue is being followed and guilty party will soon be in the law's clutches.

A clue has been furnished by Manager Willett, of the Chestertown store, which authorities think may lead to the ultimate discovery of the thieves. A white man, a stranger in town, entered the local store Saturday [illegible] that he was a visi[illegible]atory. He wa[illegible] and passed [illegible] later to be the obje[illegible] bers. It is thought that [illegible] might have been looking over the ground for the later attempt. His picture, it is said, has been found in the Rogue's Gallery and efforts will be made to capture him. The officers claim there are two brothers implicated.

FARM OWNER FALLS DEAD

The NEWS noted last week the finding of a still on the Dewberry farm near Chestertown and Catlin's Corner.

Tragedy stalked in the wake of the spectacular raid when two men were arrested and a quantity of illicit liquor and mash destroyed.

Becoming highly excited over the discovery of a still on his farm, C. J. Dale, Philadelphia police officer, dropped dead from heart trouble after returning home after the raid.

Mr. Dale was greatly excited over the circumstances and upon reaching home continued in a highly nervous condition. Shortly afterward he dropped dead and physicians pronounced his death due to a sudden attack of heart trouble, induced by the excitement.

Capt. Wm. H. Cooper and Kibler Bros. have been buying tomatoes this week, the price being from 11 to 24 cents according to quality. Buyers at the Chestertown wharves have paid over $50,000 to growers for tomatoes this season.

At Rock Hall the season is nearing its close. The Co-operative Company has continued on certain days this week. They have taken over the contracts of Edgar Culley who has quit and begun oyster packing.

Elsewhere in the KENT NEWS today Morgan Bennett, of Chestertown, is advertising for 2000 baskets of tomatoes.

The colored section of Chestertown was deeply stirred Sunday when Earle Green beat up his woman and Wallace Cann cut his wife seriously Green was arrested, tried and sent to House of Correction for three months. Wallace Cann has not been apprehended.

106 days of drought is the record up to yesterday.
