STOLLENWERCK-DUPONT NUPTIALS

Mrs. Carolene H. Stollenwerck, of Scarsdale, N. Y., formerly of Chestertown, and Lammot duPont, of Wilmington, president of the duPont Company, were married last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rodgers Wilson, 1301 Franklin street, Wilmington, formerly Mrs. Richard D Hynson, of Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F T. Ashton, of Christ Church, Christiana Hundred. Only the immediate members of the families were present.

The bride unattended was given away by her uncle, Reynolds Wilson She wore a dress of pale blue and carried violet colored orchids.

Mr. duPont's son, Lammot duPont, Jr., acted as his father's best man.

After a shortwedding trip, the couple will return to the duPont home, St. Amour, on Kennett Pike, near Wilmington.

The bride will be remembered in Chestertown as Carolene Hynson, who was the very attractive and popular daughter of the late Richard D. Hynson and the present Mrs. Rodgers Wilson.

Announcement has been made by the Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Thomas Read, of Easton, Md., of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Catherine Elizabeth Read, and W. Scott Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Warren Hall, of Dover. The date has not been set for the wedding. Mr. Hall is a member of the faculty of Western Maryland College at Westminster, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan H. Hutchins, of Kenton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lillian Catherine, to John Christopher Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wallace, of Sudlersville, Md.

The wedding took place last Saturday at Church Hill, Md. Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple left for a wedding trip North and will visit Canada and Niagara Falls. Upon their return they plan to live in Dover.

The bride has been associated with the United States Corporation Company at Dover for the past three years.

Mr. Wallace is engaged in business in Sudlersville, Md.

J. Irving Walsh, aged 43, twice president of the Real Estate Board of New York, and Miss Margaret Quimby, Hollywood screen actress, were married at Betterton, Md., last Wednesday, it has been revealed this week, after having obtained a license from Deputy Clerk Thomas Dixon here. The couple returned to New York and have since announced their marriage.

Miss Quimby is twenty-three and has had roles in "Ladies Love Brutes," "The Teaser," "Sally of the Scandals" and other pictures.

Miss Addie M. Everett, of Chestertown, and John Hubbard of Rock Hall, were marired in Elkton at noon Saturday by the Rev. Edward Minor, Baptist minister. The ceremony was very quiet the bride having recently lost a brother by drowning.

The bride wore white bat crepe with all accessories of white, A wedding dinner was served at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Everett, in Chestertown. They with Dr. and Mrs. George Pennington and two children, Miss Gladys Everett and Jack Reed, all of Chestertown were guest Sunday of the bridal couple who will be tendered a reception Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Pennigton, the latter the bride's sister.

Miss Blanche M. Coleman, second daughter of Mrs. Marcellus Coleman and the late Mr. Coleman, and James Milton Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Glenn, of Piney Neck were married at 8 o'clock Friday evening, Sept. 5, at Wesley Chapel parsonage by the Rev. J. W. Baxley.

Demure in blue gorgette with harmonizing accessories the bride was unattended and the wedding very quiet because of the recent death of her father. After the ceremony the happy couple stepped from the door of the parsonage and found themselves surrounded by friends who received them with good wishes and congratulations and started them off in a car that they had attached noise makers to. For a short time the young couple will reside at the home of the bride's mother near Rock Hall.

Jas. H. Mallon Killed In Kent

At 4.30 A. M. yesterday morning Dr. H. P. Copeland, of Chestertown, was awakened by two men bringing a wounded man for treatment. Upon examination the doctor saw that it was a serious case and at once he sent for the ambulance and Carle Lecates, who was the chauffeur, says the man died before reaching Easton.

As far as we can learn there were three young men, Joseph H. Mallon of Chestnut Hill, Pa., Daniel M. Clark and a Mr. Hayden, of Philadelphia, who were visiting at Dr. Clark's at Kentmore Manor, near Locust Grove. Daniel M. Clark, a son of Dr. Clark, was a pal of the injured man and accompanied him to the hospital. He says he found his friend lying in a path along the foot of a windmill. The wound in his head and side looked as if he had been hit by an automobile. No clear report had been given at this writing. Coroner H. L. Dodd and Sheriff Hadaway are at work on the case and will get at all the facts.

The dead man is about 25 years of age.

The injured man was brought to Chestertown in an auto owned by a neighbor to Dr. Clark, who was awakened and asked to render service.

A get-together dinner will be held at Rigbie Hotel, Betterton, Sunday at 5.30 P. M., gy American Legion Posts of Chestertown, Centreville and Elkton.

The firm of Jones and Satterfield are still giving the farmers a big thing by offering the McCormick-Deering "Farmall" at a reduction of $50.

Thieves entered the chicken house of Mrs. Charles Cahall, near Centreville, Saturday night and carried away twenty-seven young turkeys.

Miss Hope Meeks and John Bedwell, were married in Baltimore on Saturday afternoon by Rev. E. H. Jones. Immediately following the ceremony they left for a short wedding trip to Atlantic City, N. J. The bride is the attractiv daughter of Mrs. Thomas L. Meeks, of Chestertown, and for a number of years has been one of Kett's most popular teachers. The groom is the son of Mrs. John Bedwell, of near Chesterville. He is well known in Chestertown being associated with the Russell Motors Corporation. The couple will reside in their newly completed home on Mount Vernon avenue.

Second Series Game at Kennedyville

The second game of the three-game series that will decide the championship of the Chesapeake Bay League will be played at Kennedyville Saturday afternoon with the home club on top after having defeated Galena handily in the initial tilt. Having let their opponents down to an eight to one score on the enemy's own diamond it is believed by Manager Lynn Archibald and his board of strategy that Kennedyville will be hard to beat on its own ground, especially in view of the fact that a win this week will clinch the pennant.

Kennedyville Takes Opener

The veteran Bill Loller came thru the first tilt of a three-game series between Galena and Kennedyville to settle the championship of the Chesapeake Bay League by nearly shutting out the host club, which was let down, 8 to 1, after the visiting hurler had fanned five opposing batsmen and allowed an equal number of hits on Saturday at Galena.

It was not all a pitcher's victory, however, since the flinging of Coleman for Galena was not supported in the field, as the home team chalked up errors at crucial moments. The lapses, coupled with timely hitting by Kennedyville, added to Galena's downfall.

The visitors' fielding, on the other hand, stood out as a feature. In the third inning a fast double play was made when, with Hadley safe on an outfield hit, Clendaniel lined one to Smith at short, who made the play to Williams at second. Tobin at first took the ball for the second out.

In the sixth N. Coleman singled to right and when J. Johnson sent a hot liner to Williams the second baseman had only to throw the ball to first for the second double play of the day.

The visiting flurry of tallies came in the fourth frame when Hurlock was safe on an error by J. Johnson at second. Williams advanced him on an infield hit and Tobin laid down a bunt to first base as the initial sack remained uncovered. Oliffe singled to left field. Before Smith fanned for the third out. Coleman, Williams and Hurlock had crossed the plate.

Galena's lone run was made in the same inning when Woodall walked Johnson singled to center field as Woodall went to third and scored when F. Coleman drove a hard one between first and second. Line-up:

Kennedyville — Grant, c; Archibald, 3b; Hurlock, cf; Williams, 2b; Loller, p; Tobin, 1b; H. Crew, lf; J. Crew, lf; Oliffe, rf; Smith, ss.

Galena—N. Coleman, 3b; J. Johnson, 2b; R. Woodall, lf; W. Johnson ss; F. Coleman, rf; Peacock, c; E. Coleman, p; Hadley, cf; Clendaniel 1b; 1 Lockwood; 2 Groff.

St. James Winner

The St. James Independent Club trounced the Carmichael Club 8 to 3, after R. Wheat, flinging for the local team, had fanned 14 opposing batters.

His brother, Sam Wheat, poled a home run in the first inning, scoring Crew and Cornell.

Jim Dodd, the Eastern Shore pugilist, was on the mound for the visitors, but was unable to stem the swatting tide.

ROAD CONTRACTS AWARED

Contracts amounting to $60,363.20 and calling for construction work on two bridges and two sections of highway in three counties were awarded by the State Roads Commission on Thursday.

A contract for electrical work on the new Chester river bridge, between Kent and Jueen Anne's counties, was awarded to the Electro-Mechanical Company, of Baltimore, for $7,747.

The Old Line Construction Company, of Chestertown, received a contract for the construction of 2.14 miles of concrete roadway, from Morgnec toward Chesterville, in Kent county. The amount was $26,436.35.

City Engineer Francis Dryden, of Salisbury, is supervising the sinking of a well near the Chestertown Water Works in order to provide the community with an additional water supply. The water reached such a low level during the drought that the civic water board and the fire department considered another well needed A depth of 75 feet has been reached and it has not yet been decided whether or not to proceed further At a depth of 12 feet, tree stumps long decayed, and vegetation were unearthed and at 70 feet seashells were brought to the surface.

The Volunteer Fire Company Band won first prize in the parade at Hartley, Del., Wednesday night. There were five bands in line.

WOMAN IN QUEEN ANNE'S

The organization ticket swept Queen Anne's county with an overwhelming majority in all contests with the Democratic primary elections held Monday.

State Senator Dudley G. Roe won his fight for renomination receiving 2,534 votes to defeat his opponent, C. S. Thomas, who polled 1,603.

Mrs. Anna Skinner, successful candidate for the nomination for Treasurer, polled a total of 2,856 votes, the highest received by any candidate Her opponent, A. S. Gadd, received only 964 votes.

H. P. Breeding and Fred Sylvester, organization candidates, defeated Joseph W. Evans and W. C. Smith to win the nominations for the House of Delegates.

Dr. Norman S. Dudley was the successful candidate for the Register of Wills nomination, polling 2,530 votes to 1,446 for his opponent, Harry C. Flowers, D. Hackett Turner, with 2,370 votes, won the nomination for Clerk of the Court over J. W. Keith, with 1,539.

In the four cornered fight for the nomination for Sheriff, J. Elmer Anthony was high with 1,638 votes. The other candidates were W. B. Yates, 1,151; George W. Legg, 447, and D. H. Everett, 514.

Charles S. Quimby, James T. Knotts and Harry T. Hopkins won the nomination for County Commissiners. The unsuccessful candidates were N. G. Coppage, C. W. Filliken and Richard Davidson.

Bowen, Cann and Gibson won the nominations for the Orphans' Court over Boyle, Knotts and Spry.

Singing Contest Sunday, Sept. 14

Galena, Cambridge, St. Michaels, Denton, Federalsburg, Chestertown, Rising Sun, Greensboro and Easton are the towns represented in the local audition contest of the Atwater Kent Foundation to be held in the New Theatre at Easton on Sunday September 14 at 3.00 P. M. The contestants are spending a great deal of time in preparing themselves to sing creditably, for most of them have had little or no training. Senator W. Earle Withgott will have charge of the audition. The judges have been selected from outside of Talbot county.

It will be necessary to ask a silver offering to cover the expense of the audition, and also the expenses of the winning contestats to the State audition to be held in Baltimore in October. The remainder of the offering will be presented to the Children's Home, to promote a musical interest among the children.

A special feature of the afternoon will be the organ recital by Florence C. Hahn, who has made her home in Easton for the past few months. Mrs. Hahn has studied piano with Edwin Shonert, concert pianist, and Signor Gorno of the Cinciatti College of Music; also pipe organ with Lillian Arkell Rixford, Cincinnati College of Music; Charles E. Clemens, of Cleveland, and Albert Riemenschneider, of Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, O. Her last organ position was with the Olivet Baptist Church of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Hahn will give a fifteen minute recital previous to the audition, with an offeratory and postlude Her program as follows:

Jubilate Deo ..... Silver
By the Waters of Minnetonka ..... Lieurance
Intermezzo ..... Collarets
Finale from Fourth Sonata in D Minor ..... Guilmant
Offeratory, Cantilene ..... Drdla
Postlude, Pomp and Circumstance ..... Elgar

KENT RECEIVES THE DECREASED FREIGHT RATES

Kent county has been listed, by Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, among the counties entitled to reduced freight rates on feed stuffs shipped into this county for use by farmer-stockman as a means of drought relief.

The County Agent has been designated to issue certificates which must be filled with local freight agent, who issues a permit for the shipment.

Chestertown has two beautiful miniature golf courses. One is located adjoining Thompson's garage on High street and opened Saturday. The receipts on Sunday was about $200. The new one is in the Voshell House yard and is a beauty. It will open tonight.

The Downie circus will arrive here Thursday by auto and will show on John G. Usilton's lot foot of Mill S street.

PLANS FOR MEMORIAL

Committees from the Frank M. Jarman and Jeff Davis Posts of the American Legion of Chestertown and Centreville, respectively, met Tuesday night to discuss plans for the dedication of the new Chester river bridge as a memorial to the ex-soldiers of Kent and Queen Anne's counties. The permission of the State Roads Commission of Maryland for the use of the bridge as a memorial having been granted.

According to the plans of the two Legion posts tablets will be erected at each end of the bridge bearing some suitable inscription as a memorial to the ex-service men. Drawings of the proposed tablets will be submitted to the committees within the next few days.
