81st Birthday Is Celebrated

Friday, August 15, 1930, proved a most delightful day for the many friends and relatives of Mrs. Augusta Hessner, of Kennedyville, Md., when they met to celebrate her 81st birthday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Hurlock, on the banks of the Chester River at Kirby's Wharf, Queen Anne's county, Md.

Mrs. Hessner revealed by her beaming countenance and smiling face the pleasure accorded her by this gathering of old friends; who, in turn, were pleased to see her looking so well. After a season of pleasant greetings and conversation a bountiful dinner of all the delicacies of the season was served and greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. Hurlock then invited all who wished to go for a sail on the beautiful Chester River, a yacht being at his service for the occasion. At once the boat was crowded for the trip, while others enjoyed the bathing, although declaring the water quite cool. After all, the best reserved for the last, the Rev. J. M. Brown, of Kennedyville, and the Rev. Ivanhoe Willis held a short service of Praise and Thanksgiving for God's Blessings, which was most thoroughly enjoyed by Mrs. Hessner A duet by Rev. and Mrs. Brown was much appreciated. Mr. Brown read the Scripture Lesson and Mr. Willis led in prayer.

Mr. Willis made a few appropriate remarks expressing his gratitude and love to his aged foster mother and to his God for providing him this kind friend and councilor in his youth and giving her a large share of the credit for any success in his life. In conclusion the entire assembly sang the old familiar hymn "Blest Be the Tie."

After freely partaking of the bountiful refreshments provided, we left for our respective homes, as the sun was sinking in the West praying God if consistent with His purpose, we might all meet again on another such occasion.

The remembrances were both numerous and beautiful. The following were among those present:

Mrs. Augusta Hessner, Chas. Hessner, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hessner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hurlock, Miss Margaret Hurlock, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fowler, Miss Betty Augusta Fowler, Rev. and Mrs. J. McClain Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Webb, Mrs. Rachel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Archibald, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Urie, Miss Catherine Urie, Mrs. Elias Othoson, of Kennedyville.

Misses Kathryn L. Hessner,

Misses Carolyn J. Hessner, Kathryn L. Hessner, Mrs. Mary E. Hill, Mrs. Rose Miller, Miss Kathryn Miller, Miss Eleanor Canessa, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, Jack Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Romantini, Mrs. Blanche Bean, Mrs. Lillie Courtwrigt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Romenter, Miss Margaret Dowd, Miss Anna Frank, Frank Krusen, John Hessner, John Massatenta, Mrs. Laura Clark, Jack Clark, Miss Betty Clark, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Baker, Miss Kathryn Baker, Francis Baker, of Chestertown.

Mrs. Mollie Miller, Worton.

Capt. and Mrs. Walter T. Hadley, of Galena.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Thornton, of Middletown, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roeder, of Baltimore.

Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, of Wilmington, Del.

Miss Annie Clayton, Cardington, of Pennsylvania.

Walter Knox, Mrs. Bertha Knox, of Darby, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ernest Griffith are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter Saturday evening. Mrs. G. is remembered here as Miss Mary Covey. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Emmanuel P. E. Church

Rev. Charles L. Atwater, Rector.
Sunday, August 24th:
8.00 A. M. Holy Communion.
9.45 A. M. Church School.
11.00 A. M. morning service, with sermon by the rector.
7.30 P. M. special service conducted by members of the Church Army with address by Captain Turner.

Special attention is called to the evening service noted above by members of the Church Army, an organigation of laymen who enlist for four years to conduct services, do evangelization work, and assist the clergy or act in their absence. Four of them have been having services every day at I. U., this week and Sunday night two, led by Captain Turner, will take charge of the evening service in Emmanuel Church. It is difficult to describe them or their work. To get any adequate idea of the refreshing youthfulness and spirituality of their message they must be heard and seen. The public is, of course, cordially invited to this, as to all, services.

A report from Talbot county reads thus: "Sweet corn pack is a complete failure here. Several plants decide to shut down as quantity and grade of corn are unfit to pack. Entails heavy loss to grower and packer. One canner sends corn back, as it is hardly worth being used for hog feed."

Kent county growers about Kennedyville have about 1,000 acres in sugar corn. The outlook here is for a half crop, but in Quaker Neck, Broad Neck and about Rock Hall the loss on the corn crop will be from 60 to 75 per cent.

Tolchester Is Scene of Disorder

Twenty-eight young men and eight young women from Wilmington were arrested for disorderly conduct at Tolchester at an early hour last Saturday morning and were brought to Chestertown by Deputy Sheriff Robt. E. Lee and special policemen from the resort.

They were lodged in jail and were given a hearing before Magistrate Olin B. Stafford, who imposed a fine and costs totaling $600 upon the offenders.

The young people were brought here about 1 o'clock in the morning in a large truck.

At Tolchester they are said to have become so boisterous that Manager Frank Wheatley was awakened and assembling his officers he threatened to place the crowd under arrest unless they desisted from their rowdyism.

Sheriff Hadaway was notified and Deputy Lee was dispatched to the resort with warrents for the arrest of the crowd. Since being remanded to jail because of lack of funds to pay their fines the offenders have been released upon payment, but while in jail they filled every available space in the jail, awaiting assistance from home folk to pay their fines or remain in jail here.

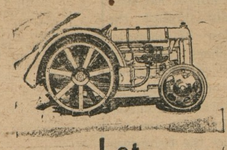

Those arrested gave their names as follows: Stanley Merrill, Thomas Karr, William Castaldi, FrancesHancock, Dorothy McBride, Margaret Davis, Steve Kane, John Kane, Mittie Baker, William Mlynarshi, Ernest Williams, Pete Flowers, Andy Plum, Edward Wessell, Joseph Smith, John Duzak, Thomas Watkins and John Barosky, all of whom paid their fines and were released Monday morning. Anthony Gollen, Robert Jordan, Walter Bell, Ethel Elliott, Steve Malosky, Esther Cooper, S. W. Perovisch, Gene Cooper, Joseph Miller Adam Pierce, Beatrice Marx, John Brown, Andy Smith, Helen Garnsky, John Rosiak, Charles Burns and John Taylor paid their fine and were released Monday afternoon.

Kennedyville Drops Game To Easton

A large crowd at Federal Park on Sunday afternoon saw Easton defeat Kennedyville, 4 to 2.

Hummer pitched gilt-edged ball and was backed by perfect fielding. In the first inning Sparks started to pitch for the visitors and suffered a stroke of acute indigestion and was taken to the Emergency Hospital. Archibald took his place and pitched a good game. Wheatledon, Cohen and Wood hit home runs over the left field fence. For Kennedyville, Walls got a three and two base hit.

Fred W. Ford has returned to his home in Detroit after a three weeks visit with his sister, Mrs. Harry Baker and brother, Charles B. Ford.
