DEMOCRATIC MEETING NEAR GALENA TUESDAY

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cruickshank, near Galena, was the scene of a very fine Democratic meeting Tuesday night last. The attendance was good and the talks very interesting and to the point. Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., presided and the speakers were Senator S. Scott Beck, State's Attorney Stephen R. Collins, Esq., Wilbur R. Hubbard, Esq., H. Stockton Startt, Dr. E. A. Scott, H. C. Willis, R. E. Lee and others.

CANDIDATES MUST FILE

All candidates for office in the November election must file certificates of candidacy before the date of the primary, September 8, Thomas H. Robinson, Attorney-General, pointed out Thursday.

Failure of either party to file a candidate for an office before the primary would amount to the election of the candidate of the opposing party, if duly filed, he added.

In instances where there is a contest in the primary, August 18 is the final date for filing, the ruling applying merely to party nomination for which there are no contests.

Mr. Robinson, in a letter to William C. Walsh, Cumberlandd, explained that the former practice of having vacancies on the party tickets filled by party machinery after the primary contests and twenty days before general election must be discontinued under an act of the 1927 Legislature.

HARMONY CANDIDATES

The NEWS last week referred to the State and County Democratic Harmony ticket as published weekly. It seems as if there is no opposition to any candidates excepting the County Commissioners, Sheriff and Treasurer. These are three very important offices.

Under the present system of government in effect throughout the counties of Maryland the very foundation of our administrative and executive structure, in matters of county management, is laid in the office of the County Commissioners and County Treasurer.

It is in these two offices that the CHIEF business of the people lies centered.

It is here that taxes are levied, collected and disbursed. It is here that our schools are financed, our highways built and maintained and every phase of administrative or executive management functions.

This condition is, therefore, properly responsible for the keen interest wisely manifested by citizens and taxpayers in the selection of Commissioners and a Treasurer as each recurring election rolls around.

And it is because of this interest and because of the tremendously important necessity of selecting qualified, well experienced, capable officials that the Democratic Harmony Ticket is able to point with particular pride to the candidates for these posts.

These candidates are LEONARD WILSON, of Millington, SAMUEL G. LOLLER, of Worton, and CHAS. D. WOOD, of Rock Hall. All three have benefited in experience and ability by their contact with county affairs. They stand admirably equipped by training and practical knowledge to discourage the duties of the office fearlessly, economically and to the best interest of the taxpayers. Give them your support.

The treasurer's office, as all those familiar with county government full realize, is very closely linked with the Levy Court. H. STOCKTON STARTT is well equipped to fill this office. He will be loyal and unswervingly faithful to the discharge of his duties and constantly mindful of the best interests of the taxpayers.

ROBERT E. LEE, the man named as candidate for Sheriff on the Democratic Harmony Ticket, is one who will appeal to a large class ofvoters. He is young in years, strong in physique, intelligent and brave. His habits are to be admired while his Democracy both personal and family are unquestioned. He has served as Deputy Sheriff, in which position he has proven worthy and as the custodian of the Sheriff's office the people would have in him a safe and efficient man. Like the noble General whose name he bears, ROBERT E. LEE, he is not a coward but will fight for the principles of truth and good citizenship and will carry out the law without fear or favor.

The Democratic State Convention will be held in Baltimore on September 18th, in the Maryland Theatre, at 12 o'clock noon (standard time.)
