Antiquarian Find

Laborers working in a garden in Devnia, a village on the Black sea coast, dug up two earthenware pots containing 620 pounds in Roman silver coin, all cast in the reign of Emperor Domitian (86-91 A. D.). Police seized the find for the state.

Ancient Theatrical Mask

Among curiosities unearthed in the course of excavations and restoration of the ancient basicilica of St. Sebastian in Rome was a theatrical mask worn by a Roman actor.

Big Trees Endangered

Tramping of sightseers and other people around the famous big tree grove of Mariposa county, California, damaged so many root endings that the soil around some trees has had to be loosened and additional soil layers added for protection.

Bites Merely Annoying

Almost all the larger snakes will bite. Their bites, with certain exceptions, however, are not so dangerous as mosquito bites.

Oddities of Etiquette

Etiquette in Scandinavia is a thing to be dreaded, especially in Sweden. Even the former should address a person by his full diplomatic, political, professional or commercial title. Thus one meets Mr. the Assistant to the Bank Manager Wirseen or Mr. the former Manufacturer of Blood Sausage Olson. Denmark is far less formal, both in speech and attire, but at the end of the dinner party the hostess will stand in the doorway and shake hands with every guest while he murmurs, "Thank you for the food," to which she answers, "I hope it will become you well."

Norway Beavers Increase

Beavers in Norway dwindled to about 100 specimens in the eighties, but since then protection has been given them and they have increased to 14,000.

Her Work Was Never Done

A. J. Dunlap

The old farm had an awful lot
For women-folks to do;
No matter how Ma managed things,
Her work was never through.
Three times each day the hungry ate;
Three times each day they dined.
And spoiled the labor of her hands,
And left a wreck behind.

A baby with a throbbing tooth,
Would always fuss and fret,
When springtime came with rugs to beat
And clucking hens to set;
And weekly wash-day rolled around,
And days of ironing, too,
And if she paused to rest at all,
She'd patch a shirt or two.

The bards too long have paused to place
The chaplet on the brow,
And sung the praises of the man
Behind the sturdy plow.
The time has come to recognize
The value and the charm
Of her who fed the hungry men
And chickens on the farm.

for Economical Transportation

Announcing a new production record

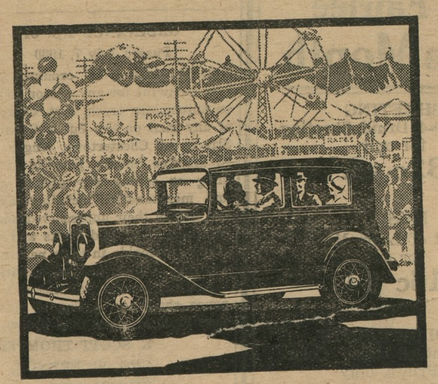

2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder valve-in-head engine—the greater comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And any model can be bought for a small down payment and easy monthly terms! Come in today. Learn for yourself why two million buyers have agreed—"it's wise to choose a Six."

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

vs.

Howard Price, Leonard Price, Sarah C. Hearn, Robert Townsend, Frank Townsend, Hazel Townsend Huggins.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2626.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled cause is to procree a Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent County, assuming jurisdiction of the Trust created under the Will of Elizabeth Theresa Clements, late of Kent County, Maryland, deceased, and also for the sale of the real estate mentioned in said Will.

The Bill states:

1. That the said Elizabeth Theresa Clements, late of Kent County, departed this life on or about the 22nd day of February, 1911, leaving a last Will and Testament which was duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of said County, certified copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 1."

2. That under said Will the said Hope H. Barroll was named the Executor therein with authority to pay the income arising from said Estate to Thomas S. Clements and Margaret Clements the husband and daughter of the said decedent during their lives, and upon the death of the said Margaret Clements leaving issue then the corpus to be paid to her issue absolutely. The Will further provided that in case of the death of the said Margaret Clements dying without issue the Estate to be divided into four equal parts, one-fourth for the benefit of John W. Silcox, brother of the deceased, and after his death, the said one-fourth part unto Howard Price and Leonard Price absolutely; two-fourth of said Estate given to Sarah C. Hearn, a sister of the said decedent and after her death the said two-fourths share unto the said Howard and Leonard Price absolutely; the remaining one-fourth part to be paid in equal shares unto the brother of the said decedent, James Townsend, and his children, Robert Townsend, Frank Townsend and Hazel Townsend Huggins, and in the event of the death of any one of them the share to go to the survivors.

3. That the said Thomas S. Clements, the husband of the decedent, is now living, being 87 years of age, and said Margaret Clements, daughter, is now living, being 51 years of age.

That the said John W. Wilcox departed this life on or about the 26th day of May, 1914.

That the said Sarah C. Hearn, adult, the sister, is now living and resides in Wilmington, Delaware.

That the said Howard Price, adult, is now living, and resides in Philadelphia, Pa., and the said Leonard Price, adult, is now living and resides in Denver, Colorado.

That the said James Townsend, brother of the deceased, departed this life on or about the——day of ——, and leaving surviving him a son, Robert Townsend, adult, who resides in Elsemere, Delaware, another son, Frank Townsend, adult, who resides in Wilmington, Delaware, a daughter, Hazel Townsend Huggins, adult, who resides in Roselle, Delaware.

4. That the said Hope H. Barroll, Executor named in the said Will was removed, or at any time the income arising from the decedent's Estate was insufficient for the support of her husband and daughter to sell any of the real estate, and out of the proceeds of sale to use any part or all of the corpus for their proper and necessary support; and the said Executor was further authorized and empowered in his discretion to sell any part or all of the real estate if for the benefit and advantage of the parties and reinvest the proceedings of the sale.

5. That the said Hope H. Barroll, Executor, departed this life on or about the — day of October, 1925.

6. That the said Herbert E. Perkins by order of the Orphans' Court passed the 3rd day of June, 1930, was appointed Administrator d. b. n. c. t. a. in the estate of the said decedent, as per certified copy hereto attached and marked "Complainants' Exhibit No. 2."

7. That the whole of the estate of the said decedent consists of a farm located near Chesterville in Second Election District of Kent County, Maryland, consisting of one hundred and fifty (150) acres of land more or less.

8. That the said Thomas S. Clements is old and infirm, and he and his daughter are in destitute circumstances, being unable themselves to work and are totally dependent for a living on their friends and relatives. That because of the run down condition of the said farm and the difficulty of renting same it provides no net income for their benefit, and not sufficient income to properly maintain and preserve the same. That there wasn't sufficient money to pay taxes and the farm was advertised by the Treasurer of Kent County for sale for taxes, and although not sold the said taxes still remain over due and unpaid.

9. That it would be to the best interest, benefit and advantage of all the parties concerned to have the said farm sold.

10. That the income arising from the farm is not sufficient for the support and living of the said Thomas S. Clements, husband, and Margaret Clements, daughter, and it would be to their interest and advantage to have the said farm sold and out of the proceeds of sale to use a part or all of same for their necessary support and maintenance, they being in destitute circumstances and without any means of getting the absolute necessities of life.

It is thereupon, this 23rd day of July, 1930, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 25th day of August next, give notice to the said Howard Price, Leonard Price, Sarah C. Hearn, Robert Townsend, Frank Townsend and Hazel Townsend Huggins, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 8th day of September next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
