CUTS BID $2300 ON KENT NARROWS SPAN

When bids were opened at the office of the State Roads Commission in Baltimore it was found that theMullan Contracting Company was again the lowest bidder for the construction of the proposed new bridge across Kent Island Narrows. The bid was $51,108, which does not include the building of the lift draw.

Several weeks ago when the bids first were opened the Mullan Concern was the low bidder with a figure of $53, 308. Their bid of last Tuesday was lower by $2,300.

Walbert Brothers, who recently opened their new store, pool room, and service station on the Philadelphia Pike above Myrtle Ave., Claymont have dissolved partnership. George Walbert, who has been acting as manager of the store left Friday afternoon for his home in Chestertown,. He will make a short visit here, after which he intends to leave for the Blue Ridge Mountains. He will locate there while being employed by the Baltimore anl Ohio Railroad as a telegraph operator, which is his profession. William L. Walbert, the younger of the two brothers, will take charge of the business as manager. ,

KENT NEWS $1.50 PER YEAR

A $5,000 PRIZE CUP TO BE GIVEN

Near A. Truslow, chairman of the program committee of the second annual regatta of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club which will be held on the Chesapeake Bay and Chester river Friday and Saturday, August 22 and 23, has sounded a note of warning to owners of Chesapeake Bay sailing craft that Delaware River Yacht Culbs are liable to carry home the handsome gold cup offered as the trophy in the official Gold Cup Championship of the Chesapeake Bay Class, unless the yachtsmen of tidewater Maryland bestir themselves.

Already assurances have been received by the committee that a number of the fastest sailing craft flying Delaware River Yacht Club burgees will be entered in this race. The race will be sailed in the Chesapeake Bay over a triangular course from Love Point at the mouth of Chester irver on the first day of the regatta, Aug. 22, starting at 10 A. M. The $5,000 gold cup is offered by the Raskob family. It will be known as the William Raskob Memorial Gold Cup and is the handsomest trophy ever offered for a sail or motorboat race on the waters of the Chesapeake Bay. The event is open to work boats, yachts, and other sailing craft having a 25 feet water line or over.

ADELAIDE LAMBERT NOW A PROFESSIONAL

Miss Adelaide Lambert, formerly of Chestertown, former national swimming champion and a member of the 1928 Olympic team, has turned professional and will compete in the Metropolitan professional championships in New York, the International Professional Swimmers' Association announced Saturday.

Miss Lambert swam on the 400-meter team representing the United States in the 1928 Olympic. She also has held the national 300-yard medley title, and in the recent amateur championships in California finished second to Eleanor Holm in the medley event.

LIVE NOTES FROM GALENA

Little Miss Mary Joe Davis, near Sassafras, has returned home after a week's visit with her cousin, little Miss Clara Virginia Davis, of Annapolis.

Mrs. Jess Smith and son, of Annapolis, are visiting her father, Mr. and Mrs. William Steele.

Miss Martha Whitaker and niece, Miss Ella Mae Hicks are spending the week with relatives in Washington, D. C.

Franklin Maslin and Roger Davis, of Wilmington, were Sunday visitors in town.

Miss Anna Smith, of New York, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Catherine Smith.

Robert Morgan, of Penns Grove, N. J., is spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. Mae Woodall.

Ollie Pennington, of Washington, was the week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walmsley.

Miss Elaine Hess has returned home after a pleasant visit with friends in Wilmington.

Mrs. W. L. Hess is entertaining her friends, Miss Patterson and mother, from Baltimore.

Rev. W. L. Hess and son, Lyndon, are motoring south, through Virginia and North Carolina.

Miss Nellie Dempsey motored to Dagsboro, Del., and spent a few days with her aunt, Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Connelly and family.

Mrs. Catherine O'Neal spent last week with friends in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Silver and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Silver, of Baltimore, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. James Mulford.

Price and Anna Stradley are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Stradley at Easton.

Covington Scotten is enjoying a stay with his aunt, Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Hungerford, at Georgetown, Delaware.

Father Walsh entertained his brothers, James and Albert, of Wilmington, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt Woodall, Miss Elmina Woodall and friend, Miss Marie Williams, visited Philadelphia one day last week.

Little Miss Anna Freeman, of Blacks, is enjoying a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton, of Salisbury, are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulfodr.

Bernard Cochran spent a few days last week in Washington.

Miss Elizabeth Scotten is home after a month's visit with her aunt, Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Hungerford, at Georgetown, Del.

Quite a good many attended the Fair at Harrington, Del., last week.

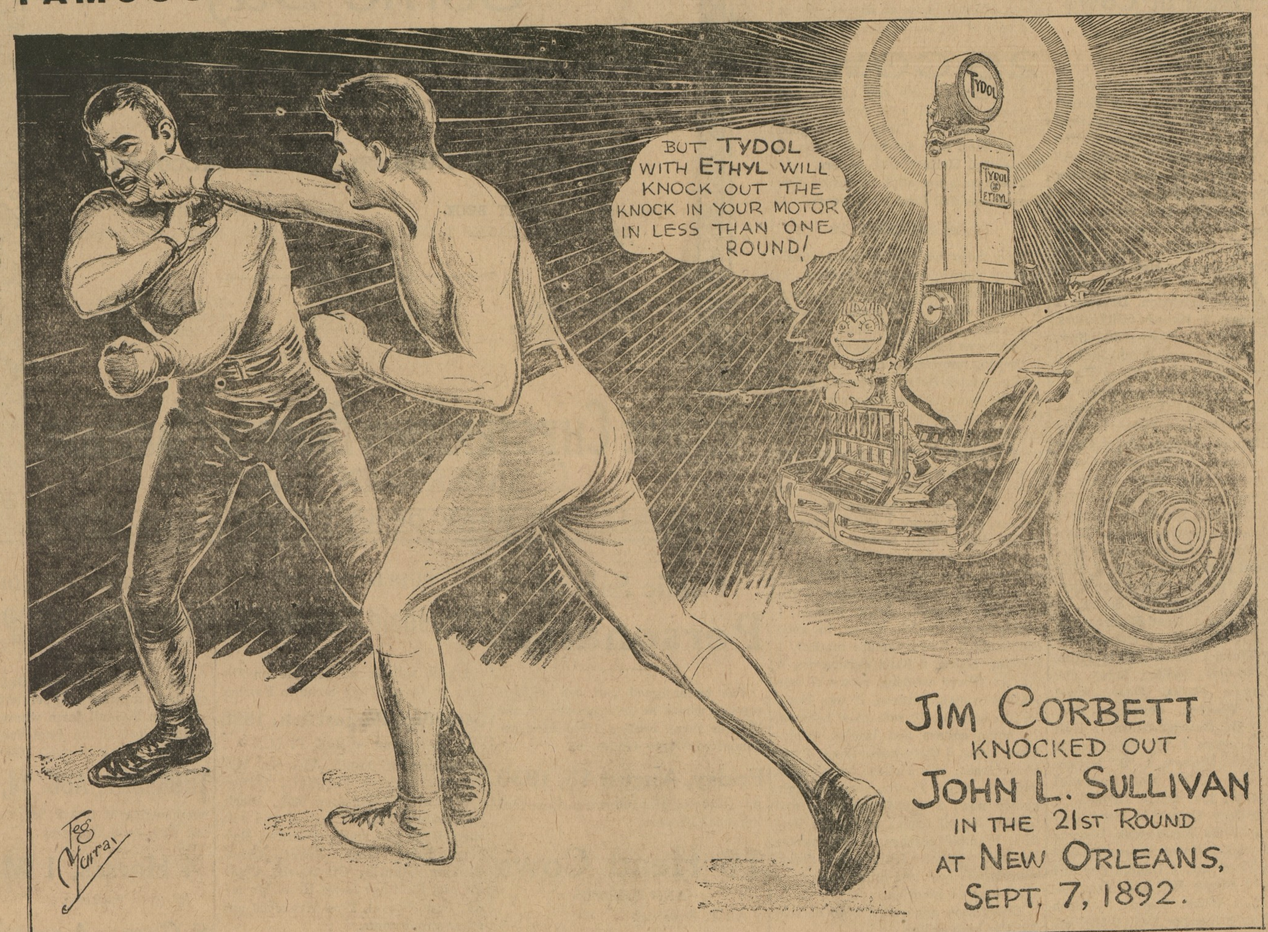

Misses Mary and Eva McCauley and Miss Peg Boyd, of Philadelphia, and Lester McCauley, of Wilmington, were visitors with Mrs. Eva McCauley over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jarrell, near Middletown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moore.

Miss Marian Pennington returned home on Sunday after a week's visit with her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gambrill, in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnard Jones, of Washington, were week-end visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell.

FAMOUS KNOCKOUTS OF HISTORY . . . by Feg Murray

JIM CORBETT KNOCKED OUT JOHN L. SULLIVAN IN THE 21ST ROUND AT NEW ORLEANS, SEPT. 7, 1892.

ABSOLUTELY KNOCKLESS

HI-TEST TYDOL with Ethyl

A new and improved SUB-ZERO, KNOCK RATING Gasoline

Sock! . . . right on the button. Out goes that knock instantly!

Lightweight, middleweight, heavyweight knocks. It makes no difference. Knocks in any motor, old or young, big or small, take the full count! When Hi-test TYDOL with Ethyl knocks 'em out, they stay out!

And here is the defi of the champion of all the premium gasolines . . . "I can lick any knock . . . low speed, high speed, low gear, or high gear . . . in one round!"

For motoring's newest thrill, try one 10-gallon filling of this sub-zero knockless gasoline.

GASOLINE TYDOL VEEDOL MOTOR OIL

HOLT OIL COMPANY, Chestertown, Md.

IT'S A KNOCK-OUT!

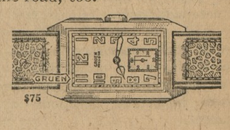

FAIR VERDICT

Judge: And explain, if you can, how you happened to crash into a telephone pole!

Motorist: Well, your honor, I was trying to see what time it was . . .

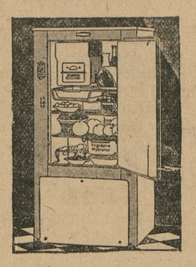

Judge: That's no excuse! If you'd had a Gruen strap watch on your wrist, you could have kept your eyes on the time and the road, too.

JEWELER J. S. KREEGER OPTOMERIST
CHESTERTOWN, MD.

O-788

The 10-POINT Frigidaire is ready for your inspection

An electric refrigerator that offers Ten outstanding features! It has the Quickube Ice Tray—a freezing tray of a new and different type—a tray that releases ice cubes instantly—one cube at a time or the whole trayful. It has the famous "Cold Control"—the Hydrator—a beautiful cabinet of lustrous Porcelain-on-steel inside and out.

The 10-Point Frigidaire operates at remarkably low cost. It is extra-powerful and incredibly quiet.

Come in, see a demonstration and let us tell you about our special payment plan. Call at your first opportunity.

GEO. W. BALDWIN
Chestertown, Maryland

Shop at Stores where the uniform official Dollar Day Window Cards and Price Tickets bearing the Chamber of Commerce Emblem, are displayed.

Wilmington's Official Fall

DOLLAR DAY

Wednesday, August 13th, 1930

Watch for and read the Special Dollar Day Issue of the "Wilmington Shopping Guide" for advertisements of Official Dollar Day Stores.

Bigger Than Ever . . Over 100 Official Stores Participating. Auspices Mercantile Section . . Wilmington Chamber of Commerce

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_26_1-0185