PEARLS

By ALICE MATHEWS

There are pearls of the heart grow fairer with age,
There are gems that the Heaven gives true faithfulness,
Treasures deep hidden O who could engage
In one little poem right well to express?
The honorable trust of good comradship.
Is a wondrous possession, a generous hold.
That the shallow of heart, with many a-slip,
And shrewd caustic warning, may never unfold:
But these glorious gems I speak not in haste,
Only the heart-pure, gain the good taste
To keep them all sacred, and radiant too,
These gems, mere acquaintances never can view:
For it takes genuine effort and love that is deep
These pearls of the Heaven, to sanctified keep.

OBITUARY

Mrs. E. A. Crittendon, aged 82 years, died at her home in Chesterville, Sunday, July 20th, after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Crittendon was a well-known and highly respected citizen of Kent county, particularly in the Chesterville community where the greater part of her life was spent.

Her husband died many years ago and her son in 1910 A brother. Thomas Burris, shared her home at the time of her death.

A woman of sterling christian character, Mrs. Crittendon's consistent life made her beloved by all those with whom she came in contact.

The Chesterville M. E. Church, South, of which she had been a faithful member for forty years was the object of her religious devotions, and for many years she had also served as steward.

The noble example of her long and useful life is worthy of emulation.

She is survived by two brothers, Thomas and William Burris, both of Kent county.

Funeral services were held at her late home, Rev. Homer A. Welch and Rev. E. Davis Walraven, pastor of the charge, officiating.

The bearers were Franklin Burris, Harry Burris, Clifton Burris, Arthur Burris, nephews of the deceased, and John Dwyer and Mowbray Hadaway; interment in Chesterville Cemetery.

Before Mussolini goes much farther in nagging France we suggest that he run up and have an informal chat with the ex-kaiser at Doorn.

The Important Reason
FATS and oils are not digested like starches or proteins, they must first be emulsified in the body before they can be utilized as nourishment.
SCOTT'S EMULSION
is pure cod-liver oil scientifically emulsified—prepared for easy and rapid digestion, just as Nature provides emulsified fat in milk.
This is the important reason why the cod-liver oil you take—should be emulsified—should be Scott's Emulsion.

If you want a cigarette that is milder and of better taste..
Smoke Chesterfield

MILDER, YES—BUT SOMETHING MORE. Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor.

BETTER TASTE—that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure—the flavor and aroma of mellow tobaccos, exactly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!
