Order Not Rescinded

Drury Lane, the great home of pantomime, used to enjoy a unique distinction among London theaters. For over a century and a half soldiers were placed on guard outside the doors during every performance. Many thought the guard constituted a recognition of old Drury's status as a Theater Royal, but actually it was set there to prevent a threatened riot one night when George II was to be present. The order not being countermanded, the guard was continued until 1894!

Famous Waltz

"The Blue Danube" waltz of Johann Strauss was first played at the Rianisalle, Vienna, on February 13, 1867. In the same season it was given at the Paris exposition, with Strauss conducting. In that autumn it was heard in London at the Covent Garden promenade concerts. At Vienna and Paris it was given in its original form, for orchestra and chorus, but in London, after some three weeks' rehearsal, Strauss decided to dispense with the chorus, so that it was performed by orchestra only.

Nature a Partnership

Without plants animal life would disappear from the earth and without animal life our plants would be different in many ways. Some plants would even cease to exist, says Forests and Mankind. Many of our flowers depend on bees and nectar seeking insects to spread their pollen to other flowers and form fertile life bearing seeds. Without bees such plants would soon become extinct and without their nectar, life for the bees would become impossible. So in a sense all nature is a vast partnership.

CONFERENCE AT CAMBRIDGE

About 400 ministers and lay delegates are attending the one hundred and second session of the Methodist Protestant Church, in St. Paul's M. P. Church, Cambridge.

The presiding officer is Rev. Dr. Leonard B. Smith. The memorial roll was read at the opening session by the Rev. D. W. Anstine, of Hallwood, Va., and prayer offered by the Rev. George E. Brown, of Snow Hill, both of these ministers being former pastors of the local church.

Thursday was observed as denominational day, and delegations from the Methodist Protestant Churches in Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and New Jersey attended the sessions, which were held in the Armory.

In the afternoon addresses were made by the Rev. D. J. C. Broomfield, president of the General Conference, the Rev. Dr. A. Norman Ward, president of Western Maryland College, and the Rev. Dr. H. L. Elderdice, president of the Westminster Theological Seminary. The Rev. Paul Warner, Missionary to Japan, had a part in the program. The speaker of the evening was Senator A. W. Berkley, from Kentucky. The conference choir and St. Paul's choir merged for this occasion and presented special music.

The Rev. Dr. R. Y. Nichols, pastor of Rhode Island M. P. Church, Washington, will deliver the sermon of the newly constructed building of religious education of St. Paul's Church. Dr. Nichols was pastor of St. Paul's for eight years.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas C. Mulligan, who has completed a work of three years in the local field, has been invited to return for the coming year.

IN MEMORIAM

Kernan—William A. In loving memory of our dear Father, who passed away four years ago today June 15, 1926.

Your'e not forgotten, father, dear,
Nor never shall you be;
As long as life and memory last
WE shall remember thee.
Remembrance is a golden chain,
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love, and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never-
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
His loving daughters

The Important Reason

FATS and oils are not digested like starches or proteins, they must first be emulsified in the body before they can be utilized as nourishment.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is pure cod-liver oil scientifically emulsified—prepared for easy and rapid digestion, just as Nature provides emulsified fat in milk.

This is the important reason why the cod-liver oil you take—should be emulsified—should be Scott's Emulsion.

The Modern Funeral

The methods and systems in vogue a few years ago, and still adhered to by many, are no longer applicable. In this age and generation a better understanding of the duties of the funeral director has changed the old order. One of the most difficult problems confronting the modern funeral director will be solved when the public realizes that SERVICE is the principal, and in fact, only commodity which we have to offer.

The casket and funeral appurtenances are negligible, or practically so, requiring little or no expense and, in the matter of expense, consist only with the costs of production.

Service is the main consideration—the care and disposition of the body of the one that has passed on. Knowledge and ability and a readiness to relieve the burden of those who are left to mourn.

RURAL CARRIERS' OFFICERS

At the annual meeting at Chesapeake City of the Tri-County Rural Letter Carriers Association, composed of Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's Carriers, the organization went on record as upholding the action of the board of control of the National Rural Letter Carriers Association in urging an additional duty bill for rural carriers.

At the meeting officers were elected as follows: President, W. Lee Clough, Centreville; vice-president, J. L. Scarborough, of Elkton, secretary-treasurer, S. M. Price, Chestertown. Delegates to attend the annual convention of the Maryland State body to be held at Ocean City, Md., July 7 and 8 were chosen as follows: Cecil county; H. L. Campbell, Chesapeake City and O. S. Lambert, Port Deposit; Kent: John E. Barnes and S. M. Price, Chestertown; Queen Anne's: W. L. Clough, Centreville, and W. L. Stevens, Queen Anne's.

Spain Financed Columbus

It is a generally accepted fact that Columbus' expedition was financed by Spanish money. Although Queen Isabella offered to pawn her personal jewels if the treasury funds proved inadequate, she was not required to do so.

Stock Exchange Term

A "straddle," in stock dealing, is an option giving the holder the double privilege of a "put" and a "call"—i. e., the right to demand of the seller or require that he take, at a certain price within a certain time, certain securities.
