HEART TO HEART TALK ABOUT

WATER

Just at this time we are compelled to inform the water users of the Chestertown Water Department the TRUE situation. The water is colored near white. This is because the water is low in the wells. No rain, dry, no water. We have pumped 24 hours per day for 2 weeks, 14 days, with no relief in sight.

Therefore we request every water user to conserve the water. Don't waste. Do not use the HOSE. Better let the shrubbery burn than your HOME. We hope you will assist us, because your property is a part of the Water Department.

Regular Troops Visit Chestertown

Chestertown has been like a military post this week and every movement of the visitors' stay was enjoyed. The Sixty-ninth Anti-aircraft Regiment, United States Coast Artillery, from the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, arrived Wednesday, pitched tents on a field adjoining the Chestertown airport owned by Miss Laura Lusby and Charles L. Dodd.

The regiment of 270 officers and men were under the command of Col. James M. Taylor.

The regiment was equipped with its entire paraphernalia for aircraft target practice, including large flash lights used at the Aberdeen Proving Grounds and the guns used in target practice.

A demonstration of anti-aircraft practice was held Wednesday between 8 and 9 o'clock, which was preceded by a concert by the troops' band.

The big guns used in target practice were moved from the camp to the public square for inspection by residents of the town.

The soldiers broke camp yesterday morning for the return trip to the proving grounds, passing up Washington avenue at 5 A. M.

Thursday evening was a gala time for the soldiers and friends. After a band concert the armory was thrown open and a dance held.

Delegations from the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Firemen visited the camp and welcomed the troops

Mayor E. Scott Thompson extended the freedom of the town to the soldiers and Chestertown has assumed a real military air.

Colonel Taylor said that the purpose of the outing was to furnish the soldiers with some diversion from the routine life in the barracks as well as to afford opportunity for target practice and maneuvers on strange ground.

All spoke in the highest terms of Chestertown and its hospitality.

THE COMMENCEMENT MUSICAL PROGRAM

The last of the 1929-1930 series of programs by musical organizations of Washington College will be presented at 3:45 P.M., Sunday afternoon, June 8th, 1930, as a part of commencement week activites. The program will be given by the orchestra under the direction of Mr. John L. Bond, '30, assisted by the string trio and Mr. William H. Danneberg, '32, piano solist, who will play Liszt's transcription of Schubert's "Serenade."

This program will mark the last appearence of three members of the college orchestra, the following three members being lost by graduation, Raymond L. Moffett, violinist; James H. Clow, bass, and John L. Bond, Student Director.

RAILROAD TRUCKS LOSE CASE

Announcing it felt the territory was served adequately by existing companies, the Public Service Commission Wednesday refused the applications of two concerns which, backed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, sought to interlace the Eastern Shore in an extensive trucking system.

The two companies refused were the Galtimore Transfer Company and the Peninsula Auto Express Company.

The best work is done by men whose conscienses won't let them do inferior work.

Through the courtesy and kindness of Mrs. H. G. Stine, of Georgetown, Washington College is able to display this week an authentic portrait of George Washington by Rembrandt Peale. The canvas hangs back stage in the auditorium of William Smith Hall. This portrait, long owned by P. T. Barnum and hung in his Baltimore museum, is one of the few well known pictures of General Washington. It is hoped that, through the munificence of some friend of the College, this portrait may be permanently secured for the institution.

When the Grand Master of the State of Maryland A. F. and A. M., assisted by his official suite, lays the cornerstone of Reid Hall next Saturday morning at eleven o'clock, he will bring to a happy ending one stage in Washington's endeavor to secure ample and suitable dormitory accommodations for its students.

Grand Master George R. Gorsuch will be assisted in the ceremony by Grand Lecturer Harry B. Wright of Preston and Assistant Grand Lecturer Roscoe Wheatley, of Easton, by the Grand Master's official staff, and by a representative of the local Masonic Lodge. He has invited Dr. Harry V. Holloway, of Dover, Del., a graduate of Washington College, Grand Master of the Masonic Order of Delaware, to give the address of the occasion.

All the Masonic Lodges on the Eastern Shore of Maryland have been particularly invited and the College will serve a luncheon at the gymnasium to all members of visiting lodges. It is hoped there will be a large representation of Eastern Shore Masons.

The general public is invited to witness the ceremony which will take place promptly at 11.00 A. M. on Reid Hall campus north of the building.

"NAPLEY GREEN"

The final touches have been put upon Napley the recently purchased estate of Eugene duPont on Grey's Inn Creek and Chester River. For several months a large force of workmen under Frank E. Duyer have been engaged in remodeling the Colonial residence by erecting a large high columned portico on the river front side, and in decorating the interior. A marshland on the estate has been converted into an artifical lake for the propagation of wild game, duck blinds have been erected on the shore in anticipation of a successful gunning season next Fall and Winter. while the remainder of the estate will be used as a preserve for the propagation of partridges and rabbits.

The new owner has decided to restore the historic name of the estate and hereafter it will be known as Napley Green instead of Taylor's Ranch, which name it assumed after it passed into the possession of the Taylor estate some years ago. The estate commands a beautiful view of river from Pioneer Point, the estate of John J. Rascob. The process of remodeling the residence on the duPont estate was in charge of Chestertown contractors under the supervision of Howard B Strong.

Harvest will begin here June 20th.

JONES WRITES NEW CHAPTER IN GOLF ANNALS

On Saturday Bobby Jones completed his golfing diadem by winning the British Amateur championship, which he has long coveted, by a convincing defeat of Roger Wethered, 7 up and 6 to play, in the 36-hole final.

All the jewels of golf now have sparkled from Bobby's crown. He is the only man who has ever won the open and amateur titles of both the United States and Great Britain.

They gave him the cup on the terrace of the Royal and Ancient Clubhouse with all the partiarchs of golf gathered there.

The final between Jones and Wethered, with thousands of persons trying to see the shots, was the climax of a great week of golf in the fine, bracing Scotch weather and with enthusiatsic galleries trafling over the famous links where putts have been missed for 500 years.

Nearly 300 matches have been played all free, for St. Andrew's is a public course and there is no admission fee. Never have the golf-loving Scotts had such a good time as they have watching Jones climb, round by round, over Englishmen, Scotsmen and Americans, including the amateur champions of Great Britain and the United States, and the captain of the British Walker Cup team as a final opponent.

Wethered Plays Normal Game

Wethered was a worthy opponent and great sportsman. Although the tide was against him all the way, he never seemed worried or harassed and played his normal game, which was good, but not good enough.

Jones played thirty holes in two under 4s and there is the story of the 1930 British Amateur final.

The former British amateur champion held the American Open champion level for the first nine holes, with each one under par. Jones won five of the next seven holes and Wethered rallied with a great birdie at the seventeenth.

Ten major golf titles won by Bobby Jones:

1923—United States open.
1924—United States amateur.
1925—United States amateur.
1926—British oper.
1926—United States open.
1927—British.
1927—United States amateur.
1928—United States amateur.
1929—United States open.
1930—British amateur.

The Chester River and Country Club will send a team of 12 golf players to Salisbury today to play the strong Salisbury golf team.

212 VIOLATIONS OF AUTO RULES ARE NOW LISTED

Every motorist in the State of Maryland is supposed to know the traffic laws and thier penalities, but few, if any, are aware that there are 212 automobile law violations on the statue books of the State.

Twenty-one violations carry a fine of from $500 to $5000 or a jail sentence from 10 days to 10 years, or both.

Though these violations have been in effect since the founding of a traffic court 12 years ago, the largest fine ever levied was $500 and the longest term two years.

According to statistics of the Police Department, almost every motorist when he takes his car out for a ride commits some infraction of the law beforereturning. If they would only stop to realize how serious law violation can be there would be less accidents.

The severest fine and imprisonment is for selling or purchasing an automobile for which no title has been issued. A jail sentence of five years and a fine of $5,000 may believed for false statements in application for a title.

FIRE AT CHURCH HILL

Undertaker W. H. Good's garage, ambulance, motor hearse and two cars, Church Hill, were destroyed by fire Thursday night. Loss about $12,000 partly covered by $4,000 insurance. Chestertown's fire company responded as did Millington.

Miss Katie Trew has sold her residence on Mill street to Lee Gill of the firm of Gill Bros. Price is said to be $4,250. Mr. Gill will remove there July 1st.

The Dramatic Club of Washington College, Prof. Makoskey, director, put on a finely acted play Thursday night. Audience was appreciative.

CANNING ASPARAGUS

The F. O. Mitchell and Bro. Cannery at Kennedyville is busy canning asparagus this week. They expect to can between five and ten thousand cases. This same firm have put up about one-half the usual number of cases of peas at their Perryman cannery.

They have in about 600 acres of sugar corn around Kennedyville and if the weather is favorable this should be a paying crop to the growers.

WILL FORCE TAX PAYMENTS

The Commissioners of Chestertown have determined to force payment of all unpaid tax bills and also unpaid liens for street paving.

After June 15 all property and liens will be advertised and sold according to law.

Chestertown Commissioners say they cannot pay the running expenses of the town unless the money that is owing the town is paid them.

If you owe back taxes pay up.

VOSHELL HOUSE LEASED

A lease whereby the Voshell House is turned over for a period of ten years to Herbert Effinger, of Philadelphia, has been executed this week. It is reported that the new proprietor will pay $4,800 rent per year and at the end of three years be entitled to purchase the property for $90,000. The transfer will take place July 1.

The new management is planning many improvements. Private dining rooms will be added, it is said, and the large yard at the side of the hotel made into a beautiful garden.

The hotel is owned by the six Eshman heirs and has been managed by them since the death of their parents some years ago.

NEW TRIAL ASKED IN CASE OF AYRES

Asserting the verdict was against the evidence and that attorneys for the State had conducted the prosecution by the abuse of argument, William Curran and Paul Mules, for Robert R. Ayres, Saturday filed a motion for a new trial.

A jury in the Criminal Court before Judge Robert F. Stanton, last Thursday week found Ayres guilty of larceny of more than $5,800 of the funds of the University of Maryland School of Medicine, where he was employed as bookkeeper.

Claim New Evidence Found

The shortage was discovered February 28, when Ayres reported the office safe had been robbed. Investigation of the school's account books showed many false entries, which it is claimed Ayres made to hide his shortages.

The attorneys, in their motion which was filed in the office of Edw. Gross, clerk of the Criminal Court, also charged the evidence offered at the three day trial was insufficient in law to sustain the verdict and revealed that new evidence had been discovered.

The motion is expected to be heard by the Supreme Bench this week.

The tax rate will be struck next week. Owing to increesa in schools and slag roads funds the rate will likely not be any lower than at present, viz., $1.90.

Pea Crop Failure In This Section

The pea crop is harvested and canned, as much as was worth canning. The long dry spell and the lice in some sections played havoc with the vines at a time when the plants needed mosture.

Many acres planted in peas are a complete loss. Farmers are plowing under thier vines in many instances, and not bothering with harvesting. The pods are hardly an inch long in many places, and the loss will be heavy both to the grower and the packer.

Wrightson and Son Easton started their canning house on Saturday, and at noon on Monday Mr. Wrightson said he would wind up the pack that night. Ordinally the canning house is operated for eight or ten days but this year the entire pack could have been canned in one day.

Last year on some days the total pack was 9000 cases. This year th e entire pack will not exceed 5,000 cases.

But of the 15,000,000 cases of peas packed in the country the Del-Mar-Va peninsula packs at least 4,000,000 cases. With less than one fourth of this quanity packed here and the prospects of Wisconsin having a poor pack, the canned pea industry is hit hard.

The Third National Bank celebrated its 40th anniversary Wednesday evening with a supper to its stockholders in the Chestertown Armory. The supper was served by the Ladies' Aid of St. James M. P. Church. A feature of the program was the presentation of a silver loving cup to W. B. Copper, President of the Bank. Dr. Sewell S. Hepburn made the address of presentation. Major H. Staunton Brown, of New York, was the only out-of-town speaker and delighted all with his interesting speech. In reference to his theatrical work he stated that Amos N'Andy get $300,000 for their new movie soon to appear.

HOW ARE YOUR TAGS.

A drive against autoists operating their machines with obscured markers is now being conducted by Maryland State police, and auto drivers are warned that license plates which are obscured by bumpers or bumperettes will lead to arrests.

KENT'S FIREMEN TO ATTEND MEETING

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company has elected the following delegates to the annual convention of the State Firemen's Association in Baltimore June 12-13. Barber R. Bartley, Fred S. Russell, Carl M. LeCates, R. Clark Davis and C. Arthur Bacon; alternates, William H. Elliott, Willard H. Thawley, Alvin C. Brown, J. Hydie Thompson and Wm. J. Smith.

One hundred members of the active and associate membership of the company, representatives from the Ladies Auxiliary, the company's thirty-five piece band and part of the company equipment will participate in the parade.

The associate members of Chestertown Fire Company who will attend convention in Baltimore next Friday are requested to wear blue coats, white trousers, white shoes and white caps. The latter may be secured from B. R. Bartley.

The P. T. A. of Chestertown Elementary School will entertain the 7th grade at the school next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. W. H. Thawley was re-elected president; Prof. Stier, vice-president; Mrs. R. O. Wright, sercetary; C. J. Harris, treasurer.

STRAWBERRY CROP SMALLER

A strawberry crop one-fifth smaller than was produced last year is forcast in Maryland by the Division of Crop and Livestock Estimates, Washington. The estimate is based on May first conditions. Virginia is expected to drop thirty per cent behind production last year.

The strawberry season on the Del-Mar-Va peninsula is far behind that of last year. On May 22, 1929, there were 7,192 crates shipped by truck from the Eastern Shore of Maryland, 18,616 from the Eastern Shore of Virginia and 10,329 from Delaware. In comparison with these figures the shipment for May 22, 1930, is low. The Eastern Shore of Virginia shipped 5,729 crates by truck, the Eastern Shore of Maryland 4,789, and Delaware 2,754.
