SATURDAY, MAY 17, 1930

Chairman W. Howell Griswold, of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Commission, has appointed the following gentlemen as the Law Committee of the Bridge Commission: W. Lee Rawls, chairman, Baltimore; Randolph Barton, Baltimore; S. Scott Beck, Chestertown; Walter J. Mitchell, La Plata; W. Preston Lane, Hagerstown.

This committee will look after the numerous legal phases that come before the Bridge Commission.

AN INJUSTICE TO ALL

The business men of Chestertown especially and the public in general were astonished Monday morning to learn that a change had been made in the arrival of the mail via Elkton truck. This change of leaving Elkton an hour later was not in the interest of anyone nor was there any reason for it as far as the truck driver, mail clerks or the public was concerned. Heretofore the mail has arrived here at 8.45 A. M. and now it arrives 9.45 A. M. There has been no change in train arriving in Elkton nor has the change in time interferred in any way with the arrangement.

Postmaster Smyth has been appealed to by the public to restore our excellent schedule and we are sure he will do his part to this end.

The Maryland State Bankers' Association will meet in Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, next Wednesday and Thursday, May 22nd. The Kent County Savings Bank named William F. Russell and J. D. Bacchus as delegates; Chestertown Bank of Maryland named Allan A. Harris and Wm. B. Usilton: Third National named W. B. Copper, T. G. Wroth and Andrew W. Wilson.

WOMAN SOCIALIST FOR GOVERNOR IN MARYLAND

Miss Elizabeth Gilman, of Baltimore, daughter of the late Dr. Daniel C. Gilman, first president of Johns Hopkins University, was unanimously chosen as a candidate for Governor by Maryland Socialists in convention in Hagerstown Saturday.

In accepting the nomination Miss Gilman stated she felt highly honored by her party and that naming her as a candidate for the highest office in the State afforded her an opportunity to render "service to the party."

Miss Gilman long has been identified with the party and was actively engaged in social relief work during the miners' strike in West Virginia and at the time of the Western Maryland Railway strike some years ago.

She is a member of the State Central Committee of the Socialist party, director of the Open Forum, of Baltimore; chairman of the finance committee of the Women's City Club. Baltimore; member of the board of governors of the College Club of Baltimore, and also chairman of the committee on international relations of the College Club.

REMOVED CASES HEARD

Among the cases heard in the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's was the case of James A. Cannan, of Cecilton, vs. James A. Nowland, for repairs to pumps on the Nowland farms in Cecil and Kent counties, for a period of 1919 to 1925. It occupied several days before a jury. E. D. E Rollins and Thomas J. Keating, Jr., Esq., for plaintiff; Clarence Perkins, Esq., for defendant. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $415.35.

The other case was removed from Kent county and was a suit of Wm. C. Sutton against A. C. Schmidt, of Rock Hall, for pay for furnace installed in hot house. Miss Sherry represented the Rock Hall defendant while John D. Urie, Esq., appeared for Mr. Sutton. The jury returned a verdict for defendant.

Judge Lewin W. Wickes, of the Second Judicial Circuit, paid a high and well deserved tribute to Judge Thomas J. Keating, when he delivered the charge to the Grand Jury at the opening of the May term of Court Monday morning in Centreville.

Judge Wickes emphasized the point that Judge Keating is held in the highest esteem and affection thruout the circuit, and that his illness has been a source of concern and regret to his innumerable friends.

When any official is held in highest esteem and affection" by his associates and the public — and Judge Keating unquestionably IS — this is the finest and highest tribute that can be paid him. For in the terms "esteem" and "affection" are found the embodiment of respect, admiration, regard, love and appreciation.

And all these Judge Keating has EARNED and HELD by a fine spirit of loyalty, consideration and fidelity to duty.—Centreville Observer.

FINISH ROAD TO MILLINGTON

According to W. W Mack, chief engineer of the State Highway Department, all local records for road construction were broken Thursday. On February 11th a bid to construct a 16-foot concrete highway from Blackiston to the Maryland line was awarded to George Lynch, a Delaware contractor. The distance was 3.1 miles. Work was started in March and was concluded at noon o Thursday. Mr. Mack states that this is the earliest that any short stretch of road has been completed in Delaware.
