ROCK HALL

Seventy-two votes, the smallest for a number of years, were cast in the annual town election here. The present Board of Town Commissioners was re-elected, Mayor Adolph Keller and B. Trew Durding, each receiving 49 votes, and John R. Hersch, 46, as against 5 for Thomas E. Joyner, 10 for J. Walter Scoone, and 7 for Ralph McGinness, the opposition ticket. It is said that Mayor Kellen will be reappointed for another term when the board reorganizes on June 2nd.

Miss Charlotte Allender, of Baltimore, is making a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jacquette, who are again great-grandparents by the birth of a son last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Simms Jacquette.

Medford Jones, of Swan Point, has been confined to his bed with neuritis.

William T. Downey, razing part of a building, fell from the second to the first floor, last Friday and landed on his head, breaking no bones but jamming up his chest and ribs. A daughter, Mrs. William Davis, from Bustleton, Pa., is now with them to remain until her father is better.

Mrs. Charles Judefind and Mrs. John Bramble attended the exercises when the latter's daughter, Miss Dorothy Bramble was graduated from the nurses course at the Washington Sanitorium Hospital, Tacoma Park, Md., on May 1st to 4th inclusive.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harman are parents of a fine son.

For two years the M. E. Church has been in debt for the church house property without being able to pay anything on the principal, so the Watermen's Protective Association, which has a membership from several churches, has undertaken to pay the interest and $500 on principal, over six hundred in all, most of which was available Sunday. Such generosity is thoroughly appreciated by the church official board and members.

Eastern Neck Island people are having difficulties because there is no detour while the ninefoot cement road is under construction. Asparagus growers must ship by motor boat to Love Point and there reload the crates. The eight school children must be brought to the bridge by one of the farmers and walk a half mile to the school bus. In the evening the process is reversed.

At a game of baseball here Tuesday afternoon Galena defeated Rock Hall 6 to 3.

Electric Trouble

Bobby's mother blew a fuse while she was connecting the electric percolator. The house was plunged in darkness, but Bobby thought this was great. Shortly afterward Bobby was looking out of the window. As it was cloudy he could see no stars, so he came running to his mother, crying: "Mother, the stars have blown a fuse!"

German Language

Modern German is derived from the various dialects of the West Germanic tribes. In some ways it resembles most the dialects of Middle German, spoken in Thuringia, Silesia, Upper Saxony, Franconia, etc., while in other ways it resembles the Upper German of Bavaria, Austria, etc.
