Speakers at the Democratic Club

The program for the meeting of the United Woman's Democratic Club of Maryland, to be held in Chestertown on Thursday, May 8th is complete and the public is invited to take part in the all day program, including the noon luncheon which will be held in the Parish House of Emmanuel P. E. Church at 1 p.m.

The program includes Govenor Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland; Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough, of the First Congressional District of Maryland; Attorney General Robinson, of Maryland; Mrs. Elizabeth R. Menefee, National Committee- woman; and Mrs. Mary Duvall, president of the Maryland Club.

Mrs. C. W. Whaland, Eastern Shore Chairman is in charge of arrangements. Luncheon tickets may be secured from Mrs. Whaland.

A short business meeting including election of officers will be held in the Court House at 11.45 a. m. after which the members will adjourn to the Parish House of Emmanuel P. E. Church for luncheon at 1 P. M. Following the luncheon, the afternoon session will be held in the Court House.

BIG DAY PLANNED

If plans now maturing materialize the Chester River Yacht and Country Club will stage one of the greatest regattas ever held on the Eastern Shore during the coming summer. August 22-23 have been selected as the dates for holding a two day regatta. W. J. Moyer, of Philadelphia, is chairman of a committee of the yacht club members which is arranging the events for the two day affair. Tentative plans call for a schooner yacht race from Gibson Island to the mouth of Chester river as the feature of the first day's program while Saturday, Aug. 23rd will be given over to a program of races for almost every kind of power and speed boat which will take place on Chester river opposite the club house here. The events will be followed by an elaborate dance in the club house on the last day of the program. Representatives of yacht clubs on both the Eastern and Western shores will be asked to make entries in the various classes. Richard H. Collins, Jr., is chairman of the publicity committee and Commodore Edward W. Emory will be in charge of shore ceremonies.

The importance of high quality seed corn is not sufficiently realized as it effects the stand and yield. Corn free of seed bone disease is very important. Unless seed known to be free of disease is available—the seed should be treated. The "dust" treatment is quite effective. Other important factors are seed bed preparation, fertilization of the soil and proper tillage methods following the planting.

HENRY GILL ELECTED

In one of the closest elections held here in many years, Henry Gill defeated Mayor John W. Barnes for re-election as Town Commissioner of Chestertown, by a majority of seven votes.

Out of 508 votes polled, Mr. Gill received 247 and Mr. Barnes, 240. William A. Burk, the other candidate, got twenty votes. The board of Town Commissioners composed of three men—Mr. Gill, and the two hold overs, George W. French and E. Scott Thompson, will meet for reorganization next Monday. One of them will be picked as Mayor. It is likely to be E. Scott Thompson.

The town's water board composed of Thomas W. Eliason, Harry C. Coleman and William L. Fowler, were elected without opposition.

Mr. Gill, the newly elected member, is one of our towns hustling young business men and will bring renewed energy to the Board.

The retiring Mayor, John W. Barnes, has made a most efficient and conscientious commisioner. He retires after six years of faithful service with the thanks of scores of citizens who appreciated his real value to this community. He has been in the priniting business in Chestertown for 57 years and is the most prominet fraternal member and officer in Kent county, being a member of numerous local lodges of national organizations. He has been clerk of the Modern Woodman for 25 years.

12-MILE TOUR PLANNED

Plans for the Road Day and Homecoming Celebration in Kent County on Monday, May 26th, are rapidly reaching a state of completion. With a list of notable speakers, a 12-mile tour of Kent roads, music by the band of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company and a special luncheon for the notable guests the program for the day promises to be one of the gala events of the year.

A new phase of the farming industry is being established in Kent county by P. Medford Broks, acting for northern Long Island promoters, which promises large profits for those farmers who engage in the business this year. Mr. Brooks is contracting with the farmers of the county to grow 700 acres in a special breed of seed corn which cannot be grown with profit in colder northern climates, but which forms a very important part of the dairy cow's rations in that section of the country.

Frank S. Dudley was the purchaser of the "Seward Hope" farm near Kennedyville. It was sold by Thos. J. Keating, Jr., Esq., Tuesday as attorney, for $35 per acre. It contains 214 acres.

KENT COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

William Waters, 87-year-old Negro, who turned a desperado and opened fire on officers trying to arrest him recently, was sentenced late Saturday to serve five years in the Maryland penitentiary by Judge Lewin W. Wickes, in Kent County Circuit Court after a jury brought in a veridct of guilty of assault with intent to kill.

The night of last November 2nd, Waters opened fire with a shotgun on several officers, led by Chief of Police Samuel E. Cooper and Constable John T. Jester, who went to his home to arerst him for threatening to kill several colored people in "Santiago," the Negro colored settlement here. Firing from a stairway, Waters blew three fingers from the right hand of Jester and a second shot narrowly missed the face of Cooper and burnt his hair.

Waters is said to have threatened the lives of both officers. George L. Pendleton, Negro lawyer of Baltimore, Waters' counsel, argued for a new trial but it was denied. State's Attorney Steven R. Collins prosecuted the case.

Waters has served several previous prison and jail terms.

Judge Wickes also sentenced William Sharp, Jr., known as "Big Shot" and Walter Smith, both of Wilson, N. C., and Roosevelt Maith, of this town, to serve two years and six months each in the Maryland House of Correction for having broken open a safe in the Pennsylvania Railroad station here three months ago and taking $200 in bills and a revolver. the men plead guilty.

Mack Williams, colored, charged with stealing coal from Washington College, was found not guilty. Williams plead not guilty and was tried by the Court.

John Cotton, charged with receiving stolen goods, plead not guilty and was found not guilty in a tria before the Court.

John Nehus and James Hayes, charged with stealing candy, were found guilty and sentenced to the House of Correction for 3 months.

Oliver Taylor, charged with selling liquor, was found guilty. A fine of $200 or a sentence of 3 months in the House of Correction, was imposed.

Clifton Scott, charged with stealing turkeys was found guilty of the charge and sentenced to 4 months in the House of Correction.

John Siscom charged with stealing coal from the Pennsylvania Railroad was found guilty and sentenced to 60 days in the local jail.

With Judge Lewin W. Wickes on the bench, a jury in Kent County Circuit Court has been hearing a $10,000 breach of promise suit which was begun in the Harford County Court at Belair in 1928, and then removed to the Cecil County Court at Elkton and finally removed here this week. An array of seven lawyers represented the principals, four for the defendant and three for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Mary Catalano, formerly of Belair, now of Baltimore, alleges that Charles Brown, 72-year-old defendant in the case, proposed marriage to her and then backed out of the bargain, after she had accepted him, and forthwith married a Belair woman. Mrs. Catalano is a widow by a former marriage.

Representing Mrs. Catalino were William Webb, of Baltimore; Henry L. Constable, of Elkton, and Harrison W. Vickers, of Chestertown, while on the defendant's side are Colonel J. S. Young, of Belair; State Senator S. Scott Beck, of this town; John Lee, of Baltimore, and R. Hynson Rogers, of Chestertown.

The jury returned a verdict Tuesday at 6 P. M. for one cent damages in favor of plaintiff.

The jury was composed of Harry F. Jefferson, J. E. Woodall, Jr., Louis E. Grantlin, Jos. M. Norris, Ralph W. Barnett, Jas. B. Newnam, Wm. Clark, Roy Walbert, Thos. Tucker, J. Ernest Willson, Wm. J. Maslin.

Court expects to finish today with the trial of Merritt Spry charged with larceny of a hog. Another case pending is the Schmidt vs. Wm. C Sutton suit in which Miss Sherry and John D. Urie, Esq., are opposing counsel.

The Chestertown Medical Detachment 1st Infantry Maryland National Guard was inspected in the armory here by Captain Meyer, U. S. A., and Major Munchower, M. N. G. The officials contratulated the members of the unit upon their military appearance and training. It was announced at the inspection by Major Frank P Hines, commander of the detachment that the $50,000 available for the erection of an armory here will be appropriated by the State treasury about August 1. The site for the location of the armory has not yet been selected.

KENT WELL REPRESENTED

Group No. 5 of the Maryland Bankers' Association met in Easton Thursday evening. After a fine dinner and several interesting addresses the following officers were elected: Chairman, Roland Chaffinch, of Denton; vice-chairman, Lem Roberts, of Centreville; secretary-treasurer, W. R. Huey, of Chestertown; member of administration board, Henry P. Turner, of Easton. J. Ramsey Speer, of Easton, presided. Kent was represented by the following: Allan A. Harris and Wm. B. Usilton, Chestertown Bank of Maryland; Charles N. Satterfield, Charles S. Smith, Fred. G. Usilton, Kent County Savings Bank; W. B. Copper, T. D. Bowers, Ellsworth Leary, T. G. Wroth, Medford Brooks, S. J. Johnson, H. S. Startt, W. R. Huey, Raymond Wilkins, Frank Estes, Third National Bank; Dr. H. B. Simmons, Chas. F. Wheatley, People's Bank; Leonard Wilson, C. M. Melvin, Jr., Millington Bank.

ROTARIANS HAVE AUTO ACCIDENT

The Chestertown Rotary Club was well represented this week at Hagerstown at the 34th District Convention.

It was the largest 34th district convention ever held. At the banquet on Tuesday night 1100 were present. Gov. Ritchie made the chief address.

Dr. Paul E. Titsworth made a splendid address at the morning session.

Those from Chestertown were Paul E. Titsworth, Rev. J. Harry Wright, Howard Baldwin, Marion deK. Smith, W. R. Huey and wife, Clinton Jones, Sidney Turner.

One auto with Rotarians had a mishap early Wednesday morning near Ellicott City, while returning. Those in the auto were Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, Rev. J. Harry Wright and Sidney Turner, of Chestertown, and Milton Slemmer, of Centreville. The road was wet and slippery and the car skidded and turned over. Sidney Turner was driving the car which was owned by Dr. J. Harry Wright. Dr. Titsworth and Sidney Turner escaped with only a slight shakenup, but Rev. Wright and Mr. Slemmer were taken to Mt. Agnes Hospital for treatment. Rev. Wright returned to his Chestertown home Thursday and is not seriously hurt. Mr. Slemmer returned to Centreville also.

The car was damaged slightly. Friends of all the Rotarians are very thankful that the accident was not more serious.

$25,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

The Court was occupied Thursday and Friday with a removed case from Caroline. It was a suit for $25,000 damages brought by Mrs. Annie Martin against Wilmer F. Davis, of Federalsburg, for injuries sustained by her daughter, pretty Miss Vera Martin.

Miss Vera Martin, daughter of Mrs. Annie Martin, of Washington, D. C., was injured when the automobile in which she was riding collided with a truck owned by Mr. Davis. The driver of the automobile was killed and several other occupants of the car injured. Miss Martin suffered a badly disfigured face and the loss of her left eye.

Attorneys in the case were F. R. Owens, of Denton, and Harrison W. Vickers, of Chestertown, for the plaintiff and S. Scott Beck, of Chestertown, J. O. Knotts, of Denton, and R. R. Carman, of Baltimore, for the defendant.

The accident occurred on the Delaware State highway near St. Georges in June 1927.

Mrs. Elmer Schurr and three children, of Pennsylvania, were in the accident and each of these filed separate suites against Davis in sums aggregating $40,000.

This case was tried here last October and the jury disagreed standing 7 to 5 for the defendant. At this writing the jury is still out.

In the case of Noland, Bennett and Russell vs. Smith & Robinson a verdict was rendered in favor of Homer Smith.

While enroute to Atlantic City last Friday Supt. Hudson, of the Tolchester Co., and C. Frank Wheatley, with Mr. Parker driving was run into by a car containing Wm. J. Smith, of Wheeling, W. Va., and another man Mr. Smith was killed. Mr. Hudson received a sprained arm and Mr. Wheatley a severe shock and some bruises.

The New Lyceum is showing fine pictures nightly.
