SATURDAY, APRIL 19, 1930

It is a healthful spirit in a community when you find people taking pride in the appearance of their own home street and neighborhood. In a progressive town you will find people showing much of that spirit. They will say we have on our street about the prettiest neighborhood in town, and we are going to keep it so, and they look out that other streets don't get ahead of them. If some householder on such a street maintains an unattractive looking place, he can expect some gentle hints on the advantages of cleaning up and beautifying his home. A street where those standards prevail is one in which real estate values will advance.

COLLEGE POLL

Out of 260 ballots sent out in a wet and try poll conducted by the Washington Collegian, monthly publication of Washington College here, 190 votes were returned by the time the final tabulation was completed Friday.

The count showed 74 votes for strict enforcement of the amendment; 43 for repeal and 73 for modification of the Volstead act.

Ballots were sent to students, among whom are 85 women. Of these 38 voted for modification, 30 for enforcement and 17 for repeal.

WOMAN CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF IN CECIL

Cecil county has developed a rather novel political situation — a woman Democratic candidate for Sheriff. The candidate is not altogther unacquainted with the office and its duties for she is Mrs. G. Clinton Logan, wife of the present Sheriff. It is said she will have the endorsement of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland and Superintendent Crabbe has promised to aid in the campaign.

Under the law the Sheriff of Cecil county cannot succeed himself but evidently the job is attractive enough to cause the present Sheriff and his candidate wife to desire to keep it in the family. Sheriff Logan has made a name as an enemy to the liquor law violators and Mrs. Logan says "I will do everything in my power to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment and uphold the law."

SECOND PAIR TO "LAUGH SELVES OUT"

A marriage ceremony may be a laughing matter for some, but to the Rev. J. Harry Wright, pastor of the M. E. Church, here, it is a serious matter wherein no giggling should be tolerated. And already, two gay young couples with a party of giggling friends have found this out, much to their mixture of chagrin and merriment within the last six month.

The latest marriage ceremony to come to a sudden halt because of too much hilarity among the principles and attendants was for Charles Faulkner, age 21, of Marydel, Md., and Miss Mabel Hawthorne, age 18, of Wilmington, Del. During the last week-end the couple appeared at the local parsonage accompanied by several friends. Midway during the ceremony the young couple seemed to be amused about something. The clergyman stopped and adminished the young copule as to the seriousness of the occasion. He was about to proceed when they were again seized with mirth and burst into another fit of laughter.

A good time was being had by all except the officiating clergyman, who suddenly stopped, and informed the couple that he was sponsoring their marriage and did not intend to do so unless they regarded it as a serious affair and a solemn occasion. He told them that by the time they reached the home of some other clergymen they might realize the import of getting married and be able to compose themselves. With that he showed them the door.

Subsequent inquiry has revealed that no minister in this vicinity performed the ceremony for the pair and local court officials do not know where they went after leaving the Methodist parsonage.

Night Coughing Quickly Relieved

Famous Prescription Gives Almost Instant Relief

Night coughs, or coughs caused by a cold or by an irritated throat are usually due to causes which cough syrups and patent medicines do not touch. But the very first swallow of Thoxine is guaranteed to stop the most stubborn cough almost instantly. Thoxine is a doctor's prescription, working on an entirely different principle, it goes direct to the internal cause.

Thoxine contains no harmful drugs, is pleasant tasting and safe for the whole family. Sold on a money-back guarantee to give better and quicker relief for coughs or sore throats than anything you have ever tried. Ask for Thoxine, put up ready for use in 35c, 60c, and $1.00 bottles. Sold by Toulson's and all other good drug stores. Advt.

One trouble with Congress is its sectional appeal.

MARYLAND TRUCKS TAKE OUT LICENSE

The differences between Maryland and other States, relative to truck from Delaware going into those States without a license when the trucks are only temporarily engaged in work, and are required to take out licenses in the adjoining States, was met Monday by Delaware exacting of Maryland trucks doing work in Delaware, that they, too, take out a Delaware license. There were owners of six trucks working in Delaware Monday, who took out licenses with a total revenue to the State of over $500.

It appears that an agreement as far back as 1921, which had never been rescinded, requires trucks from other States to take out license in Maryland and acting on such agreement, the extra license is exacted.

OLD KENT D. A. R. APRIL MEET

Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R., held the April meeting at the home of Miss Ann Smyth, Washington Ave., Saturday, April 12th.

The Regent, Mrs. Chas. H. Skirven, presided, and introduced Dr. S. S. Hepbron, of I. U. Parish, who made the address of the afternoon.

Dr. Hepbron made a plea for the marking of historic spots in Kent county, that may soon be lost to sight unless some steps are soon taken to mark them. He called attention to the sites of old churches, and old mills, each of which had an important place in the life of the colonists.

He also paid tribute to some of Kent's outstanding men, in church and State.

Miss Fannie E. Stuart has been attending the Conteniental Congress now in session in Washington.

Old Kent Chapter has the honor of having one of it's members, Miss Elizabeth Bottomley, of Millington, serve as a page in the National Congress. She has been assigned to the press section.
