LOCAL NOTES.....

Asparagus was in market this week.

The shad season is on in earnest in all sections of the bay and Chester River with the exception of Betterton where the fish have not not yet reached. Rock Hall fishermen are making fine catches for which they are receiving from 75 cents for bucks to $1.50 for large roe shad. Net fishermen in Chester River off Chestertown are catching from six to a dozen each morning.

The formal Easter dance of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club will be held on Friday evening, April 25, from 9 until 1.

The annual yacht club dinner of the local club has been announced for Saturday, May 10. The details of the dinner will be announced later.

Richard W. McAdams, formerly of the Philmont Country Club, Philadelphia, has been secured as golf professional at the Chester River River Yacht and Country Club for the season. His brother is the pro at Dover Club and has been there for a number of years.

A chimney fire early Sunday morning caused the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company to be called to the home of Hulbert Townsend, on Front street here. The blaze was entinguished without any damage being done.

A "dark horse" in the race for attendance honors among Kent County Schools swept into the lead for March when the Broad Neck School topped the list with a percentage of 98.2. Mrs. Louise Akers Hirsch is the teacher at Broad Neck.

St. Paul School slipped into the honor class with a slight lead over Worton, one of the consistent leaders. Turner's Creek, heretofore among the top few, dropped into fourthteenth place with an average of 93.2.

Galena led the county high schools with a mark of 94.8.

WARREN S. SEIPP DIES IN BALTIMORE

Warren S. Seipp, Grand Master of Masons in Maryland, died at the University Hospital, Baltimore, on Friday after suffering a heart attack on last Saturday. While Mr. Seipp's health has not been good for more than a year, he had been seriously ill only since Thursday.

Mr. Seipp was a member of the Baltimore School Board and was a Vice President of the Title Guarntee and Trust Co. Because of his Masonic connections, he was well-known in this section of the State.

Grand Master Seipp has often visited the Chestertown Masonic Lodge and he had some warm friends among its members. He was one of the brightest men in Masonic history in this country and his sudden death has indeed been a shock to his many friends in Kent county.

COUNTY OFFICERS IN MOTOR CRASH

Magistrate Charles W. Nickerson and his son, Constable Samuel F. Nickerson, of near Millington, narrowly escaped death or serious injury and two Delaware motor-cycle officers and a civilian were painfully hurt in a motor crash on the Blackston-Clayton Highway, three miles west of Dover, early Friday morning.

C. Arthur Bacon has contracted to purchase the 110 foot lot on Maple Avenue from the Col. Vannort heirs. It is also reported that The Atlantic Refining Co. will occupy this property building an up-to-date station in the center of the lot.

At the monthly meeting of the Boar dof Directors of the Elkton Fire Company, held Monday night, it was decided not to hold a carnival this year.

Geo. W. W. Carter, Jr., filed last week as a candidate for Sheriff. On Thursday Wm. H. McKee filed as a candidate for Treasurer.

DEATHS.

John Edward Ferguson died about eleven o'clock Sunday night at his home in Cecilton, after a long illness from heart trouble and complications, aged about fifty-eight years.

Mr. Ferguson, who was known to his intimates as "Jeff," was a son of the late J. E. and Emma Ferguson, of the First District. For some years he was engaged in the undertaking business at Chestertown, but later returned to Cecilton, where of late years he conducted a filling station. He was twice married and is survived by his second wife, who was a Miss Vanneman, of Port Deposit and Baltimore. He is also survived by a brother, Robert Ferguson, of the First District, and five sisters — Mrs. Thomas Pearce and Mrs. Ida Budd, of Cecilton; Mrs. Wm. Howard and Miss M. E. Ferguson, of Chesapeake City, and a married sister, Mrs. Murray, in Philadelphia. His first wife was Miss Sue Reiche, of Chestertown, a sister of Charles J. Reiche.

The funeral was held Thursday, with interment at Cecilton.

A meeting of the Firemen's Association of Kent and Queen Anne's Counties was held in Sudlersville. The association is composed of five companies at Rock Hall, Chestertown, Millington and Sudlersville with the probability that Church Hill and Centreville companies will join this year.

At the annual election of officers for the ensuing year the following were elected: President, C. Arthur Bacon, chief of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company; vice-president Burgess Anderson, of the Millington Fire Company; secretary-treasurer, Allen Walls, Sudlersville. The object of the association is to incerase the efficiency of the fire fighting equipment of the towns represented and to stimulate interest on the part of members of the various companies in their work.
