Kent County Local Notes

ROCK HALL

Charles Porter has been named census taker here and has started work.

Last week a vessel of the U. S. War Department came along and dragged an anchor through a number of nets belonging to several of our fishermen, in water which the men claim is legally their own. An appeal was made to U. S. Representative T. Alan Goldsborough and Senator Beck, who came down Saturday night and met the men in Firemen's Hall, promising to come again next Saturday.

Mrs. William Francis went to Baltimore Saturday, where she was joined by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hutchins, and all spent until the next Tuesday in Washington where they were guests of their brother, Raymond Lewis, and other relatives.

Twice in the past week the fire company has been called out. First on Saturday evening to Wm. Fithian's where the fire was held to a chimney blaze and Monday morning at one o'clock to Percey Hepbron's where a brooder house and two hundred chickens were burned.

The M. E. Church House was filled Thursday evening when a reception and donation were tendered to the pastor, Rev. W. S. Grant, and wife upon their return to this charge for the fourth year of incumbency. There was a large orchestra under the leadership of Jesse Downey present that rendered several beautiful selections throughout a program that included a trio by June Francis, Grace Davis, and Lillian Donnelly; a recitation by Erma Jacob, a quartette by Allan Urie, Reuben Rodney, Emmett Wood and Elwood Rodney, a song by Lorraine Warner, reading by Mrs. Irving Crouch, a solo by Thomas Parsons, an address by Rev. W. S. Grant, a recitation by Mrs. James Rodney and one by James T. Taylor.

A Sabbath School Convention was held at the S. D. A. Church last Saturday and Sunday. Elder and Mrs. J. A. Leland and Elder and Mrs. C. D. Pickard, from Catonsville, and Prof. Neff, president of Washington Missionary College, were present to address the large audiences.

WIN OVER HAGERSTOWN CLUB

Washington College hammered the offerings of two pitchers of the Hagerstown Club, of the Blue Ridge League, here Saturday afternoon and and captured a 9-to-5 victory.

Several errors by the visitors aided the collegiate base runners to turn in two tallies in the second and five in the third inning.

Minky, who relieved Taylor on the mound in the third frame, failed to stop the onslaught although the Hagerstown defense tightened.

Washington bunched hits in the second. Crielly made first on an infield hit and scored on Dopson's wallop to deep center. Giaritis hit deep to center and came home with Dopson when Plummer again duplicated the feat. Baker singled to left scoring Plummer and Burk brought Baker home.

In the fifth, Carey relieved Griffin on the hill for Washington and in the eighth Hagerstown lost a chance to tie the score when, with three men on base, two batters were nabbed on grounders and Dowell was forced out at home. Walks to Auffort and Kalter in the sixth followed by hits by Rohe and Dowell accounted for four runs for the visitors in that inning.

CECILTON STUDENT INJURED

Friday while five young people of Cecilton were motoring, the car struck a bump and Miss Elibabeth Benson and Norman McCoy, who were riding in the rumble seat, were lifted violently from their places, but not thrown out. Miss Elizabeth escaped with slight cuts on her limbs, but Norman, who is the son of County Commissioner and Mrs. James P. McCoy, had four of his front teeth knocked out and his lips and mouth very badly cut. He is a nephew of Mrs. George D. Lofland and a cousin of Clerk Robert Shallcross, of Kent.

The congregation of St. John's Chapel will worhsip at I. U. Church on Easter Sunday morning, there will be no service at the above named church.

MUSICAL TREATS

Lovers of music of this community speak in the highest terms of the Sunday afternoon concert by the Washington College Orchestra and Glee Club. Both of these organizations are improving. Dr. Fred. G. Livingood is adding to his orchestra constantly. Albert Dowling, of Rock Hall, was the piano soloist.

At the Sunday evening service in Christ M. P. Church a large junior choir under the direction of Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell made its debut and will be a feature of the Sunday evening services thereafter. The College double quartette pleased everyone with their rendition of "The Old Rugged Cross."

On Wednesday evening the choir of Emmanuel Protestant Protestant Episcopal Church, assisted by talent from other churches in the town and from Baltimore sang Stainer's "Crucifixion" as a feature of the Holy Week services. A more detailed account may be found in Church notes.

On the following evening the choir of Woodland Baptist Church, Philadelphia, sang the same oratorio in the M. E. Church under the direction of the Rev. Melvin Wright, of Philadelphia, brother of the Rev. J. Harry Wright, pastor of the Chestertown Church.

CHESTERTOWN M. E. CHURCH

Rev. J. Harry Wright, Minister.

Sunday services as follows:

10.00 A. M., Church School, with a special program of worhsip built around the theme, "The Resurrection a Reality." This program will be prepared and conducted by the "Busy Bees," a class taught by J. D. McVean.

11.00 A. M., morning worship with a sermon by the minister on the subject, "Faith In the Risen Lord." The vested choir. under the direction of Mrs. Merrick Clements, will present special music, appropriate for Easter, This the day when Christians commemorate the resurrection of Jesus. It should be a memorable day for every Christian in Chestertown.

7.30 P. M. evening worship service. The vested choir will present a program of hymns and anthems, expressive of the Easter message. There will be no sermon by the minister.

Wednesday evening, 7.30, special service, featuring Gloria Cherry, sixteen-year-old high school girl preacher, of Philadelphia, and her sister, Jean, who is eleven years old. and who preached in Rehoboth M. E. Church last Summer. Gloria Cherry will preach a sermon on the subject "The Old Rugged Cross." Jean will have charge of the hymn-sing which precedes the preaching of the sermon. The parents of these young people will be here with them. Their father, Rev. T. K. Cherry, is the pastor of Rehoboth M. E. Church, Rehoboth, Del.
