LOCAL NOTES.....

Downies Bros. Circus starts out from Havre de Grace April 17th.

Kent Circuit Court meets April 21. Wm. B. Anthony has been excused as juror in 2nd district and F. B. Harper drawn in his place; Carlton C. Moore excused in 3rd and Harry Clark drawn; G. Frank Clark excused in fourth district and Elwood Whaley chosen in his stead.

In another column is advertised another piece of State road. It is the Betterton-Still Pond road to Lloyd's Creek. Under the new appropriation made by the U. S. Government Kent County will get an additional $12,000 for concrete roads.

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company has elected the following delegates and alternates to the first annual convention of the Del-Mar-Va Firemen's Association, which will meet in Cambridge on Wednesday, May 14: Delegates, C. Arthur Bacon, R. Clark Davis, Arlington L. Sparks, E. Scott Thompson, Wm. L. Fowler. Alternates, Wm. A. Burk, Barber R. Bartley, John E. Matthews, Wm. G. Smyth.

The monthly meeting of the Town Council was almost entirely consumed in listening to appeals from delegations of citizens and committees from civic organizations. Water street residents asked for improved road while the firemen wanted 1,000 feet of new hose.

The Board of County Commissioners has given notice that it will sit as a Board of Control and Review in the court house Tuesday and Wednesday, April 15 and 16 for the purpose of adjusting assignments on personal property.

The board is required to sit annually for this purpose because of the numerous transfers of property which take place during the year because of the provisions of wills probated and the large number of sales of personal property.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Burns, of Philadelphia, was injured early on Saturday morning when their Ford sedan skidded on a slippery highway near the Chester River Bridge and ran into a ditch. The car was badly demolished. They were returning home from a visit to relatives at Oxford, Md. Dr. H. P. Copeland dressed their wounds after Howard Reed, of this town, brought them to his home here in his car.

Mrs. Burns has cuts on the head and was suffering from shock, while her husband was injured about the mouth and has severe cuts on the head and face. They returned home by train Sunday.

Fresh strawberry ice cream is on the go at Gill Bros., our local ice cream manfacturers. Read their adv. on page —.

All members of Chestertown Council No. 177 Jr. O. U. A. M., are earnestly requested to meet at Fraternal Hall, on Wednesday, April 23, at 7.30 P. M., as there is to be voted on an amendment to an important law in reference to sick benefits. It is your duty to come to the lodge room and vote for or against the amendment, or hereafter abide by what is done.

Hog cholera was reported to exist on 12 premises during the month against 22 a year ago, and an 11 year average of 18 for the same period. Eight were classed as backyard outbreaks, while 4 were on farms where hogs are bred and raised. However, on 2 of these farms, garbage feeding plants were maintained. Eleven were classed as primary, or new outbreaks, while 1 was secondary, or spread of the infection from nearby premises.

Prince Georges and Wicomico counties were tied for first place with 3 outbreaks each. Caroline was runer-up with 2 outbreaks, while Anne Arundel, Kent, Queen Anne's and Worcester counties each scored 1 outbreak.

The first annual convention of the Del-Mar-Va Volunteer Firemen's Association, comprising delegates from fire companies in Delaware and the Eastern Shores of Maryland and Virginia will be held in Cambridge on Wednesday, May 14.

At its meeting here Monday evening the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company voted unanimously to send a large delegation together with its 35-piece band and a part of its apparatus, if possible.

The American Farm Bureau Federation, of Chicago, has just announced the launching of a world-wide contest to obtain three typical Farm Bureau songs, words and music, suitable for use in all the American Farm Bureau and community meetings in every section of the United States. Cash prizes totaling $200.00 will be awarded the winners in this contest: $150.00, $75.00 and $25.00 for first, second and third prizes, respectively. All manuscripts must be sent to Mrs. Charles W. Sewell, Director of Home and Community Work, American Farm Bureau Federation, 58 East Washington St., Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Sewell will also be glad to furnish additional information on the contest upon application.

Application for a permit to erect a building to be known as the Temple of the Scottish Rite of Free Masonry, on the southwest corner of Charles and Thirty-ninth streets, Baltimore, was fined this week. The Temple, which is to be three stories, will cost $1,000,000 and will be 175 feet square. The building will contain banquet hall, an auditorium, class rooms, lodge rooms and numerous club rooms.

A meeting of the breeders of Holstein cattle is called for Tuesday night, 8.00 P. M., in the County Agent's office, in the Court House. H. C. Barker, Superintendent of Advanced Registry in Maryland, will speak. The reorganization of the Kent County Breeders' Association is contemplated. Every breeder of Holsteins will want to attend.

Sometime during Sunday night thieves raided the chicken house of Mrs. Joseph H. Wollyhan, who resides on the road leading from Warwick to Sassafras, Md., and stole 48 fine Barred Rock chickens. They carried away every chicken in the house, and also the lock which they opened to gain an entrance.

On Tuesday night, April 1, the 4-H Boys' Club of Cliff City held a meeting and re-elected the officers of last year.

Several boys will raise a pig as their project. Two others have chosen calves. Others prefer poultry. Each boy having a definite project will be aided by the local leader, Mr. Jester, or the assistant county agent.

Older club boys who attended wer Wilbur Morris, Frank Sutton and Stanley Sutton. All made brief but inspiring talks to the younger boys. The county and assistant county agent were present also.

A marriage of interest to their many friends of Kent and Queen Anne's, took place Saturday evening, April 5, at 8.00 o'clock, when Mrs. Virginia T. Slaughter and Norman B. Wallace, were quietly married at the parsonage by Rev. Sidney Bradley. Clifton T. Slaughter, son of the bride attended them. No cards.

PAINT DEMONSTRATION AT GALENA HARDWARE STORE

C. H. Church, Galena, Md., has just sent out announcements of the demonstration of Red W Paints and Finishes to be held at his store on Monday, April 14th.

A factory representative from the Red W paint in St. Louis, Md., will be in charge of the display and will exhibit various of his company's products applied over the actual surfaces, for which they are intended in regular uses.

This week, the store's windows feature a guessing contest which will be carried on during the demonstration period. For guessing the closest number of dots in a circle, eight prizes are offered. In addition, a free can of finishes is given all making a guess on a regular coupon form.

Mr. Church's paint department has been recently changed to conform to the latest ideas in retail paint merchandising, and a visit to the store during the demonstration promises to be well worth while.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wickes Perkins, of Chestertown have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Anna Edwards, and Henry Harrison Cooke, on Saturday, May 3rd, 1930, at 8 p. m. at Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown. Admission to the wedding will be by card.

Mrs. Karl Melamet and son, Karl, after several days spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, in Chestertown, returned to her home in New York on Thursday. Her mother accompanied her home.

Mrs. W. E. Jarrell has returned home for the summer.

Robert W. Hygon left Rock Hall Tuesday for Rhode Island because of the sudden death there of his mother.

Miss Elizabeth Roberts, a niece of Mrs. Elizabeth Casey, of Rock Hall, was one of the singers at the Peabody concert Monday.

Miss Emma Baxter has been visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Professor and Mrs. Wm. H. Kenerson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Hartman on Wednesday and Thursday. Prof. Kenerson is at the head of the engineering department of Brown University of Providence, Rhode Island. They had been attending the convention of American engineers held in Washington, D. C., and were on their way home.

Miss Robertine Harriett Walls, of Kennedyville, and Joseph Barwick Oliffe, of the Sutton garage same town, were married January 15, 1930 by Rev. McClain Brown, pastor of M. P. Church.

Frank Lambert left Chestertown on Monday to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Paul V. Hayes, in Inglewood, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Graham, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., spent several days in town this week. Both were looking well.

Miss Lucille Rasin is recuperating from a two weeks illness at her home on Kent Circle.

Mrs. W. F. Russell is visiting her daughter in Salisbury.

Major Robert E. Jones, U. S. Army, visited his sister, Mrs. Williams, in Worton this week. He has been transferred to Brooklyn, N. Y., after being in SanAntonia, Texas, for sometime.

Miss Isabelle Crowden, of Philadelphia, has been visiting Miss Kathryn Baker.

Mrs. George N. Cooper and daughter Miss Margaret, and friend Miss Dickricker, spent Saturday and Sunday in Philadelphia, Pa.

John N. Bennett has been made local superintendent of the People's Life Insurance Company, in place of Mr. Johnson, resigned.

Howard L. Stier, of Chestertown, is chairman of the committee in charge of Sophomore Prom at the University of Maryland which will be held Friday night in Ritchie Gymnasium at College Park. He is a student in the College of Agriculture.

Mr. andMrs. John E. Barnes and sons, Jack and Wilbur, Misses Alice Smith and Cornelia Davis, motored to Washington and Arlington, Va., on Sunday last.

Rev. Dr. Humphreys and Mrs. Humphreys and Rev. Dr. Stone and Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Rachel Hill were at six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Roeder on Sunday.

Miss Helen Brown has accepted a position as Telephone Operator in the local exchange office.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Brown, of Haddonfield, N. J., were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Dana spent the week end in Salisbury where Dr. Dana attended a dentist's convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gitt and children, of Baltimore, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clarke.

Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Johns entertained the faculty at bridge last Friday evening.

Miss Isabelle Crowe, of Wilmington, Del., was the week end guest of her mother, Mrs. Ella S. Crowe.

Among the series of parties, shortly to be given in honor of Miss Anna Edwards Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wickes Perkins, whose engagement to Harrison Cook, recent Oxford graduate and resident of Elizabeth, N. J., has been announced, is a bridge-luncheon at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club to be given April 24, by Mrs. George Howard Dana. A little later Mrs. William Walter Chapman will entertain for Miss Perkins. Several other affairs will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Davis are visiting their son and family near Wilmington.

Rev. O. H. Connelly former pastor of Epworth M. E. Church and now goes to Dagsboro was given a big send-off. Present from various societies were presented the popular pastor and wife. Mrs. Connelly is a Kent countian.

The Kent County Musical Society will give their big Spring concert on or about May 13. A singer of wide reputation will be enjoyed as the star attraction.

CONCERT

BY THE

Chestertown Vol. Fire Co. Band

Tuesday Evening, April 22, 8 O'Clock

PLACE TO BE NAMED LATER

Proceeds for the benefit of a fund to purchase uniforms for the band. Tickets will be on sale at Stams and A. L. Spark's Stores.

A two part program cousisting of

INSTRUMENTAL and VOCAL SELECTIONS with a number of interesting SPECIALTIES.

Tickets on sale Tuesday April 15th

ADMISSION 50 CENTS

BONWIT LENNON

WHERE CHARLES ● MEETS CLAY

BALTIMORE, MD.

A Sale of

Princess Slips

Of Heavy Quality Crepe de Chine

2.95

In Tailored Models With Shadow Proof Hems

In the new Silhouette Style; lace trimmed.

In Flesh, White and Peach; tailored, lace trimmed or embroidered.

Mail Orders Promptly Filled

An invitation

TO THE OPENING SHOWING OF MEN'S SPORTS APPAREL DEVELOPED BY SPORTSWEAR, INC.

THE AUTHENTIC fashions for golf, tennis, riding and general country club and resort wear are now assembled in our Sportswear Department.

YOU ARE INVITED to make your inspection and selection now—when the assortments offered are complete and unbroken

BORDLEY & SON

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

INDEPENDENT GROCERY AND MEAT STORES

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

SATURDAY, APRIL 12th, 1930

Stand By Your Home Town Institutions AND MERCHANTS

BEN HELLER, Phone 17

All Steaks	40c
Beef Liver	20c
Cheese	24c
3 Boxes Macaroni	23c
Sugar 100 lbs.	$4.95
Try Kingan Chicken in Glass Jars

HADAWAY BROS.

Phone 37

Round Steak	35c
Sirloin Steak	38c
Porter House Steak	40c
Best Rib Roast	28c
Scrapple	10c
Fresh Pork Sausage	25c
Small Lean Fresh Shoulders	23c
Kingans Sliced Bacon	19c
Best Pork Chops	33c
Hamberg Steak	25c

EXTRA SPECIALS AT ALL 4 STORES

Kelloggs Corn Flakes 3 for	20c
Octagon Soap 4 large bars	23c
Rose Bud Flour 12 lb. bag	39c

Best Creamery Butter

Brookfield or Clover Bloom	45c
Standard Rib Roast	28c

JOS. W. LEWIS, Phone 235

2 Cans Sweet Potatoes	25c
3 Cans Campbells Beans	25c
2 Large Pet Milk	19c
Round Steak	33c
Fresh Shoulders	23c
2 lbs. Spredit Oleo	45c
Sculls Coffee	29c
10 lbs. Sugar	53c

GEO. T. COOPER

PHONE 62

3 pkgs. Corn Flakes	20c
3 pkgs. Noodles Macaroni	25c
3 Cans Ritters Beans	23c
3 Cans Tomato Soup	19c
6 Thin Glasses	21c

BEST STEER MEAT ONLY

Fresh Shoulders	23c
Leg Lamb	33c
Lamb Chops	43c
Veal Cutletts	45c
Veal Roast	33c
Steer Chuck Roast	25c
Brookfield or Clover Dale Butter	45c

HARRY F. JEFFERSON

$1.00 Black Satine Bloomers, suitable for Field Day	50c	$6.50 Silk Dresses, Plain and Printed	$5.00
$1.00 Shantung, Tub Silk and Crepe, Printed	89c	Women's Rayon Hose, Special Value	49c
$1.00 Oval Rugs, Reversible	89c

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_26_1-0367